

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. The Rev. W. DeL. Wilson offered the following resolution which was adopted :

STANDING COMMITTEES.

On the Report of the Trustee of the Wagenen Missionary Fund—The Rev. H. E. Hubbard, Mr. Seymour H. Stone.

Mr. Geo. N. Weaver read the Report of the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund (See Appendix I. F.)

The Rev. Dr. Egar from the Committee on the Constitution and Canons presented the following:

REPORT:

The Committee on the Constitution and Canons respectfully report that they have considered the Amendment to Canon X proposed by the Rev Dr. Mockridge and report that as the principle of Assessments as applied in Canon XI not being as yet fully understood, it is inexpedient to extend it at present.

They further recommend that the Amendments to the Rules of Order as proposed by the Rev. Dr. Mockridge lie over until the next Convention.

Proposed Parochial Blank.

They also report that they have considered the Amendment to Article III Sec 3 of the Constitution as proposed by the Rev. Dr. McKnight and consider its adoption to be inexpedient.

The Rev. Dr. Mockridge offered the following Resolution which was laid on the table.

Resolved, That the proposed changes in Canon X be passed at the present Convention.

The Rev. Dr. Eggar from the Committee on the revision of the Form for Parochial Report, presented the following

REPORT:

The Committee to whom was referred a proposed Parochial Report to take the place of the one heretofore in use in this Diocese respectfully report,

That while the blank in present use might be revised and perhaps improved in some particulars, it would not be expedient to substitute the proposed blank for it, because, while the proposed blank is much more extended and would require much more time to fill up, and would add considerably to the expense of printing the Journal of the Convention, it would omit some information of value, which the present blank secures, and in other respects could not be filled up accurately. In the opinion of your Committee, the most useful Parochial blank would be that which secures information required by the Canon of the General Convention, and presents it, in the briefest and clearest manner.

JOHN H. EGAR,
JAMES K. PARKER.

The Convention proceeded to the Election of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, the Chair appointed as tellers to receive the votes of the Clergy the Rev. E. W. Colloque and Mr. R. E. Young, and to receive the votes of the Laity, Mr. F. G. Clarke and the Rev. J. J. Burd.

Increase of Episcopate Fund—Standing Committee.

The Rev. W. B. Clarke offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That the sum of $11.500 be appropriated for the Missionary Work of the Diocese for the year ending April 30 1901, and that the sum of $10.500 be assessed upon the Districts of the Diocese.

The Rev. E. H. Coley submitted his report as Registrar of the Diocese. (See Appendix I. J.)

On motion an appropriation of $25 was made to the Registrar for the Diocesan Library.

Mr. A. H. Sawyer offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention heartily approves the efforts that have been made during the past year by Judge Andrews, Mr. R. J. Hubbard and Mr. H. O. Moss, for the raising of the sum of $25,000 to be added to the Episcopate Fund, and that these gentlemen be continued as a Committee for that purpose, and that they be authorized to appoint an agent to visit the parishes of the Diocese for the purpose of securing the balance necessary to make up this amount.

The Tellers presented their Report from which it appeared that the following named persons had received a majority of all the votes given, and they were therefore declared duly elected :

STANDING COMMITTEE.

The Rev. John Brainard, D. D.,	Mr. Azariah H. Sawyer.
The Rev. Henry R. Lockwood, S.T.D.,	Mr. John R. Van Wagenen,
The Rev. Theodore Babcock, D. D.,	Mr. George T. Jack.
The Rev. J. R. Harding,	Mr. William D. Dunning.

On motion the Convention took a recess until 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Reports—Delegates to Missionary Council.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, 2:30 o'clock.

The Convention re-assembled the Rt. Rev. the President in the Chair.

The Rev. H. E. Hubbard of the Committee on the report of the Missionary Board presented the following

REPORT:

Your Committee report that they have examined the Report of the Secretary of the Board of Managers and find that they must make the same criticisms, reiterated year by year, that the District Reports are not sent to the Secretary of the Board of Managers sufficiently early, and that in many ways they are incomplete. We would therefore call the attention of the Secretaries of the several Districts to Canon X. Sec. V. 5. Especial attention is called to the complete Report from such Districts as the Second, Third, Fourth Fifth as fitting models for Annual Reports. It would be of great interest if every Mission in the Diocese could be mentioned in its peculiar work. We wish to commend also the First District for having overpaid its assessment for Diocesan Missions. It is very noticeable that throughout the Diocese the smaller parishes are assessed a larger sum proportionately and have been more successful in paying their assessments than the larger ones. It is also clearly seen that the Assessments for Diocesan Missions throughout the Diocese seem disproportionate, and your Committee recommend the appointment of a Committee to consider the matter of Diocesan Missions and report at the next Convention. We would also call the attention of the Convention to the fact that Mission Offerings ought to be free will rather than by assessments.

The Rev. Dr. Maury read the Report on Christian Education. (See Appendix I. L.)

On motion, the Rev. W. B. Clarke and Dr. W. H. Watson were chosen delegates to represent this Diocese in the Missionary Council.

Report on the Van Wagenen Fund.

A vote by ballot being taken, the Secretaries acting as tellers, Mr. Wm. Marvin and Mr. Andrew H. Green were declared duly elected Trustees of the Parochial Fund for three years, from September 1st, 1900.

Mr. J. R. Van Wagenen read the report of the Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund. (See Appendix I. H.)

The Rev. J. T. Rose of the Committee on the Report of the Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund presented the following Report on the Van Wagenen Fund.

In accordance with his promise made to the last convention, the Trustee of the VanWagenen fund has taken expert opinion as to the value of the securities in his hands. The report of the Trustee is before the convention. The committee appointed for that purpose having examined the same before it was rendered.

The committee have the honor to report that the statement of the Trustee is correct in every particular, and aside from conventional platitudes they would heartily commend Mr. John R. VanWagenen for his wise administration of the trust, and congratulate the convention upon this large and growing fund for missionary purposes within the diocese.

Considering the purposes for which this money was given and the conditions and circumstances under which it will be used, it seems to your committee entirely germane to the subject to call the attention of the convention to a subject of gravest import in its widest application, and of practical importance to us in this diocese. In general terms the subject may be stated as the religious condition and needs of rural communities.

Not many years ago we were accustomed to look upon the rural population as conservative in its political theories and its religious practices. It is obvious that to-day this is not the case. We are concerned with the subject as it bears upon the religious condition of the rural communities.

Something over a year ago the Governor of New Hampshire in a Thanksgiving Proclamation called the attention of the people to the deplorable condition that prevailed in the greater part of the State in regard to the attendance upon public worship and the observance of the rites of religion. President Elliot of Harvard University is our authority for the statement that in large parts of the State of Maine there is almost complete indifference to at least the outward observances of religion, and we may add that in other days the State of Maine was again and again swept over by the fires of revivalism, and the usual result seems to have followed, viz.: Emotional religion kept at high-tension after a season exhausts itself.

The conditions in these two States, which have no great centres of population, are substantially repeated in rural communities in the Middle and Western States. The people upon the farms and in the villages resort in decreasing numbers to the country church; the family altar is abandoned; there is less and less interest in the things that pertain to the Kingdom. Add to this the fact that our own people are restless and ambitious, and that there is a growing discontent among young men and women with the life upon the farm and they flock to the cities in search of employment or pleasure while their places are being more and more taken by the French Canadians and Irish Roman Catholics.

A recent pervert to Rome, with the intemperate zeal of his class, notices this fact, and also the increased immigration from Southern Europe, and rejoices in the hope that the old Anglo-Saxon type and ideals will gradually be replaced by an alien race and creed.

The cities have their "slums" and we need constant re-inforcements of men and money to fight the battles of righteousness in those vantage grounds of the Evil-One; the drift of population make endowments necessary for many of our city churches if they are to be manned efficiently.

The new responsibilities assumed by the Nation place additional burdens and duties upon the church. The needs, work and results in these instances are more obvious, in a sense more picturesque; indeed, so much so that multitudes of good people forget the needs, conditions and results of church work in rural parishes and dioceses.

Many of the social conditions found in the city slums are reproduced in the country, although the population is spread over a much larger area.

There is growth in the country parishes and missions, and if in many of these places there is little apparent increase from year to year the fact is explained by reason of removals to the cities, and the city parishes are strengthened by accessions from the country districts.

The existence and purpose of the Van Wagenen fund suggest these reflections on the part of your committee. Opulent churchmen will find in the religious needs of our own rural communities objects as well worthy of their consideration and liberality as the unquestioned needs in our cities and new possessions.

JOHN T. ROSE.

SEYMOUR H. STONE.

A vote by ballot being taken, the Secretaries acting as tellers, Mr. P. C. J. DeAngelis, Mr. Alfred C. Coxe, Mr. Horace O. Moss, Mr. Arthur M. Beardsley and Mr. Egbert Bagg were declared duly elected Trustees of the Bible and Prayer Book Society.

The Chair re-appointed the following Committee on Sunday School Work: The Rev. C. W. McNish, Rev. W. B. Clarke, Rev. John Arthur and Messrs DeLancey Bartlett, and F. L. Lyman.

The Bishop appointed as Examining Chaplains the Rev. Theo. Babcock, D. D., Rev. Wm. M. Beauchamp, S. T. D., and the Rev. E. W. Saphore.

The Rev. W. H. van Allen offered the following resolution which was carried.

Resolved. That this Convention while recognizing the wideness of Christian liberty and refusing to define moral issues more rigorously than Holy Scripture warrants, does nevertheless in view of the terrible ravages of strong drink, commend to Christian folk, and especially to the Clergy, the practice of total abstinence from alcoholic beverages as the safest and most charitable course.

The Rev. W. B. Clarke presented the Report of the Missionary Board. (See Appendix I. B.)

Adjournment.

On Motion of the Rev. Dr. McKnight the Committee on Marriage and Divorce appointed at the last Convention was continued for another year.

On motion of the Rev. J. T. Rose it was Resolved, That the hearty thanks of this Convention be extended to the Rectors and Congregations of the city of Binghamton for their generous hospitality during this Convention.

On motion of the Rev. W. DeL. Wilson it was

Resolved, That 1,300 copies of the JOURNAL of this Convention, together with the Constitution and Canons, and various forms and legislative acts of incorporation, be printed under the direction of the Secretary and distributed as directed by Canon V.

The Convention then, on motion, resolved to adjourn after the reading of the minutes and the usual devotions.

Then minutes of this day's session were read and approved.

The Bishop offered prayers and pronounced the benediction, and the Convention adjourned sine die.

President of the Convention.

The Bishop's Address.

Horace B. Goodyear, Presbyter, and Joseph Bishop, Deacon, have been deposed from the sacred ministry with their own assent, and I believe, their approval.

I have baptised three infants and one adult.

I have confirmed 1,035 persons. The list of Parishes and Missions will be given by the Secretary in the Journal. During my entire administration I have confirmed 29,540.

We have Deacons: Nine. Rev. Daniel Daly, Rev. Matthew I. Hunt, Rev. Edmund A. Anson, Rev. Karl G. Heyne, Rev. Albert W. Allen, Rev. Robert Westlake Bowman, Rev. Herbert H. H. Fox, B. T. Stafford and Horace T. Owen.

Candidates for Holy Orders: Fifteen.

Postulants: Eleven.

To fill the vacancy made in the office of Dean of St. Andrews's Divinity School, the Rev. Theodore Babcock, D. D., has been appointed, and the Rev E. W. Saphore has been added to the Staff of Teachers. It has been found expedient and convenient to occupy a house, or Hall, on Waverly Avenue, where with the Dean, the students reside in a school family. Daily services are conducted at the Church of the Saviour.

If our territorial or other conditions do not present such striking signs of prosperity and such interesting demonstrations, as we are told of in some Dioceses, we must be the more grateful that no special calamities or mortifying disturbances have hindered us in the way, but that, according to the humble measure of our gifts, and by steady labor, we have been enabled to hold our own. I feel an increasing depression at the scantiness of my performance. It is too late now to mend the matter. You must bear with the shortcomings of power and effort as kindly as you can, for the time that remains. Brothers in the brotherhood of mind and heart, who started in education and public life with me, have gone on before me, Richard Salter Storrs the last of them. The loss of some precious and lovely lives among ourselves we must deplore.

Within one month of the year two of our stronger minds and masters of ministerial work passed from our earthly sight and companionship, at God's comand, and because His mysterious will was so to be done. The Rev. Philip Nelson Meade, Rector of Christ Church, Oswego, having completed a fervid and untiring rectorship of ten years, fulfilling every high hope and attracting unusual attention by rare gifts and radiant accomplishments, died on the 8th of last November. His previous successes in smaller parishes at the South and West, as a preacher and administrator, created expectations to which he proved immediately and entirely equal. He was soon made Dean of his Convocation, and all his Brethren were drawn to him by his genial manners, hearty good-will and a singular readiness for all demands and opportunities, in pulpits or missions. His home was a scene of cordial hospitality and warm family affections. If inordinate toil shortened the natural period of his activity and usefulness here, it was but another instance of that subordination of prudence and self-preservation to disinterested zeal and uncalculating energy by which heroic lives are made, and which survivors, even in their mourning, must honor, and mankind must continue to admire.

Considering well what the Rev. Dr. Joseph Morrison Clarke had been in weight of character, in just and wide reputation as a theological, classical and historical scholar, and in manifold service to this Diocese from its organization, as a Rector, preacher, Instructor in St. Andrew's Divinity School, and Secretary and Chaplain to his Bishop, no more serious deprivation has befallen us, I think, than in his death last November. Perhaps no intellectual quality was more impressive in him than solidity, no spiritual quality than profound reverence and tenderness of the religious conscience. Born of the best Church stock, he gave his life, with undivided attachment and energy, to Church service. That trait which he most respected in all sacred labor, thoroughness, was most manifest in his own work as a student and a teacher. His memory was of such remarkable firmness and tenacity that he could safely be referred to for accurate information much beyond the range of ordinary professional knowledge; yet it was equally observable that he was always slow to give a statement or an opinion on his own authority, but almost invariably referred to some historical or literary or scientific judgment other than his own. Nothing but a constitutional diffidence or shyness restrained in him the expression of a very sympathetic and social disposition and a genial humour, but he never trifled, flattered or exaggerated. His discernment of merit, and of the contrary, was too keen to be easily deceived, though gentleness and charity were not sacrificed to wit or cleverness in his conversation. In various respects I am indebted to him; I miss him often; and I delight to record my claim to more than a common share of the esteem felt for him and his name wherever his presence and his great worth were known.

There is some hesitation, as you will understand, in selecting from among the valued fellow-believers whose lives and service with us have been ended, those more deserving than others of particular commemoration. Such names as Leroy L. Alexander of St. Paul's, Syracuse; Franklin Parker of Theresa; John C. Champion of Zion, Rome; Charles Webb Haynes of Guilford; and Jessie Owen of Elmira, keep us in mind what type of manhood this Church creates and fosters in its sons; and they have borne witness, in various communities, to its comfort and power.

Since the beginning of Dr. Clarke's fatal illness, a year ago, I have employed no clerical or Episcopal assistance. All my engagements, I believe, have been met, without cost to the Diocese. My Brother-Bishops have generously offered to aid me in my old age.

Our methods, such as they are, are generally so well understood, being gradually adapted to our conditions, that no extended review of the year's doings seems to be now required, and no other statements than appear in our several official Reports and in the monthly Diocesan newspaper. I have to make only a few remarks touching two or three of our principal Church-concerns on which I have spoken to you more at length heretofore.

We share with other religious bodies, I suppose, and far more, I am sure, than with our pretensions we ought to, in an unsatisfactory and tiresome struggle to maintain an honorable proportion between the boasted material prosperity that we are living in, on the one hand, and the shameful littleness of what we are giving and doing for the Kingdom of our Lord on the other. There is no question as to our obligation, for God and conscience and all clear voices tell us plainly what that is; and there is just as little question as to the sinful parsimony, manifest and widespread in every social class, but most in those who have much given them beyond their needs and yet refuse to treat and impart it as a trust to which they are fairly pledged by their baptism, and by every day of the life they have lived since they accepted their Christian inheritance. In that privileged membership in the Body of Christ there are, in this our Family, several thousand persons completely and constantly faithless to the command of Christ Himself, and to the agencies of divinely ordered action and sacrifice by which alone His will can be done and His world saved. It is vain, it is an hypocrisy, to pretend that in these multitudes the meaning of that word, "sacrifice," so familiar on our lips in prayer and hymn as to be well-nigh profane, has entered into the mind as a reality. We find no proof, no evidence, that those in the Church who even make themselves a party of special devotion to the Cross and its sacrificial symbols are remarkable for these gifts of money and tasks of mercy. Rather than openly surrender the weary effort, and abnegate our standing and let humanity perish, we stumble and tug along from year to year, and hand in to the Lord's treasury our shortage with iterated apologies, ashamed to throw up our solemn promise and vow, and almost equally ashamed of the humiliating devices and twists and entreaties to which we are driven to keep up our decency in the face of the world. Too often, when I have asked Parish clergymen whether their salaries have been well, i. e., punctually, paid, the pathetic accent and faint smile of the answer—"Pretty well"—have disclosed what self-respect was too patient to speak.

I fear our piety or loyalty would hardly bear this test of pecuniary sacrifice. Is it credible that our thirty thousand Church attendants could not well bestow as many dollars for Christ and His cause beyond what they now bestow? What a new daylight would brighten our whole sky! It is reported that some thrifty and prosperous calculators have refused to partake in the blessings of the cheerful giver with the remark, "The Bishop can get any amount of money outside of Central New York. Let him get it," I make two comments. The statement, or conjecture, is as baseless as the spirit of it is base. Beyond a few generous presents, most gratefully received, in the past, there is not the slightest expectation or token of such favors now or in the future. What if there were? If anybody is willing, in order to evade his honorable obligation as a Christian or a citizen, to make the Diocese of Central New York a beggar, with its eleven thousand square miles of rich and fruitful territory, its productive industries of every description, its millions of increasing capital, its ten thriving and handsome cities, with scarcely a spectacle of poverty, I prefer to spare myself the characterizing of that style of brother-man.

Many times, in many places, I have made known to you my abiding conviction, a conviction I trust you share, that our divine commission, our ordered ministry, our Gospel Faith, bid us obey the second command of Christ, in the twofold order of His Kingdom on the earth, as distinctly, carefully, assiduously, and courageously where courage is wanted, as the first. No apology can excuse the inequality of concern, energy, directness, between the two, hitherto manifest in the Church. Immorality, vices of the senses, social iniquities, are not dealt with according to the spirit or the letter of the teachings of the Son of Man, or His New Testament. Our duty is not done.

Not tarrying much in generalities, I find it a duty of my own to point you to one of these sins which by common consent is most prevalent in the community where we live, most subtly and yet fatally destructive to Christian character, most ruinous to every virtue, most poisonous to domestic honor and peace, most corrupting sooner or later to the civil integrity and strength of the Nation and the State. Its source lying in the fact of sex, it takes to itself alliance with every baser passion of human nature, and enfeebles or contaminates every better interest of the lives we live in the flesh, lives which it is our best business to cleanse, to consecrate, and save.

Knowing the difficulties to be encountered, I shall disregard the methods of exhortation or argument, of treatises, statistics, or rhetorical alarms. Instead, I give you information,—information as to what I know and most of you do not, what I must know and should be derelict as your Shepherd and Church Counsellor if I refrained from telling you, though the matter lies much out of visible observation.

The Bishop's Address

Twenty years ago, early in my administration, in a fixed belief that the root of all right character is in the soul, conscience and will of God's consecrated child, and that a reform of what is evil, in the individual and in society, must come about not by measures or systems, nor by external coercion, still less by artificial theories, I opened a small house in Syracuse for receiving, sheltering, and training such women or girls as would come or be brought; and I placed in it as housekeeper and protector a Deaconess, having then no other helper than members of my own family, one of whom has had a care for it constituting a large concern of her life from that day to this. I need not mention to you in detail the modifications of plans and rules which experience year by year has recommended. Gradually it became plain that the wisest expenditure of our moderate means would be to take in, as far as our limits would permit, in number less than fifty at once, girls between ten and eighteen years of age, all of them greatly exposed or tempted by circumstances or temper or appetite, some from the street, some orphans or worse, some unmanageably vicious where they had been, some under sentence from the Police Court and apparently doomed to a career of shame and unmeasured mischief to their own sex and the other. In all respects we have been in friendly and obedient relations with municipal and other lawful authorities. When, in compliance with the judgment of the Board of Trustees and with law and mercy, an inmate can be securely discharged, she is with due caution set free from an enforced confinement. Many have gone into useful service and earned a respectable living. Not a few have been well married. It is not unusual for those dismissed to correspond afterwards with those to whom they feel indebted for their reformation.

The number of buildings on the estate has increased from one to five, including a chapel, work-room and laundry. A small vegetable and flower garden is attached.

The Bishop's Address.

No distinction at all is made as to the race, nationality, color or intelligence of the inmates, excepting such as the Board of Health may prescribe. In every particular the mechanical, architectural and disciplinary features are subject to the frequent inspection of the State Board of Charities. The uniform object is to awaken and strengthen in these wayward children a healthy moral character in purpose and habit, that inward force by which all right conduct everywhere must proceed. This is done by such agencies as tuition, industries, music, recreation, and worship in harmony with the principles of the Church. Some of the needlework has gained public admiration and won prizes. Devotional services are observed daily. Baptisms, confirmations, and celebrations of the Holy Communion, are administered by a Chaplain or by the Bishop.

The yearly expenses of this charity are at present about $4,600. A part of this sum is provided by the City and County as a poor return for the support and education of those whose existence otherwise would be a menace or peril to the community. There is a small income from a legacy of a deceased Churchwoman not of this Diocese. The remainder required has to be obtained by gifts and offerings in answer to anxious and painful petitions. There is this year a deficit, which if allowed to accumulate must cripple or extinguish the charity.

Whether our sisters, the sisters of these straying and dangerous deformities of womanhood, wives, daughters and mothers having membership in the Church in our Diocesan Family, think there is a claim on them of Christ our Lord, Son of Mary, in this behalf, a claim of conscience or pity or self-denial, I do not know. I do not know what is in their hands or intentions or in their last testaments. From our six or seven score Parishes, a few individuals outside of Syracuse are recorded as contributing money to this form of benefaction. It may be that as some of them regard elaborate and voluminous treatises, or magazine articles, or legislatures made up as our legislatures are apt to be, as representing sufficiently the frightful crimes and cruelties of divorce, and as a more effectual defence of female honor and chastity and of Christian wedlock, and a surer safeguard against its degradation, than such modest efforts as I have here set before you. You may differ from me in deeming those loud protests in closer harmony with the philosophy of human nature and its laws. Meantime, that they can see with indifference what every day's publications thrust in print before our eyes, can see the flaunting signals every evening of unguarded companionships, loose liberties, seductive gaities, on the streets and at the windows of all our cities, can see how lust conspires with the temptations of opium and 'alcohol, can see the havoc of happiness wrought by unprincipled and unrebuked men,—this indifference I for one can not yet believe to prevail. I should think some men, looking back over their past, and finding life to be a serious thing, would be glad to save what they have destroyed of woman's peace and purity. We may sometimes have thought that there are newspapers, not indecent, yet more willing to publish our hindrances and misfortunes and even our errors, or the calumnies of culprits, than our aims and endeavors. But we would rather dismiss that as an unfair opinion. We cannot wonder if there is a class and a business which for obvious motives would injure or suppress us if they could.

I do not need to be reminded that the subject has not often been much touched in my Episcopal addresses. As I look back on thirty-one of them, I wish there were nothing in them less deserving a solemn Episcopal monition. Let me ask my Brethren, the clergy, if they follow the prevailing practice of reading these addresses, or portions of them, to their congregations, not to omit this portion of the present one. The Shelter for Unprotected Girls is not a Diocesan institution; we have not many of them. Neither the Convention nor the Diocese itself is officially accountable for its maintenance or meritorious for its benefactions.

For several years the mission to deaf mutes in the Diocese has been regarded as no less a part of our missionary service than any other part, and it has been conducted simply by the employment of the Rev. C. Orvis Dantzer, himself an educated deaf-mute Priest, ordained by me, every way competent, discreet, modest, devoted, trusted. The engagement was that he should divide his time and labors equally between the two Dioceses of Western and Central New York, under the united direction of the two Bishops, rendering public, pastoral, personal and sacramental services wherever he might find God's silent children living, singly or in families. He was to receive for the work and his travels $400 from each of the Dioceses. Our half of that sum was, from the first, raised tardily and partially, though special Sundays for offerings were ordered by the Convention. The deficiency has not been supplied by appeals or solicitations. The Treasurer reports no funds. The Junior Auxiliary has made praiseworthy contributions. Knowing the missionary's domestic privations I have from time to time furnished aid from my Relief Fund. It has seemed to me that scarcely any form of charity or deprivation could touch more tenderly or pathetically the sensibilities or the conscience of Christian men and women. Nor could I see why the circumstance that the beneficiaries are mostly scattered, and must be sought, should make their claim on our pity and our ministrations less obligatory than if they formed rural communities or were Indians and lived together on a Reservation. At last, finding it an unsupportable trial to be a permanent agent of dereliction, I have notified our Brother, that, unless the Managers of our Diocesan Board of Missions should provide otherwise, he can expect no continuation of what appeared to be a wise and gracious partnership.

The Bishop's Address.

One proof that the remarkable growth in the profession of public and private nursing of the sick, as a science and an art, is not left without a reverent ministry of the Christian Faith, from which it all springs, is shown in the recent formation of the Guild of St. Barnabas, with Associate Members and Chaplains, under the immediate direction of Mrs. Coddington, Miss Babcock, Miss Lightbourn and Miss Staunton.

No inconsiderable amount of my time is given to the affairs and the religious offices of the Hospital and Training School for Nurses of the House of the Good Shepherd, Syracuse. By order of the Trustees, two somewhat costly buildings are now going up, with extensive additions to the scientific, medical and surgical apparatus, staff and accommodations.

I cannot frame too hearty a tribute to the earnest and zealous wisdom that has guided the affairs of the Woman's Auxiliary, in its senior and junior departments, and in each of the six districts, with the counsel of its unwearied Diocesan Director.

"The Girls' Friendly Society," in its own line, deserves equal favors. On February 5th I received three new members at the Church of the Saviour.

You will have a full report of the doings of our missionary organization from the Managers.

A worthy and timely extension of our Church activity at home, calling our sympathy to a long neglected race at our doors, has appeared in a mission, now fairly planted by the Rector of Grace Church, Syracuse, with regular services and ordinances, among the colored people of the city. With such help as he and they have a right to expect, there is promise that a suitable Church or Chapel may before long be built. An encouraging token of widening sympathy, not without precedent, to be sure, far back in the early history of the Church, and of escape from an anti-Christian national prejudice here, was given when, at our late State Convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and at other missionary meetings among us, clergymen of African blood have been welcomed to equal honor with the white Brethren.

Sensible Christians, observing the rather rapid subsidence of apprehensions started not long ago by some apparent attempts, old and new, to discredit the authenticity of some parts of the Holy Scriptures, by irresponsible theories as to their literary composition, may reasonably infer from this early second thought, that the mind of the Church is almost as slow to be disturbed respecting the Records of the Faith it holds, the wondrous vehicle of God's Revelation, as by periodical attacks of unbelief upon the substance of the Faith itself. What is actually demonstrated in the Bible as it is and has been, on the testimony of scholars competent and reverent, is that whatever in our version really needs correction is certain enough to be admitted to revision, without effect on the unity of the multiform oracle of the Spirit, the miracle of the ages. In spite of the prevalent propensity of the popular periodical press to extol whatever in religion is vague, loose, "liberal," in doctrine and discipline and government, while careful to disparage whatever is definite, positive, venerable and orderly, it is a re-assurance for which we must give thanks, that the best learning joins with a reasonable reverence in distinguishing between that human element of language which is unavoidable in historic documents, on the one hand, and the inspired Gospel of Truth, with all its attendant voices and methods and forces of speech, the strength of witnesses, and the power of the Christian pulpit, on the other. Let us be thankful that the Church, after nineteen centuries, is not hunting or contend-

APPENDIX I.

Report of Officers and Committees

With Accompanying Papers.

A. Report of the Standing Committee,

FOR THE CONVENTIONAL YEAR 1899-00.

The Standing Committee respectfully report that, during the Conventional year 1899-00, they have held six meetings, the first in Christ Church, Oswego, the sixth in Christ Church, Binghamton, and the other four in St. Paul's Church, Syracuse.

At the first meeting, held June 14th 1899, all the clerical members, and Messrs Sawyer and Dunning were present, and the committee was organized for the year, by the election of the Rev. John Brainard, D. D., President, and the Rev. H. R. Lockwood, S. T. D., Secretary. The Treasurer submitted his estimate of expenses of the Diocese for the ensuing year as follows: Printing Journal of the Convention and other printing, $400; rent of Episcopal residence, $600; salary of Secretary of Convention and his assistant, $250; appropriation for the Bishop's travelling expenses, $300; Episcopal or other assistance which the Bishop may require, $1000; amount advanced by Treasurer on account of General Fund, $868; making a total of $3,418. It was ordered that this sum be charged upon the parishes, and that they be severally notified of the amount of their assessment for the same. The Secretary and Messrs Dunning and Jack were appointed a committee to make out and report to the Treasurer in accordance with the new canonical directions, a table of said parochial assessments. On motion, the President was requested to prepare in the name of the committee, and send out, early in March and September, a letter to the Clergy of the Diocese calling attention to the Canon requiring offerings to be taken on the fourth Sundays in those months to make up the deficiency in the income for the Episcopate Fund.

At the second meeting, held September 25th, 1899, all the clerical members and Messrs Van Wagenen, Jack and Dunning being in attendance consent was given to the consecration of the Rev Arthur L. Williams as Bishop Co-adjutor of the Diocese of Nebraska, the Rev. Joseph Marshall Francis as Bishop of the Diocese of Indiana, and the Rev. William Loyall Cravatt as Bishop Co-adjutor of the Diocese of West Virginia. Proper testimonials having been received Messrs Henry Capen Staunton and Edwin Lee Tanner were recommended to be admitted candidates for Holy Orders. The Secretary was instructed to notify the officers of a parish, asking the committee for a reduction of the assessment upon said parish for the General Fund, that the granting of such relief is under the present canon, permissible only by vote of the Convention.

At the third meeting, held December 11th, 1899, all the members were present. The Bishop was also at this meeting, and took counsel with the committee in regard to several important matters of finance and of discipline within the Diocese. The required testimonials having been received, the consecration of the Rev. Sidney Catlin Partridge to be Missionary Bishop of Kyoto, Japan, was consented to, and Messrs Theodore Haydn and George Stanley Husch were recommended to be admitted candidates for Holy Orders. Other papers asking recommendation for candidateship of the person named in them were, after full consideration, laid upon the table. Bills of expenses amounting to $12.20 incurred in behalf of a committee of Investigation appointed in November last, under Canon XVIII, Section I, were audited, and the Treasurer of the Diocese was instructed to pay them out of the General Fund. The Rev. John R. Harding, Rector of Trinity Church Utica, was elected to fill, for the remainder of the term, the vacancy in the Committee caused by the death of the Rev. P. N. Meade.

The following testimonial to Mr. Meade was read and adopted.

"The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Central New York, assembled for the first time after the lamented death of their associate, The Rev. Philip Nelson Meade, desire by this minute, both to express their own sense of loss, and to record the faithfulness and devotion of their departed brother as a member of our Diocesan Consistory.

"Mr. Meade came into our Diocese ten years ago—a stranger to us all—in the full vigor of his efficient ministry. His pastoral fidelity, and unwearied devotion in his wise and attractive presentation of the doctrines and system of the Church turned the eyes of the Diocese upon him, when, in the Convention of 1897, it became necessary to elect a successor in the Standing Committee to the Rev. Dr. Goodrich.

"His surviving brethren in the Committee testify to the faithfulness with which he discharged the duties of his office, and the benign influence he has exerted. With a tender and tearful remembrance of his gentle manners, and sweet unselfishness they can, from their own loss, gauge the depth of sorrow which settles down upon his parish and his family, and they pray God that of His abounding consolations He will dry their tears and comfort their hearts.

Resolved, That this minute be entered upon the records of the Committee, and a copy sent to the family of our departed brother, and to the wardens and vestrymen of Christ Church, Oswego.

It was ordered, also, that the following memorial of the Rev. Dr. Clarke be placed among the minutes of the meeting :

"In the early morning of last St. Andrew's day, a day commemorative, also, of the ingathering of the fruits of man's labor, the Rev. Dr. Joseph M. Clarke was called to exchange his work on earth for the higher ministry and the ampler rewards awaiting in God's Kingdom, the good and faithful servant.

"In recalling his excellent services to the Church and the Diocese we may not forget the wisdom and efficiency with which he filled, for many years, the honorable office of President of this Committee, a long connection with the Diocese, cordial sympathy with its traditions and usages, a remarkable familiarity with ecclesiastical history and with canon law, entire and intelligent loyalty to the Church, great clearness of mind and carefully reasoned judgments fitted him eminently for the responsibilities which, in that position, he so well discharged.

"Dr. Clarke had varied and admirable gifts, some of which gained for him distinction and esteem throughout the American Church, and others which, hidden from wider notice by a constitutional reserve, charmed the minds and attracted the affection of intimate friends. But no modesty or diffidence could keep from general view, the wealth of his learning, the distinctness, the conscientiousness, the sometimes almost startling energy of his convictions, or the strength and delicacy of his emotional sensibilities.

Report of the Standing Committee.

"In his fair and honorable use of extensive knowledge, and of fine intellectual power in his scrupulous exactness of statement, whether in casual conversation in the pulpit, or in argumentative and controversial writing, he set before the ministry a noble example of the intelligent and the honest mind. His Christian learning was so great, his thinking upon high subjects so careful and reverent; he knew so well the grounds of his belief, that the conclusions reached in his study of any particular subject, as well as his general theological judgments, were entitled to an unusual degree of confidence.

With all his shrinking from self-assertion, Dr. Clarke was a man of uncommon moral courage, and his exhibition of obedience to a sense of duty rose, on occasions, to the height of dramatic splendor. But among those who knew him best he will, perhaps, be most admiringly remembered for his kindly spirit and the genuineness of his piety. However various the impressions he may have made upon different minds all were sure that Dr. Clarke was good, and as they who were most closely connected with him recall his strength of character, his obligingness, his patience, his charity in judgment, his tender feelings, his deep religious trust, the sense of loss, occasioned by his death, will be mingled with pride and gratitude that to our Diocese has been given the honor of numbering with its Clergy one for whom, we cannot doubt, a place has been prepared, high and clear, among the great saints of God."

At the fourth meeting, held February 26th, 1900, there were present the Rev. Drs. Brainard, Lockwood, and Babcock, and Messrs Wagenen, Jack and Dunning. Mr. Howard William Crydenwise, having presented satisfactory testimonials, was recommended for admission as a Candidate for Holy Orders, and unanimous consent was given to the dispensing, in this case, with the requirement of examination in classical Greek. The consecration of the Rev. Robert Codman to the Bishopric of Maine, and that of the Rev. Charles Palmerston Anderson as Bishop Co-adjutor of the Diocese of Chicago were consented to.

At the fifth meeting, held June 4th, 1900, all the Clerical members and Messrs Sawyer, Jack and Dunning being present, the Rev. Manning Blackstone Bennett and the Rev. Edwin B. Mott, Deacons, were recommended to be advanced to the Priesthood, Mr. Herbert H. Fox to be ordained a Deacon, and Messrs Gilbert Augustus Shaw and Henry Neal Hyde to be made Candidates for Holy Orders. On account of the non-expiration of the required period of Candidatship, action on papers asking that Mr. Edwin Lee Tanner be recommended for ordination to the Diaconate was put over to the September Meeting.

The Treasurer submitted his estimate of expenses of the Diocese for the coming year, as follows: Printing Journal of Convention, distributing the same, and other printing, $450; rent of Episcopal residence, $600; salary of Secretary of Convention and his assistant, $250; appropriation for Bishop's travelling expenses, $300; episcopal or other assistance, as may be required by the Bishop, $500; deficit in income of Episcopate Fund, $500; making a total of $2600. A schedule of assessments upon the parishes for this amount, apportioned according to the directions of Canon XI of the "General Fund" was adopted and ordered to be reported to the Convention.

At the sixth meeting, held June 12th, 1900, all the members were present, and on receipt of the required testimonials, consent was given to the Consecration of the Rev. Robert Woodward Barnwell, as Bishop-Coadjutor of the Diocese of Alabama, and it was recommended that William R. Scarritt, D. D., be admitted a candidate for Holy Orders, and the Rev. Burnett T. Stafford, Deacon, be advanced to the Priesthood.

The Secretary's report of transactions of the Committee during the year was accepted and ordered to be presented to the Convention.

All which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee.

H. R. LOCKWOOD,
Secretary.

SECOND DISTRICT.

(ONEIDA COUNTY AND PART OF MADISON COUNTY)

The officers of the District are : The Rev. Oliver Owen, Dean ; the Rev. J. W. Clarke, Secretary ; the Rev. William Cooke, Treasurer ; the Rev. E. H. Coley and Mr. W. Pierrepont White, Members of the Board of Managers ; the Dean, Secretary, Treasurer, the Rev. E. H. Coley and the Rev. A. H. Rogers, Committee on Assessments and appropriations.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are : In Oneida County—Augusta, Oriskany Falls, Boonville, Bridgewater, Camden, Clark's Mills, Clayville, Westmoreland, Durhamville, Holland Patent, New York Mills, St. Joseph's (Rome), Whitesboro, Oriskany, Paris Hill, Forestport, Deerfield and Chadwick's Mills. In Madison County—Brookfield and Earlville. Deerfield, Clark's Mills and Chadwick's are not now Convocation Missions. Four meetings of the Convocation have been held during the year ; two in Utica, one in Camden, and one in Clinton.

Services have been maintained in all the Mission Churches in the District with the exception of Boonville.

The Rev. William Cooke in charge of St. John's Whitesboro, and St. Peter's Oriskany, reports that regular services have been maintained in both places throughout the year with special services during Lent. Assessments for Diocesan Missions have been paid in full. The congregation and Sunday School of St. John's show a marked increase. There is an urgent need that arrangements be made whereby this Parish can have regular Sunday morning and evening services. Although St. Peter's has lost heavily by removals, the Congregation and Sunday School have not shown a corresponding falling off. The Utica local Council of St. Andrew's Brotherhood has continued its faithful work during the year, supplying a Sunday morning service on alternate Sundays. The Missionary also reports that he has celebrated the Holy Communion monthly at New York Mills, and semi-monthly at Westmoreland.

The Rev. George L. Neide, despite poor health, has been able to continue the services at St. Paul's Church, Holland Patent. Four persons have been confirmed. Assessments have been paid in full, and repairs made on Church and Rectory.

The Rev. A. G. Singsen reports that at Oriskany Falls the year has been one of repairs and improvements to the Church property. A Rectory is in course of construction. The financial income is larger than last year. The Mission has suffered from the removal of young men to the cities. Otherwise the interest taken in the Church and her services is encouraging. At Augusta, the Missionary is very much encouraged by the large attendance at the services of persons not brought up in the Church. All the financial obligations of both Missions have been fully discharged.

The Rev. A. H. Rogers reports that services have been held in Earlville on each Sunday afternoon, with variable but fair attendance; also once a week on a week day during Lent. The Mission has suffered the usual losses by removals. The connection with the parish at Hamilton is working satisfactorily and smoothly.

The Rev. John Arthur of Oneida, in charge of St. Andrew's, Durhamville, reports that regular services and sessions of the Sunday School are held each Sunday. Mr. A. D. Hamblin, Lay Reader, of Oneida, renders indispensable aid by holding two services each month.

The Rev. M. B. Bennett reports that the Church at Forestport is in a prosperous condition. Regular services have been held, and seven persons received confirmation. The offerings have increased and all assessments have been paid in full. The people are united, and the evening congregations are nearly as large as those in the morning.

The Rev. J. B. Wicks of St. Paul's Church, Paris Hill, reports that the attendance upon the services has been good, but especially large during the summer months. All the property of the parish is in thorough repair and well insured. A class for confirmation is prepared and awaits the Bishop's visitation. All obligations have been met.

The Rev. A. E. Dunham of Trinity Church, Camden, reports that the attendance at the services has been good, and the people have shown a readiness to work. The Parish has lost a number of good workers by death and removals. The debt under which the Parish has struggled for many years has been paid. The Children's Lenten offering was by far the largest in many years. The Diocesan Assessment has been paid in full.

The Rev. A. W. Allen reports that services have been held every Sunday evening at New York Mills, with increasing attendance, and every Sunday morning at Westmoreland with fair average congregation. A Sunday School of about twenty-five has been maintained at each place. The Aid Society at New York Mills has paid current expenses by sewing. A branch of the Woman's Auxiliary has been formed. All assessments paid in both Missions.

The Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtis of St. Joseph's, Rome, reports that the past year has been a most fruitful one in many respects, especially in pastoral administration and in matters of finances. The incumbent's salary has been nearly paid in full. Diocesan assessments have been paid and current expenses promptly met. The confirmation class, numbering 23, was the largest since 1878. The Church suffered considerable loss in a wind storm last February, but will be repaired as soon as ways and means for the same can be secured. It is expected that a Parish House and Rectory will be erected this Summer.

Under the charge of the Rev. E. C. Hoskins, services have been held during the year at Bridgewater and Clayville, and for part of the year at Brookfield. Mr. Hoskins has recently resigned.

The congregation at Clark's Mills and Chadwicks are ministered to by the Rev. Oliver Owen, Dean. He reports that while they are not under the cognizance of the Convocation, both Churches persevere amid weakness in having regular services with some growth.

St. Paul's, Deerfield, is an entirely self supporting Mission. It is ministered to by the Rev. J. W. Clarke of Utica. The Sunday School under the direction of Mr. George M. Weaver, is in a very prosperous condition. Assessments paid in full.

The Following is the Report of the Treasurer.

Missions of the Diocese—Third District.

(BROOME AND CHENANGO COUNTIES.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. George Perrine, Dean; the Rev. Alex. H. Grant, Secretary; Mr. Joseph E. Juliand, Treasurer; the Rev. J. H. LaRoche, D. D., and Mr. H. O. Moss, Members of the Board of Managers.

The Third District embraces seventeen Parishes and Mission Stations of which the following receive assistance from the Board: viz: Harpursville and Afton, Chenango Forks and Whitney's Point, Bainbridge; Guilford and Mount Upton, McDonough, and Windsor.

Three meetings of Convocation have been held during the year, in St. Peter's, Bainbridge, Trinity Memorial, Binghamton; and St. Andrew's, New Berlin.

Afton and Harpursville—The Rev. H. M. Brown reports that the work in these places is as flourishing as could be expected, with an average attendance at the services on Sunday of fifty at Afton, and thirty-five at Harpursville. The Church at Afton has paid its assessment in full, and Harpursville has slightly exceeded the amount assessed.

McDonough—The work in McDonough has been interrupted for about two months on account of sickness on the part of the Missionary. The Rev. K. G. Heyne was obliged to be absent from his charge from the middle of February to the middle of April. McDonough has paid its assessments in full. It was visited February 18th, by the Dean, who administered the Holy Communion.

Bainbridge—The Church in Bainbridge has suffered much from deaths and removals, but otherwise there is no falling off in the attendance on the services, and the spirit of the congregation is excellent. The Rev. Mr. Grant writes that an effort is being made to awaken a deeper interest in the Missionary work of the Diocese and to secure larger contributions. The result has been a considerable increase in the offerings. The Parish has paid its assessment in full.

Windsor—The Rev. M. J. Hoffman reports that the envelopes are used in securing pledges for Missions with encouraging results. A Chapter of "The Young Crusaders and Knights of Temperance" has been formed and is about to apply for a charter. The Church in Missions of the Diocese—Third District.

Windsor has lately suffered somewhat by removals, having lost three families, of which five of the members were Communicants.

A more serious loss is felt by every true pastor, who has the welfare of his people at heart, when he perceives a disposition on the part of members of the Church to neglect the evening service on Sunday. When Church people seem to forget their spiritual privileges and responsibilities as Churchmen, and fall into a habit of refusing to offer unto the Lord at least half the worship and praise that are His due, it is not too much to say that it causes many a faithful minister's heart to ache, and his eyes, even, to run down with tears. Let us all unite with this earnest Missionary in the prayer that "The Lord may touch the hearts of all such people, and bring them to a better knowledge of their spiritual needs." The offerings from Windsor are less than three dollars short of the amount assessed, while the Easter Offering of the Sunday School was remarkably good, being $16.75 from about sixteen scholars.

Guilford and Mount Upton—The services in Mount Upton are at present held in a private house. The attendance is good, but would undoubtedly be better if a more suitable place for worship could be secured. Many of the older members of the Church have died or moved away, but the Church life in and around Mount Upton and Rockwell's Mills make it desirable and expedient that Mount Upton should have a Church building. The congregation owns a good lot, and has $550.00 in the hands of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund. Five hundred Dollars additional would build a Church which would answer the needs of the Mission for the present and some time to come.

The losses by death have been unusually severe in Guilford during the year just ended, the Parish having been deprived of six of its most valued members, one of whom had been a Warden a great many years, and another a most faithful and devoted worker in the Sunday School. The places thus left vacant can never be filled, and the loss will be deeply felt for a long time. In numbers, however, the losses and gains have been about equal, four having been admitted to the Church by baptism and five confirmed. The offerings have been generous, if not large, the two places having considerably exceeded the sum assessed for the work of the Diocese, besides contributing $33.60 for General Missions, one-half being the S. S. Easter offering; $10.00 to Bishop Brewer, and $8.00 to St. Phillip's Church Syracuse.

Services have been held without intermission at Chenango Forks and Whitney's Point, alternating morning and evening so as to give each congregation equal Sunday Services. The Rev. Mr. Cresser speaks with regard of the drafts made by larger Parishes upon the Missions, which have deprived these congregations of many liberal contributors, and more than half their Communicants, leaving them much enfeebled, but not disheartened. A very large part of the difficulty experienced here would probably be overcome if they could be supplied by a minister residing in one of the two places.

The Mission Stations in the Fourth District are: East Syracuse, Manlius with Jamesville, Marcellus, Cleveland with Constantia, Lacona, Altmar with Redfield, Mexico, Memphis, Warners, Pulaski, Canastota with Chittenango, and the Mission at the Onondaga Reservation. Besides these stations to which stipends are granted, or other help given by Diocesan institutions, there are the following Missions to which no stipends have heretofore been given: St. John the Divine, St. Luke's, St. Andrew's, St. Philip's (for colored people) in Syracuse, and St. John's Oswego, supported by the Church of the Evangelists.

Three meetings of the Convocation have been held during the year; in St. Paul's Chapel, Syracuse, July 6, 1899; in St. James' Church Skaneateles, October 10th. & 11th, 1899; and in the Church of the Evangelists, Oswego, May 1st & 2nd, 1900.

Manlius and Jamesville—The Rev. Dr. Theodore Babcock resigned charge of these Parishes January 1, 1900, after a faithful service of twelve years. He, however, remained in charge until March 1st, 1900, when the Rev. George D. Ashley became rector. The services have been maintained without interruption throughout the year, and, as in former years, the Diocesan Assessments have nearly been met. These Parishes have lost nothing in strength during the year. Jamesville has been served during part of the year by Mr. Haydn, a student in St. Andrew's Divinity School.

Altmar—The Rev. B. E. Whipple reports that "the condition here remains unchanged; the Mission is thoroughly alive." The Church property is in good order. Removals, however, are frequent, and the gain in numbers is likely to be small for some years to come.

The people pay the Missionary $100.00 per year, and meet the Assessment of $6.00.

Pulaski—The Rev. E. A. Anson reports "the outlook very encouraging." The congregation is much larger than formerly, and all assessments have been paid.

Lacona and Redfield—The Rev. Daniel Daly remains in charge of these stations and reports that the work is proceeding satisfactorily.

East Syracuse—The Rev. W. S. Hayward in addition to his work here, where regular Sunday and Friday services have been held with a weekly Eucharist, has made many visits in the neighboring villages, Minoa, Kirkville, Bridgeport Collamer and Cicero. The assessment has been paid. Growth is hindered by frequent removals.

Marcellus—The Rev. E. B. Mott is now in charge of this Parish, which is maintaining its reputation for activity and devotion.

Mexico—The Rev. Theodore L. Allen reports that the condition of this Parish is good, although there is nothing that calls for special comment.

Cleveland—This Parish is in charge of the Rev. B. T. Stafford. He makes an encouraging report; seven have been confirmed; a men's club has been organized and has accomplished good by the use of a circulating Library. All assessments have been paid.

Canastota and Chittenango—Since the resignation of the Rev. C. H. Tindall on account of ill health, the Parish at Canastota has been served, very acceptably by the Rev. George H. Ottaway, principal of the High School. The Church at Chittenango has been closed for some time.

Indian Reservation—During the year twenty families have been received back into the congregation; eight persons have been confirmed, and ten have been baptized. The offerings are nearly double those of the preceding year. The property has been repaired at a cost of nearly $600.00, the Woman's Auxiliary and other friends meeting the expense. The work is difficult but is being prosecuted vigorously and successfully.

St. Andrew's Divinity School and Associate Mission—On October 1st, 1899, the Rev. Dr. Babcock took charge of the School as Dean. It was then decided that the policy of the school should include an "Associate Mission," to be conducted by the faculty and students, under the direction of the Bishop. The Dean has officiated as Chaplain at the Hospital of the Good Shepherd, and has supplied services for several of the Clergy.

Missions of the Diocese—Fourth District.

Of the students, one has been doing good service at Jamesville, another at St. Philip's Church, Syracuse, another at St. Luke's Mission Sunday School, a fourth has assisted at Trinity Church, Syracuse and all have in turn conducted week day services at the Church of the Saviour.

Warners—The Rev. E. W. Saphoré resigned the rectorship of Christ Church, Jordan, February 1, 1900, to accept the charge of St. John's Church, Syracuse but he has continued to hold stated services in St. Paul's Mission at Warners, to which he ministered while rector of the Parish at Jordan. This is a promising field. The services are well attended and a lot, well situated, has been purchased. Regular offerings for Diocesan Missions are made.

Memphis—This Mission work, now under the direction of the Rev. F. B. Keable, rector of Christ Church, Jordan, is in a flourishing condition. Thirteen persons have been confirmed, and ten have been baptized. A considerable sum of money has been subscribed for a building fund.

The Shelter Syracuse—In addition to his duties as pastor of St. John's, Syracuse, and St. Paul's, Warners, the Rev. Mr. Saphoré is chaplain of the Shelter, in Syracuse, where a service is held each Sunday afternoon. During the year six of the inmates have been confirmed.

St. Andrew's Mission, Syracuse—This Mission, recently organized by the Bishop's order, is in charge of the Rev. Mr. Saphoré. A Sunday School is maintained, and the Church service is said every Sunday afternoon in a hall at the corner of Delaware and Geddes streets. The attendance is good.

St. Philip's Mission, Syracuse—This work among the colored people of Syracuse, under the direction of Rev. H. G. Coddington, has progressed favorably during the year. Offerings for Foreign, Domestic and Diocesan Missions have been made. Seven persons have been confirmed, and a Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew has been organized. Through the generosity of friends, and the efforts of the people themselves, a building fund of $1500.00 has been secured.

FIFTH DISTRICT.

(CAYUGA AND SENECA COUNTIES.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. William Bours Clarke, Dean; the Rev. Charles W. MacNish, Secretary; Mr. A. N. Hollister, Treasurer; the two latter being also Members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are: In Cayuga County—Aurora, Cayuga, Moravia, Port Byron, Kelloggsville, East Venice, Union Springs, Northville and Weedsport. In Seneca County—Dey's Landing, Hayt's Corners, MacDougall, Romulus, Willard and Willowdale.

Three Meetings of Convocation have been held during the year, viz: St. Matthew's Church, Moravia, May 16 and 17, 1899; Cayuga Lake Park, July 10, 1899; and St. Peters's Church, Auburn, October 24 & 25, 1899.

The Rev. Dr. Maury reports that in addition to his regular duties in St. Matthew's Church, Moravia, Kelloggsville has been visited occasionally, as heretofore, and that during the Autumn of 1899, he visited East Venice twice a month, and held services in the Grange Hall with goodly results.

No report has been received from Weedsport and Port Byron, although it is known that during most of the past year the Rev. E. W. Saphoré held services regularly in both places, at great personal sacrifice, up to the time he was called to the charge of St. John's Church, Syracuse. No report has been received from Cayuga, Union Springs and Aurora, or from Northville.

In Seneca County—Grace Church, Willowdale, has been favored with seventy-two services, with twenty-eight celebrations of the Holy Communion during the year. Eighteen souls have been baptized into the Kingdom, and four were confirmed.

At St. Andrew's Dey's Landing, thirty-four services have been held, with three celebrations of the Holy Communion ; six souls have been baptized.

At the Jerusalem Mission, twenty-two services were held from May 7th to Sept. 24th, 1899.

At MacDougalls, in the dwelling house of William Saeger, services were held from June 18th to Oct. 29, 1899, resulting in five baptisms.

In addition to this, fifteen visits have been made to the County House. Thanks are due to the Rev. Mr. MacDuff for faithful and regular ministrations to these four Missions from June to October, 1899.

At present Willowdale and Deys Landing are served gratuitously by Mr. Fred Graves of Hobart College, a son of Bishop Anson Graves.

At St. Stephen's, Romulus, Mr. Walter E. Cook has served as Lay Reader most acceptably during the past year. One hundred and one services have been held, with five celebrations of the Holy Communion ; three children have been baptized.

At Christ Church, Willard, the Secretary of Convocation has maintained regular Sunday morning services throughout the year, with fourteen celebrations of the Holy Communion. Two services weekly were held during Lent, which were on an average as largely attended as the Sunday services. Five souls have been baptized into the Kingdom of God, and the assessment for Diocesan Missions to the amount of $60 was paid, with a small surplus.

Calvary Church, Hayts Corners, is connected with Willard, as for many years, and is served by the same Missionary. Seventy-eight services have been held, with thirteen celebrations of the Holy Communion; three children have been baptized and the assessment of $15 for Diocesan Missions has been duly paid, with a small surplus over.

In addition to his duties in his own cure, the Secretary has celebrated the Holy Communion twice in St. Stephen's Church, Romulus.

The Rev. Dr. Duff reports that outside of his own parish duties he has held four Mission services during the year; has visited the County House twice, and has officiated at one funeral at the County House.

Missions of the Diocese—Fifth District.

The Dean reports that he has visited several of the Missions in the District during the year; has baptized three children and celebrated Holy Communion twice in St. Stephen's Church, Romulus, and made a number of visits to the County House, where he read prayers with the inmates, one of whom he is preparing for Holy Baptism.

SIXTH DISTRICT.

(COUNTIES OF CHEMUNG, TIOGA AND TOMPKINS.)

The officers of this District are: The Rev. S. H. Synnott, D. D., Dean; the Rev. R. J. Phillips, Secretary; H. V. Bostwick, Treasurer, the latter also being a member of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are: In Chemung County:—Big Flats, Horseheads, Emmanuel (Elmira), Wellsburgh, Millport and Van Etten. In Tioga County:—Candor, Spencer, Smithboro and Waverly. In Tompkins County:—Slaterville, Speedsville, McLean and Trumansburg.

The Rev. Dr. Thomas reports a steady and gratifying progress in Emmanuel, Elmira. The parish is evidently on the way to become self-supporting.

Clerical changes in most of the stations render it difficult to obtain reports. Mr. Purdy left Trumansburg on January 1st, since then no services have been held. Mr. Adam left Millport last October. Mr. Griggs left his charge about the 1st of May; and Mr. Phillips has left his field since June 1st. Mr. MacCaud, who has been in charge of Horseheads, Big Flats and Millport since Christmas, has removed about June 1st, to the west.

The Rev. E. C. Hoskins since May 1st has taken charge of Candor, Van Etten and Spencer; and about July 1st the Rev. Mr. Fox will assume the work in Slaterville and Speedsville, and may hold occasional services in Dryden.

STEPHEN H. SYNNOTT, *Dean.*H. V. BOSTWICK, Treasurer.

In concluding this report, the Board desires to express its conviction that the missionary work of the Diocese has made substantial progress during the year, and to voice again its appreciation of the devoted services of those who have the work in charge.

Once more we may congratulate ourselves on the fact that we have closed the year with a considerable surplus; yet the added fact must be noted, that but for the surplus of last year, we would now be facing a deficit, small, it is true, but sufficient to inspire us with the need of renewed efforts to increase our offerings for this important object. To that end two things are most essential; a faithful adherence on the part of all our clergy to that provision of the canon which requires an offering to be taken for Diocesan Missions on the third Sunday in each month and the diffusion of a more definite and comprehensive knowledge amongst the laity of what the phrase "Diocesan Missions" means. It is the providing for those of our own neighborhood, who could not otherwise receive them, the priceless privileges of our incomparable Liturgy, with the grace and comfort of the Sacraments and other ministries of the Church. Where this is realized, there will be the disposition to provide liberally for our missionary work.

As one of the means to this end, the Board advocates the interesting of the children in the missionary work of their own Diocese, just as they have been interested in the general field, Domestic and Foreign. Our Sunday Schools might give their offerings on the third Sunday in each month, or devote their offerings on the Sundays in Advent to this object.

Should either of these methods be generally adopted, a double object would be attained; our offerings would be considerably increased, and we would be training up our children to love and support and work for and in, our Diocesan Missions.

Respectfully submitted for the Board of Managers,

WM. BOURS CLARKE, Secretary,

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May, 1900.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:

The Treasurer of the Diocese herewith submits his Thirty-second Annual Report, giving in minute detail an account of all receipts and expenditures.

The two principal items of interest are embraced under the heads of Missions in the Diocese and the General Fund.

Regarding the first, reference is had to the report of the Treasurer of the Board of Managers where is shown the amount assessed each district and each parish, the amount paid thereon and the amount of stipends awarded to each missionary. A summary of that report shows as follows:

Aggregate amount assessed the several districts..	$10,900 00
Amount paid thereon.....	9,384 19
Leaving unpaid.....	$ 1,515 81

Of the six districts assessed but one met its full quota (exceeding it by $19.37), leaving the remaining five in arrears in the sum of $1535.18.

To the amount received from the parishes should be added the income of the Permanent Missionary fund $1,029.34 and the surplus of the fund reported last year $748.78, making an aggregate of receipts of $11,162.31 from which was disbursed $10,461.96, leaving to the credit of the fund $700.35.

This favorable showing, however, is not characteristic of the condition of the fund during the year. Owing to the delay in the payment of assessments due from the parishes, the surplus of last year of over $700, was used up in the payment of stipends the first quarter of the year; the second quarter the Treasurer advanced over $200 and the third quarter over $800 in the payment of stipends then falling due, and had not the receipts for the last quarter (about $1,800), reached that sum, exceeding those of any other preceding quarter in the history of the Diocese, the balance would have been on the other side. Had this sum been scattered through the year as we might have reason to expect, it would have saved the Treasurer much anxiety and annoyance. If the financial officers of the parishes will bear this in mind and act accordingly, it will greatly relieve the Treasurer. The detailed statement to the Board of Managers, costing much time and labor, will furnish food for reflection to all interested in the subject.

GENERAL FUND.

A synopsis of this Fund shows as follows :

Amount of assessment by Standing Committee.....	$ 3,523 92
Accumulation of arrears.....	1,872 51
Amount paid as per report.....	$2,839 25
Leaving amount unpaid.....	$2,557 18

The question has been asked whether the new Canon covered former indebtedness, or was only applicable to the new assessment. Having no instructions to the contrary, I adopted the former plan in sending out notices, of adding arrears to amount assessed. A large proportion of the arrearage will never be paid, and to cancel the entire amount might be deemed an injustice to those parishes which have met their assessments promptly. I would recommend to the Convention that they rebate a certain amount or authorize the Treasurer to act in his discretion in doing so. To cancel the entire sum would necessitate an increase of the budget upon which the Standing Committee has already levied the assessment for this year, as no assessment made would ever be paid in full when needed. I trust the Convention will take action in this matter. Of the $1,000 appropriated for the use of the Bishop last year but $3.75 has been used, and of the $500 to be appropriated this year but a small portion may be used.

The list of delinquents as required by the Canon for the use of the Committee on Credentials has been prepared, and will be placed in the hands of that Committee.

I do not deem it necessary to add anything to that portion of my report of last year touching the Episcopate Fund. I understand that the matter of the increase of the Fund is in the hands of a competent committee from whom we may expect encouraging results. The receipts of offerings, under the Canon amended last year, substituting a time for an offering for the increase of the income of the fund for that of the Church Building Fund, as well as the income of the Permanent Fund, have not been sufficient for the need. The loan referred to last year still remains unpaid.

The report of the Treasurer has been examined by the committee appointed for that purpose, and their certificate as to its correctness is hereto appended.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE J. GARDNER,
Treasurer of Diocese.

By the will of Clara P. Steele, proved before the Surrogate of Chemung County, a bequest of $200 was made to the Trustees of the Parochial Fund "to form the nucleus of a fund to be known as Grace Church, Elmira, Fund, the interest thereon to be paid to the Rector, Wardens and Vestry of Grace Church, Elmira, to be used by them for parochial, ecclesiastical or charitable purposes as they may determine." Said sum was paid by the executor of the will to the Trustees of the Parochial Fund March 10, 1900, and is on deposit at Syracuse Savings Bank with $1.00 interest, having been one month invested in mortgage, since paid.

The Trustees have received a transfer, pursuant to Chap. 509 of the Laws of 1875, from the Wardens and Vestry of Christ Church, Sackett's Harbor, of the fund of $500., known as the Phelps Benevolent Fund, invested in the mortgage of Ralph and Jane E. Godfrey on lands in the village of Sackett's Harbor, the assignment of which mortgage to the trustees was recorded in Jefferson County on or about April 2, 1900. The interest $15., for six months to said April 1st was paid to the treasurer of said church by the mortgagor, and is expected to be so paid hereafter, to be applied by said Wardens and Vestry in aid of poor and orphaned children of members of said church, as provided in the will of Mrs. Ransom Phelps the donor.

The trustees have received a warranty deed dated August 18th, recorded August 29, 1899, from George Hawley and Alice his wife of VanBuren, N. Y., conveying part of Great Lot No. 40 in the Town of VanBuren, Onondaga County, (at or near Warners) to be held in trust for St. Paul's Mission at Warners, or for any Parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church that may hereafter be organized succeeding said Mission.

Parochial Fund—Report of the Trustees.

The term of office of Messrs. William Marvin and Andrew H. Green as Trustees of the Parochial Fund will expire September 1st next, and their successors are to be elected by the Convention.

Van Wagenen Fund—Report of the Trustee.

B. Van Wagenen Fund.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:

In my Report of a year ago I promised you to have made a practical investigation of the farm and municipal properties which are severally the basis of security for the loans comprised in the list which I present to you herewith.

I called upon Mr. Parker of Oxford, who is often called in as appraiser of estates, and he, although not of our communion, cheerfully offered me his services in the matter, without compensation beyond his travelling expenses. It involved a trip into Broome and Chemung Counties, where for the first time I saw the majority of the properties in the limits mentioned. His statement herewith attached tells its own story, and to make the evidence as strong as possible, I have asked a gentleman well known to the Convention, to certify to Mr. Parker's ability to judge of these vital points.

The only loans not treated of by him, consist of three in Chenango County, aggregating one thousand dollars only, at opposite points of the compass, so widely removed from each other that it seemed unnecessary to make the expense of a visit, in view especially of the familiarity of your Trustee with them; and two residences in the City of Binghamton, taken as security since our visit there. Of these, I have asked H. Fred Lyon, Esq., of that City, to certify as to their sufficiency; which leads me to acknowledge in this manner his intelligent and gratuitous services rendered the fund from time to time, covering many years, in obtaining loans for it.

The Scudder and Shapely loans are secured by mortgage upon the same Real Estate, being respectively a first and second lien thereon.

The remainder of the McAdams loan was paid over to the borrower on completion of the house upon the farm mortgaged. My account shows that $2400 of principal was paid back to the fund during the year, (two mortgages being satisfied in full) and $1,594.33 of interest collected. The net increase in the fund for the twelve months is $1,557.33.

Six loans amounting to $7,300 have six months interest overdue and unpaid, and nothing was paid in on the Miller contract.

Van Wagenen Fund—Report of the Trustee.

Of the $1,762.37 cash on hand the investment of $1300 has been arranged for, and the amount will be on interest before Convention convenes.

JOHN R. VAN WAGENEN,

Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund of the County of Chenango.

OXFORD, May 15, 1900.

J. R. VAN WAGENEN, TRUSTEE VAN WAGENEN MISSIONARY FUND OF THE COUNTY OF CHENANGO, OXFORD, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

I have before me the list of thirty Securities comprising those covered by your report of this date, amounting to $31,590.

I have during the past year personally inspected, or am familiar with the Real Estate securing all the loans except the Fritz.....	$ 425

“ Lamb	175
“ Dickinson	1000
“ Hathorn.....	1000
“ Barrows.	400
“ Shapley.....	800
and “ Scudder	1200

I believe the twenty-three loans referred to, to be abundantly secured, with the possible exceptions of the Kelly-Odell and the Miller Contract, on which together you have $2900. I would think at forced sale $2000 could be realized upon the properties, and I have little idea that so much discount as that will ever be necessary on them.

I did not take the time when in Chemung County to drive to the Real Estate mortgaged to secure the Hathorn loan, it being a considerable distance from the nearest property inspected. I made inquiries however, of parties residing in the town where the property lies, and I became convinced that the loan was well secured.

GILBERT J. PARKER.

Oxford, May 15, 1900.

I am well acquainted with Mr. Gilbert J. Parker of Oxford, and consider his judgment upon real estate second to no one in that vicinity.

F. G. CLARKE.

Van Wagenen Fund—Report of the Trustee

BINGHAMTON, May 31, 1900.

*John R. Van Wagenen, Esq, Trustee Van Wagenen Missionary Funds

Dear Sir:

Referring to your recent inquiry respecting the valuation of the property of Mrs. Ida W. Dixon, Thorp St., and Oramel Shapely, Stuyvesant St., both of this City, upon which you hold mortgage liens as Trustee, would say that I am well acquainted with both of the properties mentioned and consider them ample security for the amounts which you hold against them.

Yours very truly,

H. FRED LYON.

Report on Christian Education.

I. Christian Education.

The theory of Christian education needs no discussion. Briefly stated it is that the youth of the country should be educated as Christians and to be Christians.

Your committee have thought that it may be of value to consider how far our existing educational institutions fall short of this ideal and by what means they can be brought into harmony with it.

The education of the country is carried on partly by the State public schools, partly by the Church.

Theoretically the Church devotes herself to moral and religious training. She proposes to accomplish her work by the agency of parents and sponsors and through her sacred offices ministered by the clergy. This in theory is an admirable system; practically it is a most unsatisfactory one.

For unquestionably a knowledge of the Bible must be considered a fundamental part of Christian education. The result achieved by the clergy in this direction is commonly little; that accomplished by parents and sponsors is not far from zero.

In corroboration of this unpleasant conclusion, the committee remind the Convention that it is a well known fact that even among those who are aspirants for Holy Orders ignorance of the Bible exists to a lamentable degree.

The Sunday School has in common practice become a substitute for the Church's natural system of household religious education. The Sunday School is, however, confessedly a most unsatisfactory agency for anything like thorough religious instruction.

Even granting that your Sunday School is furnished with an extraordinary percentage of competent teachers, what can they do? First the available time at their disposal is not on the average one-half hour. And this for giving instruction in topics of the profoundest importance! Imagine the consternation of a New York public school teacher who should be required to prepare her pupils to pass the Regents' examinations in arithmetic or geography in fifty-two sessions of half an hour each.

Then again there is the insurmountable defect in the Sunday

Report on Christian Education.

School that there is connected with it no compulsory power. If parents are religious and conscientious, they will of course instruct their children at home and see that they go to the Sunday School with lessons prepared. But in by far the majority of cases parents are perfectly indifferent as to whether the children go or not. More than 75 per cent, of the fathers read the newspaper at home instead of going to Church. The mother, in many cases follows his example, and the children may or may not be got ready for Sunday School according to the maternal whim. Principle in such cases does not affect the question. It does not exist. A very large proportion of the pupils in all our Sunday Schools are the children of such parents; people who themselves know nothing of the Bible and care nothing about it.

Like parents like children. As soon as, in the judgment of the children, it becomes inconsistent with their dignity to go to the Sunday School, they cease to go. You apply to the parents to know the cause, and you learn that the parental idea is that the matter should be left altogether to the discretion of the all-knowing children.

The result of this condition of things is that our young people grow up in the grossest ignorance of those things with which they should be familiar.

In general then the committee find themselves obliged to report that the religious and moral instruction of the community, so far as the Church methods are concerned is in a condition very far from satisfactory, or even hopeful.

It must be added that by certain practices commonly allowed and commonly adopted throughout the length and breadth of the land, the Church is suicidally undermining her authority as an agency for the moral and religious training of the people.

The question is often raised "Why do the men of the United States go so seldom to church?" One reason we feel safe in stating. It is as follows: The men of the United States are pre-eminently men of business. An organization which has high business aims and whose business methods are large in conception and large in result will certainly secure their respect. Small methods and small returns do not enlist their sympathy.

Now the Church, claiming to be an institution of divine origin and sacred purpose, with a ministry ordained for the express object of leading human souls out of moral darkness into moral light has so far forgotten her true character as to put herself on an undignified level with commercial enterprises and those of the smallest dimensions.

The idea that a divine agency appointed to communicate a message of the Eternal God to man—to inspire men with heavenly hopes—should resort to oyster and turkey suppers and small theatrical entertainments to meet the expense of carrying on its sublime work is sufficiently preposterous, one would imagine, to receive the contempt and unqualified condemnation of all persons who believe in the divine origin of the Church and the solemn purpose of its existence in the world. Strangely this is not the case. The fathers of the Church do not even shake their heads. They meet in annual Triennial Convention to discuss matters which affect the highest interests of the Church and the advancement of religious truth; here is an evil which is widespread, a wholesale repetition of the crime of Ananias and Sapphira which is everywhere bringing the Church into contempt—everywhere impressing upon members and non-members alike the conviction that the paramount object of the Church is to make money. And what does the General Convention do? Naturally, like priest, like people. There are saintly gentlemen composed of heavenly minded men and heavenly minded women who largely spend their celestial energies in devising measures for the getting up of shows and sociables, the proceeds of which are to be devoted to the Church. Children, especially pretty girls, are employed to pester the community by selling tickets.

It has even come to pass that if no such small financial undertakings are keeping the members of a Church busy it is taken as an indication that the Church in question is dead, or that at least its spirituality is at a very low ebb. The pre-eminently successful clergyman is the man who is gifted with the capacity of a second or third rate theatrical manager.

How does it impress the typical American man to learn that fifty dollars were made at the late fair and five dollars at the last Church oyster supper? Is it possible for him with his natural admiration for large enterprises and large results to have any but a very strong opinion of the commercial efforts of his very well meaning wife and her associates? He is necessarily reminded by these petty transactions of the ancient fable of the mountain in labor giving birth to a mouse. He thinks that the time devoted to the enterprise by women is practically thrown away, and he looks upon the clergyman who has stirred up the faithful to bake so many dozen cakes and oyster pies—and then go and pay for them and eat them, a man ignorant of the A, B, C of genuine manly business.

Report on Christian Education.

Degrading herself as the Church thus deliberately is doing, need she wonder that men who have larger methods of business do not look upon the Church as an inspiring moral educator, but rather as a commercial agency whose methods and results are so puny that they do not care to be identified with it.

When, gentlemen, the salt has lost its savour, men will tread it contemptuously under their feet. There can be no reasonable doubt that by the endorsement and toleration of the monetary practices alluded to, the Church is educating members and non-members alike in a manner confessedly unchristian. She is impressing on them a view of herself and her work altogether out of harmony with the conceptions and purposes of her great Head, and therefore positively detrimental to those purposes.

Again, men marvel at the low standard of business morality prevalent throughout the country. They are astonished to find that the percentage of crime is steadily mounting higher and higher in spite of our public schools and colleges, our churches, our Sunday Schools and all other cherished institutions. The criminals in our prisons in the year 1890, according to the returns of the U. S. census, numbered more than 80,000. There were more, on an average, than 20 murders committed every day. The percentage of murders to the population in the United States, by the same census, was greater than in any other country of the civilized world. Even the so-called bloodthirsty nation of Italy, in spite of its high rank among murderous people, modestly followed the United States of America. The Italians killed 10 years ago 100 per annum in every 100,000 of population. We 117.

Three or four years ago the number of homicides had risen from 7,000 to about 10,000 per annum, an average of about 30 in every 24 hours, or more than one per hour. Fifty-six per cent. of the criminals confined in 1890 were American born citizens who had enjoyed the advantages of such training as is afforded by our secular and religious institutions. In a word, of the prison population more than half were not untamed and untameable foreigners, whose wickedness, having been generated abroad, exploded here. This hallucination is one with which we may fondly solace ourselves. But we must remember that if we accept it, it concedes to foreign governments a control over wickedness which we do not possess. If, however, we may rely upon the statistics of our census, the theory lacks the basis of fact.

If we seek the causes of our increasing criminality, we naturally examine the character and the moralizing force of those institutions, to the influence of which our youth are subjected. The Sunday Schools are no doubt doing their unsatisfactory best. The public schools, as at present conducted, make no serious, systematic effort to impart and impress principles of Christian morality.

Report on Christian Education.

Your Committee desires to repudiate most emphatically all wish to suggest the introduction of sectarian peculiarities, even our own, into our public schools.

They cannot, however, but feel that a deadly disaster has befallen the cause of Christian morality when the book which more grandly and more impressively than any other in the world, and by methods that can neither be improved nor supplanted, not only inculcates the loftiest morality by command, but inspires the soul with enthusiastic admiration of it, and devotion to it, is denied a place on the list of recommended books and is banished from our public schools.

This has arisen from the supposition that the Bible cannot be read or studied without its being made the basis for teaching some definite form of Church dogma and worship. This supposition should undoubtedly be reconsidered. And sooner or later two propositions must be recognized by the common sense of the American people; first, that the Bible can be studied without studying the Church, and second, that of all existing means for the inculcation of pure morality and commercial honesty the Bible is the best.

It is one thing to teach the young a bald system of ethics. It is quite another thing—it is a thing incomparably more effective for the moulding of character and the inspiration of life to make them familiar with the grand personalities, and through those personalities with the grander principles of the Bible. The biographies, the poetry, the parables of the Bible penetrate the soul and transfuse into it the vigor of a morality that is not earthly.

In a system of abstract morality there is little regenerative or inspiring force. Judas Iscariot knew the ten commandments perfectly well. So does our criminal population. Grand theoretical ethics are recommended in the sacred books of India and China. Both Gautama Buddha and Confucius insisted on the Golden Rule, in essence—very nearly in exact phraseology. What have been the results of their teaching in those two countries?!

The need of the young mariner on the sea of life is not merely a set of accurate sailing directions, nor simply a needle which shall indicate correctly his course, but the impelling breath of some angel wind to urge him on his way with heaven-born force. The mere inculcation of morals may impart knowledge—the study of Bible characters gives motive.

To illustrate more precisely their meaning your committee ask this question: Suppose when Jesus was asked, "And who is my neighbor?" he had simply given the answer, "Anyone and everyone far and near whom thou canst comfort or aid," he would have given the same teaching exactly as that conveyed in the parable of the good Samaritan. But what a boundless difference between the two replies! The one, indeed, instructs the mind, the other sets the heart aglow and fills the soul with divine enthusiasm. Principle is potent in so far as it is incarnate.

Let the youth that you would inspire with high moral aims be made familiar with the story of Jesus Christ as narrated in the grand simplicity and unsurpassable pathos of the gospels. In that story there is a might to uplift, there is a power to constrain and to restrain—there is a capacity to soften, to transform and to glorify which exists no where else in the world. That story as given in the Gospels,—without a single word of doctrinal explanation is the fountain source of the purest and loftiest morality. Bishop Whipple tells an impressive story. An Indian chieftain, called Red Cloud, came to the little chapel at one of the mission stations in Minnesota. Upon the wall hung a copy of the "Ecce Homo." Remaining after the service, the Indian gazed upon it intently. At length he withdrew, without saying a word. Again he came, and gazed as before. This second time he asked, "Why is he weeping?" why are thorns on his head?" He was told the story of the cross. When next Bishop Whipple visited the station, a cross marked a new-made grave on the prairie. Red Cloud was buried there. He had told his friends shortly before his death, "When I die, put a cross upon my grave; the white man's religion is true."

That the State should deprive her citizens of moral instruction so surpassingly grand by excluding the Bible from her schools, is a thing seriously to be deplored by every man who has the moral welfare of the country at heart.

Is there any possible remedy? Your committee beg to suggest that an effort be made by the convention to effect a change.

The change contemplated would not be the use of the Bible in our Public Schools as a means either of teaching doctrine or of commending any form of worship. Nothing of this kind would be wise. It would be wholly impracticable. But the Bible is a literary composition of incomparable interest. It is in this respect the Book of the World. Its historical portions bear upon the national life of a people whose influence in the world has been and is immense.

Report on Christian Education.

It is deemed wise to study the history* of Greece because the Greeks were typical thinkers—because they rank high among the searchers for truth.

We insist on the study of the history of Rome because the Romans were the typical law-makers of the world and the most successful managers of a heterogeneous empire ever known until the current century. Why then discard from our school curriculum the history of a nation which has given to the whole civilized world its moral laws, and which in maintaining those laws as a divinely ordained code, has exhibited such sublime fidelity, that of its martyred heroes we are constrained to say "Of whom the world was not worthy."

Prof Morse Stephens of Cornell, confessedly one of the most profound historians and one of the most gifted historical lecturers in the United States deplores the ignorance of Jewish history which he encounters among his students.

Prof. Huxley in the Prologue to his Essays on Controverted Questions published in 1892 writes: "Twenty-two years ago I pleaded for the use of the Bible as an instrument of popular education and I venture to repeat what I then said." His reasons follow, after which he asks, "By the study of what other Book could children be so much humanized, and made to feel that each figure in that vast historical procession earns the blessings or the curses of all time according to its effort to do good and hate evil!"

Such was the opinion of a man whom no one certainly however differing from him could possibly accuse of either ecclesiasticism or Bibliolatry.

Of late the attention of the rising generation has been turned to the too long neglected subject of poetry. It has been recognized that the study of poetry is a profoundly important branch of human education. There are professorships whose incumbents largely devote themselves to the exposition of the deep thoughts of Browning, Emerson, Tennyson, Wordsworth, Shelley and Keats. Browning clubs abound. Shakespeare has been edited with notes for special use in our Public Schools.

What is expected to be gained from the study of poetry? The controllers of our educational methods have reached the conclusion that the writings of poets are to be considered wellsprings of inspiration. It is felt that the lofty motives of a lofty life will be communicated from the poet's soul to the student of his lines. This is correct.

If we analyze art it is the suggestion of a grand ideal unattained and unattainable here—to be hereafter attained. If we analyze poetry we find its essence identical with that of art. Its soul is hope—it tells of evil conquered, death destroyed, humanity glorified. To fill the soul of the child with poetic inspiration is admitted now to be as grand an educational aim as qualifying him to extract square and cube roots.

Nobler poetry than that of the Bible does not exist. Nothing in Homer, nothing in the magnificent tragedies of Sophocles or Æschylus equals the sublimity of Job, the majesty of Isaiah, the incomparable enthusiasm of the Psalms. The Bible is confessedly the grandest poem of human hope which we possess.

Your committee would then urge that an effort be made to have parts at least of the Biblical history of the Hebrews, some of the poetry of the prophets, the codes of personal purity and commercial rectitude set forth in the book of Proverbs, and, above all the parables of Christ be placed by the Regents of the University of New York on the list of subjects required by them as necessary for graduation from the High Schools of the State.

Your committee would recommend : First, that a Committee be appointed to obtain from the Representative bodies of all Christian denominations co-operation in the work, and that with such co-operation or if it be unattainable without it, the Committee of the Convocation be directed to communicate with the Board of Regents and ascertain what can be done.

Secondly, convinced that the Church's efficiency as a Christian educator is seriously undermined as heretofore set forth, they recommend that a Canon be passed by the Convention prohibiting all Parishes within the Diocese of Central New York from resorting, on any pretext whatever, to fairs, shows, suppers or other entertainments for the purpose of securing funds for the carrying on of its work.

As a warning to all Building Committees let me state our recent experience. Owing to faulty construction and failure to band the outside walls we have been obliged, during the past year, to remove and rebuild large portions of the tower sustaining the spire of St. Peter's Church. To hold in its place about 300 tons of spire with its support withdrawn was a great feat of engineering. It took a forest of Georgia pine, steel needles, straps and rods, and cost about $7,000.

Other Clerical Reports.

The REV. THEODORE BABCOCK, D. D., reports that he entered upon his duties as Dean of St. Andrew's Divinity School October 1, 1899, continuing, however, in charge of Christ Church, Manlius, and its adjuncts until March 1, 1900. His official services in this relation are included in the Parochial Reports of Manlius and Jamesville.

For the use of the Divinity School a suitable house was procured in which the students, not resident in Syracuse, were to be received as members of one family. A curriculum was arranged suited to the needs of the new students, of whom there were six receiving regular instruction.

The Associate Mission added to and made an essential part of the work of the School, has greatly and profitably enlarged the scope of its work. In this connection the Dean has held services at St. Andrew's Mission, at the Shelter and at Warner, nine in all, his associates in the Mission supplying the gaps, besides celebrating the Holy Eucharist six times at Jamesville. He has also relieved the clergy of the city by taking their services on fifteen separate occasions, including four celebrations, two funerals, one baptism and several sermons.

As Chaplain of the House of the Good Shepherd he has continued the week-day evening prayers without interruption from October 1, 1899, to May 1, 1900, and conducted the Sunday services in the absence of the Bishop twelve times, besides assisting in three week-day celebrations. He has baptized two children born in the House, and has given personal pastoral ministrations to many of the patients, especially those in extremis.

And, finally, as Examining Chaplain, he has conducted in the past year seven separate examinations, affecting thirteen different candidates, and this has been by no means the least arduous of his labors, involving large correspondence in preparation and much study.

THE REV. JOSHUA L. BURROUGHS, PH. D., residing at Ashtabula, Ohio, reports that during the last Conventional year, he has preached at Youngstown, Ohio, twelve times; he has officiated in Ashtabula, Ohio, thirteen times, at Ashtabula Harbor, four times and at Conneaut Ohio, six times.

Other Clerical Reports.

THE REV. C. ORVIS DANTZER, Missionary to the Deaf Mutes, reports as follows: My work among the deaf is largely confined to the large centres of population. Services have been maintained regularly in Auburn, Syracuse, Oneida, Rome, Utica, and Binghamton. Occasional services have been held in Watertown, Oswego, Elmira and Owego. The attendance in the larger places has averaged about fifteen. Other services have been held by the Rev. A. W. Mann, of Gambier, Ohio, in Syracuse and Watertown, and the Rev. Harry Van Allen of the Diocese of Albany, in Utica, Oneida and Greig, N. Y. The work has never been so encouraging. In Utica where there are barely more than twenty deaf-mutes, the attendance has more than once been above that number; in Rome there is a class from the Deaf-Mute Institution preparing for confirmation. The attendance and loyalty at Syracuse, Oneida and Binghamton also is very encouraging. The total number of services in the Diocese during the year has been sixty-five; celebrations of the Holy Communion thirteen; Confirmations one with others awaiting the reception of the rite, Baptisms five. There are now sixty-eight Communicants, died two, lapsed one, total seventy one.

But besides this the Missionary has had other work to attend to in the neighboring Diocese of Western New York. Number of services in both Dioceses one hundred and forty-five; Holy Communion thirty-three, Baptisms ten, Confirmations nine, Communicants at present one hundred and twenty-two, died sixteen, removed thirty-seven, lapsed one, total one hundred and seventy-eight.

For his support the Missionary has received: From the Junior Auxiliary $100, from Parishes and individuals $228.58, a total of $328.58.

THE REV. O. E. HERRICK, D. D., reports that owing to illness he has been able to do but little work in the Diocese. He has presided as Dean at the two Convocations, preached and celebrated the Holy Communion several times in the Diocese, and also officiated several times in the Dioceses of Vermont and California.

THE REV. E. W. MUNDY, reports that during the year, he has officiated at four funerals at St. Paul's Church, Syracuse, administered the Holy Communion three times, and has assisted at the Holy Communion ten times.

THE REV. R. G. QUENNEL, reports that from June 1899, to October 15, 1899, he officiated regularly every Sunday with the exception of one or two, at different Parishes in the Dioceses of New York, Newark, Long Island, Connecticut, Central Pennsylvania and Central New York, and from the last date named above until the present time, he has been continuously at work in one of the Parishes of New York City.

THE REV. JOHN SCOTT, reports that during the year he officiated three times at McDonough, once at Calvary Church, Syracuse, once at All Saints, Syracuse, once at Zion Church, Fulton, twice at Pulaaki and baptized one infant.

THE REV. C. H. TYNDALL, reports that on account of illness, he has been unable to perform any clerical duty during the past year.

Canons.

CANON I.

Of a List of Ministers in the Diocese.

SECTION 1. Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures, Parishes, Stations, or places of residence, designating those who are entitled to seats in the Convention; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry, shall have a place on the said list. And such list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and be prefixed to the Journal.

SEC. 2. The right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention, shall, if disputed, be determined according to the provisions of the Third Article of the Constitution, by the Convention itself; whether his name be inserted in the list aforesaid or omitted.

CANON II.

Of the Members and Organization of the Convention.

SECTION 1. The evidence of the regular admission of a Clergyman into this Diocese shall consist in proof satisfactory to the Convention of a compliance with Section VII. of Canon 18, Title I, of the Digest of the Canons of the General Convention; and the evidence of a settlement in a Church thereof shall consist in proof satisfactory to the Convention, of a compliance with the first and second sections of Canon 18, Title I, of the Digest.

SEC. 2. The appointment of a Lay Delegate to the Convention of this Diocese shall be certified in writing by the Rector of the Parish or Church of which he is a delegate, or by one of the Wardens, or by the Clerk of the Vestry, or Trustees. The Certificate shall state in all cases that the person so certified is entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen—or would be so entitled if the Church which he is appointed to represent were not otherwise organized or incorporated—and that the said Parish or Church is not in arrears in payment of its assessment for the General Fund of the Diocese, or (if it be in arrears) that it prays the Convention to remit the sum in arrears for the good and sufficient reasons presented in a paper annexed. The form of said certificate may be prescribed by the Convention, and when so prescribed no other certificate of the appointment of any Lay Delegate or Delegates to the Convention of this Diocese shall be allowed or received.

Canon II, III.

SEC. 3. At every Convention the Bishop shall take the Chair, and shall continue to preside during its sitting. He shall possess the usual powers of presiding officers in deliberative assemblies to preserve order and decorum, and shall decide all questions of order without debate, subject to an appeal to the House. He shall have the right to name any clerical member to perform the duties of the Chair, but such substitute shall not extend beyond an adjournment, unless directed by the House.

SEC. 4. In case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, or of a vacancy in the office, the senior clerical member of the Standing Committee present shall call the Convention to order and act as President pro tempore, and perform all the duties of President until the Convention shall be organized and shall have elected a President.

SEC. 5. The President having taken the Chair, the Secretary of the preceding Convention shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats in the Convention, and shall enter in the Journal the names of those who are present. Notice shall then be given to the Lay Delegates to place their certificates on the table. They shall be examined by the Secretary and a Committee of two members to be appointed by the President. Any irregular or defective certificates shall be reserved until a quorum shall have appeared. The names of the Lay Delegates duly appointed shall then be called, and the names of those who are present shall be entered on the Journal. The irregular and defective certificates shall be reported to the Convention as soon as it is duly organized, who shall decide on the admission of the delegates named in them.

SEC. 6. The presence of at least twenty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least twenty Congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business, except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. 7. A quorum being found to be in attendance, the President shall declare the Convention duly organized. The Secretary shall then be elected, who may nominate an Assistant Secretary, to be approved by the Convention.

SEC. 8. The Rules of Order of the preceding Annual Convention shall be the Rules of Order until altered by a vote of a majority of the Convention.

CANON III.

Of the Call of a Convention.

SECTION 1. Notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be given by the Secretary in a printed letter, transmitted by mail at the expense of the Convention, to every Clergyman in the Diocese, and to the Wardens in every vacant Parish, at least one month before the time of meeting. This letter shall contain a notice of the time and place of holding the Convention, extracts from the Constitution and Canons relating to the appointment of Lay Delegates, and a form of certificate of their election. Notice of the meeting shall also be inserted in any newspaper in which the Bishop may direct such insertion to be made.

Canon IV, V.

SEC. 2. Whenever, under the provision of the Constitution, a special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary in the notice thereof to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church into Union with the Church in this Diocese.

SECTION 1. To entitle a Church to admission into union with the Church of this Diocese, it is required that there be submitted to the Convention of the same, as a stated meeting: (1) A certificate from the Bishop, or in case of his absence or a vacancy in the Episcopate of a major part of the Standing Committee, approving the incorporation of such a Church; (2) The certificate of incorporation duly proved and recorded, or a copy thereof certified by the Clerk of the County. But no such certificate shall be given by the Bishop or the majority of the Standing Committee save upon satisfactory evidence of the ability of such Church to pay and continue the sum of at least six hundred dollars a year for the support of a Rector or Missionary and also that such Church contains at least thirty actual Communicants.

SEC. 2. Whenever, hereafter, any Church in union with this Convention, shall neglect, for three years in succession, to make a parochial report, no missionary report being made in its behalf; and during the same period shall not employ a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor obtain the services of a Missionary, nor make the stated monthly collections as required by Canon X of this Diocese, such Church shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and be no longer entitled to representation in the same; and the Bishop shall report said Church to the Convention in his Annual Address; but any such Church may be readmitted on the recommendation of the Bishop, and by a resolution of the Convention, and such readmission shall take effect from and after the rising of the Convention which shall have agreed to the same.

CANON V.

SECTION 1. In addition to the duties imposed upon the Secretary by the Constitution and by Canon III, he shall be required to transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention a copy of the JOURNAL of the Convention; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective JOURNALS in exchange. He shall also transmit a copy to each Clergyman in the Diocese, and each Lay Delegate attending the Convention, and five copies to each Parish in the Diocese, one of which it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Vestry to preserve with the Parish records.

SEC. 2. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in Section IV, Canon 20, Ti-

SEC. 3. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the several sections of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 4. Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon the Assistant Secretary, if there be one; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Diocese.

SECTION 1. At every Annual Convention there shall be chosen a Treasurer of the Diocese. It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all the moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, the collection and distribution of which shall not be otherwise regulated. He shall be subject to the direction of the Standing Committee in relation to the mode and place of depositing the funds received by him, and the manner of paying them out, and his accounts and books shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the Standing Committee or any member thereof. Before entering on the duties of his office he shall give a bond to the Standing Committee, in such penalty and with such surety as they shall direct, conditional for the faithful performance of his duties, and for the delivery over to his successor of all funds, securities, books and papers pertaining to his offices.

SEC. 2. His accounts shall be reported to the appropriate Committee, according to Canon XIV.

SEC. 3. In case of a vacancy in the office the Standing Committee shall appoint a Treasurer, and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an election is made by the Convention. SEC. 8. SEC. 2. Any vacancy occurring among the Deputies between the stated times of election may be supplied by any Convention during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies-elect to signify to the Bishop, on some day within three weeks of the meeting of the General Convention, and at least one week before such meeting, the acceptance of the appointment and their intention to perform its duties; in default of which, and in case of their inability or unwillingness to perform the duties of the appointment, all vacancies so occurring by declensions, sickness or death shall be filled by the designation of the Bishop, from the list of the Clergymen and Laymen actually belonging to the Convention in which the Deputies were appointed, and such person or persons so designated by the Bishop, being furnished with his certificate thereof, shall have all the power and authority of Deputies duly elected by the Convention.

SEC. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or of the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the President of the Standing Committee.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of each of these several committees to meet in each year at some time between the fifteenth of May and the meeting of the next Annual Convention, at the place where the Treasurer resides, or where the funds are held, and make an examination into all books, papers, vouchers, etc., relating to the respective funds held by the Treasurer or Trustees, and prepare a report to be presented to the Annual Convention next ensuing.

CANON XV.

It shall be the duty of such vacant Churches thus supplied to defray all the expenses incident to such occasional services.

CANON XVI.

SEC. 2. To facilitate the stated election by ballot, the Secretary shall provide sheets of paper with printed headings, containing the titles of the various offices to be filled by ballot, for the use of the members of the Convention; and all such officers may be voted for at one balloting. No printed ballots shall be allowed.

SEC. 3. In all cases of failure or omission to elect officers at the Convention, the persons last elected shall continue in office until others be chosen.

to the interests of the Church, this duty is hereby enjoined upon them.

SEC. 2. SEC. 3. No member of this Convention shall leave the same during session without having applied for and received leave of absence.

CANON XVIII.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of the Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become liable to presentment and trial under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceedings in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz. :

SECTION 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offenses of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offense or misconduct, for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case—a majority of whom may make such examination; and if there is, in their opinion, sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

SEC. 2. A presentment being made in any of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as to constitute an offense, may dismiss it; or if it allege facts some of which do, and some of which do not constitute an offense, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention, and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn, from time to time and from place to place, (but always within the Diocese,) as they shall think necessary.

Canon XVIII.

SEC. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

SEC. 4. If at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, the those who do attend may adjourn from time to time; and if after one adjournment or more it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

SEC. 5. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying them.

SEC. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn until another day.

SEC. 7. When the Board proceeds to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced; which evidence shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some of the clerical authorized by law to administer oaths may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses, that they will testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. Upon or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state the opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

SEC. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witness cannot be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a commissary to take the testimony of such witness. Such commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend to examine the witness; and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified to the commissary and enclosed under his seal and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

SEC. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare in writing, signed by them or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges, respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced; and a copy of such decision shall be written delay communicated to the accused; and the original decision, together with evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some Church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be opened at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

SEC. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner on summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the fact shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper—provided, however, that the service, if not personal, shall be a notice of at least sixty days.

SEC. 11. The accused may have the privilege of appearing by counsel; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have like privilege; which counsel shall in all cases be members of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

SEC. 12. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman, shall be preserved by the Standing Committee; and for that purpose shall, after final decision, be delivered to their Secretary.

CANON XIX.

Of the Chancellor of the Diocese.

The Bishop may nominate for the approval of the Convention a person skilled in ecclesiastical and civil law to be the Chancellor of the Diocese, whose office shall be to act as legal adviser and counsellor to the Bishop, the Standing Committee, ecclesiastical courts and the Convention, when called upon to do so.

CANON XX.

No Parish of this Church shall be organized in any town, city or village where one already exists, without the consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the Diocese, and no edifice for public worship shall be erected by said Parish within one-half mile of the Church building already in existence.

SEC. 4. Section thirty-three of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows :

SEC. 33. Annual Elections of Incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parishes.—The annual election of a Protestant Episcopal Parish hereafter incorporated, shall be held on the secular day in the week commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, designated in its certificate of incorporation. The annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church heretofore incorporated shall be held on the day fixed for such annual election, by or in pursuance of law, or if no such date be so fixed, then on the Monday next after the first Sunday in Advent.

Notice of such annual election shall be read by the Rector of the Parish, or if there be none, or he be absent, by the officiating Minister or by a Churchwarden thereof, on each of the two Sundays next preceding such election, in the time of divine service, or if, for any reason, the usual place of worship of the Parish be not open for divine service, the notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outside door of the place of worship for two weeks next preceding the election.

Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of holding the election, the name and term of office of each Churchwarden and Vestryman whose term of office shall then expire, or whose office shall then be vacant for any cause, and the office for which each such officer is to be then elected. The meeting for such annual election shall be held immediately after morning service.

The presiding officer of such meeting shall be the Rector thereof, if there be one, or if there be none, or he be absent, one of the Churchwardens elected for the purpose by a majority of the duly qualified voters present, or if no Churchwarden be present, a Vestryman elected in like manner. Such presiding officer shall be the judge of the qualifications of the voters; shall receive the votes cast; and shall declare the result of the votes cast at such election. The presiding officer of such meeting shall enter the proceedings of the meeting in the book of the minutes of the vestry, sign his name thereto, and offer the same to as many qualified voters present as he shall think fit, to be also signed by them.

Only men of full age belonging to the Parish, who have been regular attendants at its worship and contributors to its support for at least twelve months prior to such election, or since the establishment of such Parish, shall be qualified voters of any such election. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon. The polls of the election shall continue open for one hour, and longer, in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the qualified voters present and voting.

Organization of Parishes.

The Churchwardens and Vestrymen shall be elected by ballot from persons qualified to vote at such election, and no person shall be eligible for election as Churchwarden unless he be also a communicant in the Protestant Episcopal Church, nor be eligible for election as Vestryman unless he shall have been baptized.

At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish hereafter incorporated, one Churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years; and one-third of the total number of the Vestrymen of the Parish shall be elected to hold office for three years. At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church heretofore incorporated, two Churchwardens and the total number of its Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, unless the terms of office of but one Churchwarden or of but one-third of its Vestrymen shall then expire, in which case one Churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years, and one-third of the total number of its Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years. Each Churchwarden and Vestryman shall hold office after the expiration of his term until his successor shall be chosen.

SEC. 5. Section thirty-four of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

SEC. 34. Changing the number of Vestrymen of Protestant Episcopal Parishes hereafter incorporated.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish, hereafter incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the number of Vestrymen of such Parish be changed to either three, six or nine Vestrymen, notice of such recommendation shall be included in the notice of the next annual meeting of such Parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof, and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the Vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election; that the meeting had ratified the same; and the number of Vestrymen so decided on. Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original Certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded, and such change in the number of Vestrymen shall take effect at the time of the next annual election thereafter.

If the number of Vestrymen be thereby increased then, in addition to the number of Vestrymen to be elected at such annual election one-third of such increased number of Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for two years thereafter, and one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for three years thereafter.

If the number of Vestrymen by such change be reduced, such reduction shall not effect the term of office of any Vestryman duly elected, and at such next annual election, and at each annual election thereafter, one-third of such reduced number of Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years.

SEC. 6. Section thirty-five of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified at such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the Vestry; the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of the annual election; that such meeting had ratified the same; the date determined upon for the annual election of the Parish; the number of Vestrymen so decided on, and the fact that the meeting determined to thereafter elect Churchwardens so that the term of one Warden shall expire annually.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded. If the meeting determined to change the date of the annual election, the next annual election shall be held on the day in the week beginning, with the first Sunday in Advent, determined on by such meeting, and the terms of the Vestrymen and Churchwardens which, pursuant to law, would expire at the next annual election, shall expire, and their successors shall be elected on such day.

If the meeting determine to change the number of Vestrymen and manner of electing Wardens and Vestrymen, there shall be elected at the first annual election thereafter, one-third of the number of Vestrymen so determined on, to hold office for three years; one-third thereof to hold office for two years, and one-third thereof to hold office for one year; and one Churchwarden to hold office for one year, and one to hold for two years; and thereafter at the annual election there shall be elected one-third of the number of Vestrymen determined on at such meeting and one Churchwarden.

SEC. 7. Section thirty-six of said article is hereby amended as to read as follows:

SEC. 36. Changing the qualification of voters and the qualifications of Wardens and Vestrymen.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish heretofore incorporated shall, by resolution, recommend that the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of Wardens and Vestrymen be changed to conform in both cases to the requirement of sections thirty-three of this statute, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such Parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified by such meeting the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the Vestry, the fact that

SEC. 7. Section thirty-six of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Mr. R. J. Hubbard read the following

REPORT :

The Committee appointed by the Diocesan Convention of 1900 to complete the raising of a fund of $25,000 for the further endowment of the Episcopate Fund, respectfully report that the contributions and pledges thus far received amount to about $19,750 as shown in detail in the report of the Treasurer of the Fund.

It remains in his hands as a special deposit with the Utica Trust Co., drawing interest at the rate of 3½ per cent.

Contributions have been received from individuals in the following parishes of the Diocese :

St. Andrew's, New Berlin, $2,112.83; St. Paul's, Syracuse, $3,000; St. James', Skaneateles, $250.00; St. Paul's, Oxtord, $725.00; Grace, Utica, $2,525.00; Holy Cross, Utica, $50.00; St. Peter's, Auburn, $1,000.00; Trinity, Watertown, $5,000.00; St. Peter's, Cazenovia, $2,635.00; Trinity Memorial, Binghamton, $250.00; Christ Church, Oswego, $1,000.00; Grace Church, Waterville, $50.00; Zion, Rome, $100.00; Grace, Cortland, $10.00; St. John's, Ithaca, $585.00; Trinity, Elmira, $505.00.

A number of pledges included in the list given will lapse this year unless the full sum of $25,000 is secured. There ought to be no difficulty in raising the balance from parishes which have contributed nothing.

The Committee recommend the following amendment to Canon XIV, Sec. 2 :

All moneys belonging to the fund for the support of the Episcopate shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon securities on real estate, to an amount not exceeding sixty per cent. of the appraised value of the property inclusive of buildings with proper insurance on the buildings; the appraisal to be made by an appraiser appointed by the Trustees for that purpose; or said moneys may be invested in securities of the United States or of any State, County or City east of the Mississippi, or the first mortgage bonds, or the guaranteed or preferred stock of any railroad in the United States, which for at least three years immediately preceding has paid interest annually on its bonds, or dividends on such stock; which investments shall receive the unanimous approval of the Trustees of the Fund and they shall have power to change such securities, and investments from time to time as they may unanimously agree.

Resolved, That Sec. 5, Article III be amended so as to read as follows: "Sec. 5. (See Journal, 1899, pages 28 and 30)"

The Rev. J. R. Harding offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That a commission consisting of four Clergymen and three Laymen be appointed by the Bishop for carrying on Church work among Deaf Mutes in the Diocese of Central New York.

Resolved, That such Commission be authorized to call for contributions on behalf of this work, and to appoint its own officers.

Under this resolution the Bishop appointed the following as such Commission :

Report of Special Committee.

The Convention proceeded to the election of the Standing Committee of the Diocese. The Chair appointed as tellers, to receive the votes of the Clergy, the Rev. F. N. Westcott and Mr. F. L. Lyman, and to receive the votes of the Laity, Mr. J. D. Barrow and the Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtiss.

The Rt. Rev., the Bishop, then took the chair.

Mr. E. C. Delavan submitted the following report, which was accepted, and the recommendation contained therein was adopted :

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York:

Your Committee appointed to suggest a plan to complete the raising of the addition to the Episcopate Endowment, report that it is our recommendation that the Rev. William B. Clarke of Seneca Falls N. Y., and the Rev. John Arthur, of Oneida, N. Y., be added to the committee who have heretofore had the matter in charge, with the understanding that they are to call upon the Parishes and members of the Diocese, soliciting contributions from all who have not already given to this work.

We have ascertained that this plan will receive the hearty co-operation of those already connected with the committee, they promising to lend every aid in their power to the newly appointed members, and also promising not to relax their efforts in this work.

A great result has already been accomplished by this committee, a result that could not have been obtained but for the liberality and devotion of its individual members. The new members of the committee are both men who have plenty of work to do in their own fields of labor. They have accepted this arduous task with reluctance, and solely from a sense of duty. We therefore, ask for them, if this recommendation is adopted, a cordial reception by every clergyman and layman and a prompt response to their appeals, in order that the work may be accomplished without unnecessary loss of time and burden of labor.

Standing Committees.

The amount needed is small when it is compared with the strength and character of the Diocese of Central New York. The obligation is a financial one, and also involves the honor of the Diocese. Only a small number of the members of the Diocese have contributed as yet. We feel confident that when all have done what they can and should do, that the result will far exceed the amount asked.

Over and above all is the fact that much of the money already raised is pledged conditionally, and it is absolutely necessary that the balance of the fund be raised in order to secure the amounts already pledged.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

E. C. DELAVAN,
H. B. HUBBARD,
JOHN R. VAN WAGENEN.

The Rev. J. J. Burd read the report of the Committee on Sunday School work. (See Appendix, I, M.)

The Van Wageningen Missionary Fund.

On motion the Convention took a recess until 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, 2:30 o'clock.

The Convention re-assembled, the Rt. Rev., the President, in the Chair.

The Rev. H. E. Hubbard, of the Committee on the report of the Van Wageningen Missionary Fund, presented the following report:

The Committee on the report of the Trustee of the Van Wageningen Missionary Fund have examined the same and report that it is correct in every particular. Inasmuch as the Trustee last year took expert opinion regarding the securities which he held it was deemed necessary to consider only those loans made since last Convention. The opinion of a lawyer acquainted with most of these loans leads your committee to believe that they are safe. The fund, as in preceding years, shows a commendable increase, and the gratitude of the Convention ought to go out to the Trustee who gives so many of his busy hours to the successful management of the Fund.

H. E. HUBBARD.

The Convention proceeded to the election of Deputies to the General Convention. The Chair appointed as Tellers to receive the votes of the Clergy the Rev. Dr. Benton and Mr. R. M. Beecher, and to receive the votes of the Laity, Mr. E. C. Delavan and the Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtiss.

Resolved, That whereas this Convention has laid upon the Sunday School Committee certain work which will necessitate so expense, and whereas certain expenses have been incurred the past year, the sum of ten dollars be appropriated for the use of the Committee.

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to have ten thousand copies of the report of the Committee on Sunday School work printed while the same is being printed for the JOURNAL, the same copies to be turned over to the Committee on Sunday School work for their use.

The proposed Canon was adopted, two-thirds of each Order concurring.

The Rev. Mr. Longley offered the following amendment to Canon XIV, Sec. 3, which, on motion, was referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons:

Resolved, "That the following additional sentence be added at the end of Canon XIV, Sec. 3: 'An abstract of each report, with such resolutions as may be proposed, and the reports of the Standing Committees constituted by this Canon shall be furnished to the Secretary of the Convention in time to permit him to cause the same to be printed and sent to the Clergy and Lay Delegates one week before the meeting of the Convention.'"

The Rev. W. H. Van Allen offered the following resolution, which, on motion, was laid on the Table:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention that the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America should so amend the existing Canons on Marriage and Divorce as to forbid any Clergyman of this Church from solemnizing a marriage ceremony either party to which has a living husband or wife divorced for any cause whatsoever arising after marriage.

The Rev. W. B. Guion offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the members of this Convention desire to extend their sincere thanks to the Rectors and Church people of the City of Utica for their kind hospitality to the members of the Convention during its sessions in Calvary Church.

The Rev. L. B. Thomas, D. D. offered the following resolution, which was lost:

Election of Deputies.

Resolved, That in sending out the blanks for parochial reports the Secretary arrange the financial part in two main divisions, the second part headed, "Payments" remaining as at present except for the substitution of "For the Poor" in place of Communion Alms. The first division to be headed "Receipts" and under that reading Communion Alms, Pew Rents, Subscriptions, Collections, From other sources.

The Rev. W. B. Clarke offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the sum of $11,400 be appropriated for the Missionary work of the Diocese for the current year, and that the sum of $10,000 be assessed upon the Districts.

The Rev. Dr. Egar from the Committee on the Constitution and Canons to whom was referred the proposed amendment to Canon XIII, reported that they had considered the same and recommended that it be adopted (See page 28.)

A vote being taken on the proposed amendment it was lost.

The Tellers submitted their report, from which it appeared that the following named persons had received majority of all the votes given, and they were therefore declared duly elected :

DEPUTIES TO THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

The Rev. John Brainard D. D.,	Mr. Chas. Andrews
The Rev. J. H. Egar, D. D.,	Mr. R. J. Hubbard,
The Rev. F. N. Westcott,	Mr. A. H. Sawyer,
The Rev. John Arthur,	Mr. C. S. Symonds.

The Rev. C. T. Raynor read the following report of the Committee on the report of the Missionary Board :

Report of the Missionary Board.

REPORT.

Your Committee report that they have examined the report of the Secretary of the Board of Managers and are pleased with the spirit of hope and courage therein expressed. It is evident from this report that the petition in the Litany, "To send forth laborers into Thy harvest" is not yet fulfilled in this Diocese. From nearly every Mission there is expressed a desire for more Church work. In every village in the Diocese, the Church should raise her standard, look after her few children, who are there, and bring others into her fold. The bone and sinew of our city parishes have largely come from the country districts and are the result of such Missionary work. This fact puts upon the Rural Mission its darkest phase. The question is frequently asked. Is there a prospect of growth in such and such a rural Mission? The answer must necessarily be no, because the growth goes into the city, but the report from these Mission Stations demonstrate the fact that the results obtained are proportionately larger for the energy expended than anywhere else. The rural Missions do not ask alms, but when the drift of the population deprives them of the results of their labor the larger parishes must assist in their support, more from a politic than from a charitable point of view.

C. T. RAYNOR,
GEO. M. WEAVER.

The Rev. W. D. Wilson offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the reading of the report of the Missionary Board be omitted, and that permission be given to print the said report in the JOURNAL of the Convention.

The Registrar presented his report. (See Appendix I, I.)

The Rev. Dr. Thomas offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That 1,300 copies of the JOURNAL of this Convention, together with the Constitution and Canons, and various forms and legislative acts of incorporation, be printed under the direction of the Secretary and distributed as directed by Canon V.

The Rev. Dr. Egar, from the Committee on the Constitution and Canons, presented the following :

REPORT :

The Committee on the Constitution and Canons, to whom was referred the proposed amendment to Canon XIV, Sec. 3, report that they have considered the same and move its adoption at this Convention.

On motion the report of the Committee was accepted, and the amendment proposed was adopted, two-thirds of each Order concurring. (See page 37).

The Convention then, on motion, resolved to adjourn after the reading of the minutes and the usual devotions.

The minutes of this day's session were read and approved.

The Bishop offered prayers and pronounced the benediction, and the Convention adjourned sine die.

The Diocese, in its character of faith and manhood and in all its chief interests, has not been without a sense of the loss that has befallen it in the death of Mr. Horatio O. Moss. We call it a loss because in his departure, so much went from our sight in the sphere of his visible activity, his religious influence, his manifold usefulness, his bountiful benefactions. But the word loss is largely an illusion. What he was, what he did, what he gave to make the Church he loved strong and honored, to make it what it was meant to be, cannot be taken away, destroyed or forgotten. What his absence from our Convention is we feel already with sorrow.

My inadequate tribute to the Rev. Dr. William Dexter Wilson here is not to be understood as weakened but rather as emphasized to the utmost by repetition.

A Church Family, a Diocese, or a Community, that could lose from its living membership, in the full ripeness of their powers, two such leaders of thought and learning, in less than a year, as Dr. Clarke and Dr. Wilson, may well give thanks for a rare inheritance.

Since his earlier years, when his studies were in his native New England, Dr. Wilson's personal labors have been associated with the State of New York, in classical, educational, philosophical and theological scholarship. Through the colleges, which he did much to form and guide, through his singular ability and efficiency in communicating definite knowledge to individual minds, his systematic and lucid presentation of truth in its systematic and scientific relations, and through his many didactic publications, it is impressive to consider how widely and deeply his influence has been felt, both among the clergy and the congregations which they, informed and inspired by him, have instructed. There have been in the Church great Teachers and Pastors — Teachers whose scholastic methods and habits have limited that other force in intellectual training which touches the spirit and wakens affection; Pastors whose gracious gift of a winning and beneficent way of shepherding souls has hidden their slender store of erudition. It was Dr. Wilson's happiness at once to clear and invigorate the minds of his pupils and at the same time to draw to him their venerating love and faithful remembrance. The honor of large and varied accomplishments was never borne with more complete simplicity or self-effacement.

Dr. Wilson was born February 23, 1816, at Stoddard, N. H. He received his early education in the common schools of that place, and entered the academy at Walpole, N. H., in the fall of 1831, where he was soon made assistant teacher in mathematics, a branch of knowledge for which he has always retained a special fondness.

He entered the Divinity School of Harvard University in 1835 and graduated in 1838. Besides the theological studies he read extensively the Greek and Latin philosophical writers and acquired a considerable knowledge of French, German and Italian.

After preaching two or three years in the Unitarian denomination, Dr. Wilson took orders in the Episcopal Church in 1842. He preached for several years in Sherburne, and while there gathered about him a large number of private pupils for the study of theology. Here in 1844 he wrote the book that first gained public attention, entitled "The Church Identified". This book has gone through several editions and is still in demand.

In 1850, Dr. Wilson was called to Geneva, now Hobart College, as Professor of Moral and Intellectual Philosophy. During the eighteen years of his connection with this college, the cares and duties of the presidency devolved upon him for a large part of the time, and in three instances for most of the year at a time.

In 1868, at the opening of Cornell University, he was selected for the Professorship of Moral and Intellectual Philosophy.

His success as a teacher was in his capacity to give instruction by way of lectures. He always took an active part in the councils of the Church and held the highest offices in it except that of Bishop. His success as a teacher was, as stated, by lectures, and by his friendly conversations with students, a feature of education which in these late days is generally lacking. He was loved and respected by the students of Cornell, all of whom knew him in his former service there as registrar. To every student of Cornell from 1868 to 1886 his death is a personal loss.

Dr. Wilson was in 1886 made Emeritus Professor of Moral al and Intellectual Philosophy at Cornell, Dr. J. G. Schurman, now President of Cornell, taking his place at Ithaca. Dr. Wilson removed to Syracuse and became Dean of St. Andrew's Divinity School, which office he held until the fall of 1899. For the last three years he lived with his son in St. Mark's Rectory.

Since moving to Syracuse, Dr. Wilson devoted his time exclusively to Church work, and published several valuable works on theology.

Dr. Wilson enjoyed an intimacy and friendship with Bishop Huntington, whose development in religious relations were on very similar lines. They were students in the same theological school, and ever after were closely allied in Church work.

Dr. Wilson passed from this world on Sunday morning at the hour of the Sacrament; July 29, at the Rectory of St. Mark's Church, the residence of his son, the Rector, and family.

Our cordial and affectionate remembrance of the Rev. Moses Coit Tyler, LL. D., has not perished, and will not pass from our minds or our hearts. Entering upon his thorough and important duties, as professor of the English Literature in connection with Cornell University, he pursued them with so much assiduity and such success, as much restricted him from services as a Presbyter in our Orders. None the less he retained his intelligent devotion to the Ministry so far as he was able to exercise it. He had been eminent as a preacher before he came among us from the Congregationalists. Always his tastes were refined, his personality was most attractive and genial, his style as a writer was pure English, and his companionship was delightful. In respect to all the attributes of Christian character, he was as much beloved as he was esteemed.

The Bishop's Address.

In the midst of a steadfast and patient ministry to our flocks, often suffering from bodily infirmities, yet as a good Providence often orders it, unexpectedly at last, the Rev. T. L. Allen ended his pastoral service and earthly life in Mexico. He grew up in this part of the country, preached some years out of the Communion of the Church, followed his active brother into our vocation, and was received here in 1896. His preaching was noticed for a clear method, deep seriousness, a devout presentation of truth, and a style of pure English. His son's name appears among those Presbyters ordained Priests within the year.

By a sudden and deplorable disorder the Rev. George Greene ended his life after a residence of a few weeks in the diocese, in a sanitarium.

After a resignation and renunciation of the faith in the Church, the Rev. Antone G. Singesen was deposed from the ministry in the presence of the Rev. Theodore B. Cock and the Rev. E. W. Saphore, Feb. 21, 1901.

So far as I have observed, or have been informed, no check or impediment has hindered the prosperous course of the Woman's Auxiliary, Senior and Junior, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the Girls' Friendly Society, the Shelter, the House of the Good Shepherd, the St. Andrew School of Divinity, the Keble and the St. John's School.

To those of our clergy who ignore or discourage the first three of these in their parochial administration, where the conditions are, or can be made, reasonably practical for favoring or promoting them in word or deed, I must say that, in my judgment, they wrong their parishioners by depriving them of an actual benefit and pleasure which the large experience and testimony of the Church abundantly approve. A segregating parochial policy which shuts out all these helps to Church life is neither admirable nor fensible, and is to be correctly designated as rather individualism than independence, rather self-confidence than loyalty.

On the 2d of May, six nurses, having completed their course of training, received their diplomas for their calling at the Hospital and Training School of the Good Shepherd, Syracuse.

Sometime after the resignation and retirement of the Rev. C. O. Dantzer from his service in this Diocese as Missionary to the deaf mutes and after receiving satisfactory testimonials in his behalf from the diocese of Albany and elsewhere, I invited Rev. H. Van Allen to take up the duties of the Mission which he consented to do May 1st, 1901, having rendered some service in that direction five months before. Mr. Van Allen has made a full report which will be presented to the Managers of the Board of Missions and thence to the Diocese. The Mission of the Deaf Mutes cannot be said to be in relation to any one of our six District Convocations. Some measure ought to be taken by the Diocese, it seems to me, to express the judgment and desire respecting the continuance and support of the Mission.

So little has been done in behalf of the colored people among us owing to their distinctive deprivations and disadvantages, that we must feel much gratification at the gratuitous and judicious exertions of the Rev. Mr. Codrington of Syracuse, to provide a suitable and convenient Sanctuary for the more regular worship of those under his pastoral charge and at his untiring interest in their religious welfare.

I acknowledge here, as is due, the very efficient and constant and cheerful service to the Church in Central New York and to me, both personally and in my office, of the Rev. Dr. Babcock as Dean of St. Andrew's Divinity School, and otherwise in the preparation of candidates for Ordination and as Examining Chaplain.

A joyous Festival was held Dec. 16th to mark the fiftieth anniversary of Calvary Parish, Utica, with appropriate public and social exercises and many congratulations.

APPENDIX 1.

With Accompanying Papers.

A. Report of the Standing Committee,

FOR THE CONVENTIONAL YEAR 1900-01.

The Standing Committee respectfully report that, during the Conventional year 1900-01, they have held six meetings, the first in Christ Church, Binghamton, the sixth in Calvary Church, Utica, and the other four in St. Paul's Church, Syracuse.

At the first meeting, held June 13th, 1900, all the members being in attendance, the Committee was organized for the year by the election of the Rev. John Brainard, D. D., President, and the Rev. H. R. Lockwood, S. T. D., Secretary. The Rev. Horace T. Owen, Deacon, presented the required canonical certificates and was recommended to the Bishop for ordination to the Priesthood.

At the second meeting, held September 24th, 1900, and attended by all the members, the proper testimonials having been presented, the consecration of the Rev. Reginald Heber Weller, Jr., as Bishop-coadjutor of the Diocese of Fond du Lac, was consented to, and Mr. Edwin Lee Tanner was recommended for ordination to the Diaconate.

At the third meeting, held December 10th, 1900, all the members were present. Having presented the certificates required by Canon, the Rev. Herbert H. H. Fox, Deacon, was recommended for advancement to the Priesthood, and Messrs. Gilbert A. Shaw and Theodore Haydn were recommended to be ordered Deacons. Consent was given to the placing of a mortgage on the rectory of the parish of Grace Church, Utica. The Bishop, who was present, stated the particulars, and asked the advice of the committee, in regard to a difficulty connected with filling the vacant rectorship of Grace Church, Baldwinsville. On motion, the Bishop's action in the matter was unanimously approved.

At the fourth meeting, held January 22d, 1901, the members being again all present, the difficulty regarding the vacant rectorship of Grace Church, Baldwinsville, came up for further consideration. Mr. R. C. Scott, the Rev. Mr. Dean, and the Bishop of the Diocese addressed the committee on that subject, after which, the resolution adopted at the last meeting commending the Bishop's course in the matter, was unanimously reaffirmed. Mr. Howard W. Crydenwise presented the proper testimonials and was recommended for admission to the Order of Deacons.

At the fifth meeting, held May 13th, 1901, all the clerical members and Messrs. Van Wagenen, Jack and Dunning were present. On receipt of the prescribed canonical papers, it was recommended that the Rev. Albert W. Allen and the Rev. Gilbert A. Shaw, Deacons, be advanced to the Order of Priesthood and that Messrs. Wilson E. Tanner, Henry Knott and Frederick T. Henstridge be admitted candidates for Holy Orders. On application of the Vestry of Trinity Church, Utica, the placing of a mortgage on certain real estate belonging to that parish in New York City, was consented to. The Bishop, who was present during a part of the session, consulted with the members in regard to several matters affecting the interests of the Diocese.

The amount of the General Fund required for meeting expenses of the Diocese for the ensuing year was estimated as follows: Printing of Journal of Convention and other printing, $500; rent of Episcopal residence, $600; salaries of Convention Secretary and Assistant, $250; appropriation for Bishop's traveling expenses, $300; for services as required by the Bishop, $500; deficit in income of Episcopate Fund, $500; per capita tax for General Convention, $400; expenses of clerical deputies to General Convention, $375; expenses of Registrar, $25; making a total of $3,450. It was voted to recommend the assessment of that amount upon the parishes, and a schedule of the several parochial assessments, at the rate of 2.7 per cent. of the last reported current expenses, was ordered to be made out and reported to the Convention.

At the sixth meeting, held June 11th, 1901, and attended by all the members, consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Frederick William Taylor, D. D., as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Quincy. The Secretary read his report of the transactions of the committee during the year, which was accepted and ordered to presented to the Convention.

All which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee.

H. R. LOCKWOOD.

Report of the Board of Managers—First District.B. Missions of the Diocese.(I.) Report of the Board of Managers.

The Board of Managers for Diocesan Missions of the Diocese of Central New York respectfully submits the following report:

At a meeting of the Board in the Parish House of Christ Church, Binghamton, on Wednesday, June 13, 1900, the thirty-second Annual Convention of the Diocese, then in session, having authorized the appropriation of $11,500 for the Missionary work of the Diocese for the current year, the following assessments and apportionments were made:

First District, Assessed....	$1,550;	Apportioned....	$1,900
Second District, "	2,550;	"	2,300
Third District, "	1,800;	"	1,500
Fourth District, "	2,100;	"	1,800
Fifth District, "	1,400;	"	1,700
Sixth District, "	1,100;	"	2,000
	$10,500.		$11,200.

The sum of $100 was also appropriated for the Church work among the Deaf Mutes of the Diocese under the direction of the Bishop.

On Tuesday, June 11, 1901, the Board met in the Parish House of Calvary Church, Utica. The Treasurer's report, herewith submitted, was presented and the following reports were received from the Missionary Districts of the Diocese:

FIRST DISTRICT.

(JEFFERSON AND LEWIS COUNTIES.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. Anson J. Brockway, Dean; the Rev. English Crooks, Ph. D., Secretary; Mr. John M. Tilden, Treasurer; the Rev. F. P. Winne and Mr. William E. Hart, members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are: In Jefferson County: Adams, Antwerp, Brownville, Cape Vincent, Champion, Clayton, Dexter, Evans Mills, Ellisburg, Frederick's Corners, LaFargeville, Millen's Bay, North Watertown, Pierrepont Manor, Redwood, Sackett's Harbor and Theresa.

Missions of the Diocese—First District.

In Lewis County: Constableville, Copenhagen, Greig and Port Leyden.

These places are, at present, all supplied (excepting Antwerp and Evans Mills) with the services of able and faithful men who are zealous and indefatigable in discharge of the trust committed to them; who try to follow as earnestly as most, the apostolic injunction of being diligent in their business, fervent in their spirit, always serving their Lord.

Three regular Convocations have been held: in the autumn, at Emmanuel Church, Adams, in connection with its 50th Anniversary; in the winter, at Trinity Church, Watertown; and in the spring, at Zion Church, Pierrepont Manor.

The meetings held with these were all well attended, by both clergy and laity, and the reports submitted each quarter from the various stations were considered satisfactory and encouraging. When, in any case, a report was not so considered, immediate action has always been taken by the Dean with the result that the District is in very fair condition from the missionary point of view, at least no effort has been spared that was thought likely to produce beneficial results, and bring home to the parishes in the District a more lively sense of the duty they owe the Church, to be regular and devout in their attendance on her services, loyal to her principles and energetic in the promotion of her interests.

The report of the Treasurer of the District in detail will be found in the report of the Treasurer of the Board.

The financial summary is as follows:

Amount assessed upon the District	$1,550.00
Amount assessed by the District.....	1,572.03
Offerings	1,616.59
Amount apportioned the District.....	1,900.00
Stipends paid.....	1,583.34

ANSON J. BROCKWAY, Dean,
ENGLISH CROOKS, Secretary.

Missions of the Diocese—Second District.

SECOND DISTRICT.

The officers of the District are: The Rev. E. H. Coley, Dean; the Rev. J. W. Clarke, Secretary; the Rev. William Cooke, Treasurer; the Rev. Oliver Owen and Mr. J. T. A. Doolittle, Members of the Board of Managers; the Dean, Secretary, Treasurer, the Rev. A. H. Rogers and the Rev. J. R. Harding, Committee on Assessments and Appropriations.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are: In Oneida County—Augusta, Oriskany Falls, Boonville, Bridgewater, Camden, Clarks Mills, St. Joseph's, Rome, Whitesboro, Oriskany, Paris Hill, Clayville, Westmoreland, Durhamville, Holland Patent, New York Mills, Forestport, Deerfield and Chadwick's Mills. In Madison County—Brookfield and Earlville.

Four meetings of the Convocation have been held during the year, in Utica, Waterville, Rome and Westmoreland.

Services are maintained in all the Mission Churches in the District, with the exception of Boonville.

The Rev. William Cooke, in charge of St. John's, Whitesboro, and St. Peter's, Oriskany, reports that regular services have been held in both places throughout the year, with special services on Holy Days and during Lent. The congregations of St. John's show an increase. The Sunday School has gained in strength. All financial obligations have been met. Could this Parish have regular morning and evening services it would not be many years before it would be strong and self-supporting.

Notwithstanding many deaths and removals St. Peter's, Oriskany, continues in a prosperous condition. A new pipe organ has been purchased and is nearly paid for. Damages caused by the heavy winds of last November to Church and Rectory have been repaired. The Utica Local Council of St. Andrew's Brotherhood have continued their faithful services during the year, furnishing Lay Readers on alternate Sunday mornings. The Missionary has celebrated the Holy Communion ten times at New York Mills and twice at Westmoreland.

The Rev. A. H. Rogers reports that services have been continued Sunday afternoons in Earlville. The interest and the attendance seem on the increase, but financially the congregation is much weaker than a year ago.

Missions of the Diocese—Second District.

The Rev. M. B. Bennett reports that services have been held regularly during the year in Forestport. The Church property has been repaired and is in good condition. The services have been well attended and the offerings increased by over $100.

The Rev. John Arthur of Oneida, in charge of St. Andrew's, Durhamville, reports that regular services have been maintained by him twice a month, and on Thursday evenings through Lent; and by the Lay Reader, Mr. A. D. Hamblin, of Oneida, on the alternate Sundays each month. The condition of the Mission indicates the faithfulness and zeal of the small band of Church folk in Durhamville.

The Rev. W. B. Coleman, Rector of St. George's, Utica, took charge of the Mission in Chadwicks last November, and reports that services have been held every Sunday evening, and special services during Advent and Lent. The Holy Communion is celebrated twice a month. The Sulpician Method of Catechising has been established. Repairs have been made in the Church, and Altar furnishings, and Priest's vestments have been provided. The present financial conditions of the Mission are very satisfactory, and the future prospects most encouraging.

The Rev. Oliver Owen reports that St. Mark's, Clark's Mills, has had a very favorable year. The Church register shows a larger number of entries than usual. The Sunday School maintains a very high average attendance. The latent influence of the Church is very extensive, and there is a great deal for which to be thankful.

The Rev. A. E. Dunham of Camden reports that the average attendance at the services has been maintained, but the Rector is hampered by lack of a Parish House and a sufficient income to provide for the necessities of Parish support. A fund for a Parish House has been started and the Rector is trying to increase it as rapidly as possible. Two new societies, one of boys and one of girls, have been started.

The Rev. J. B. Wicks, of St. Paul's, Paris Hill, reports good congregations, united spirit and financial obligations all met. The stipend has been reduced by request of the Parish from $180 to $100.

The Rector has administered the Holy Communion at Bridgewater and Clayville.

The Rev. A. W. Allen reports that morning service has been held in Gethsemane Church, Westmoreland, and evening service in Missions of the Diocese—Second District.

St. James' Church, New York Mills, with good attendance. A small Sunday School has been held in each Parish. A branch of the Daughters of the King has been formed in St. James'. Although the Church suffers greatly by removals the general condition of the Parish appears to be good. The conditions at Westmoreland are very encouraging. The people are devoted, faithful and earnest in supporting all the efforts of the Missionary in building up the Parish.

The Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtiss, of St. Joseph's, Rome, reports that a commodious Rectory and Guild Hall has been completed at a cost of $6,200, which has been nearly provided for, and a new Chancel window has been placed in the Church. The noble efforts of the congregation have supplemented the efforts of the Rector. The actual number of communicants shows an increase. The people are aggressive and interested, and the buildings give the Parish a stability which promises much. The Rector is one of the Chaplains of the County Alms House, where he conducts services twice a month.

The Rev. E. Livingston Wells was placed in charge of the Churches at Augusta, Oriskany Falls and Holland Patent last December, and has been assisted by Mr. Walter Crocker, Lay Reader from Utica. At Augusta services were held once every Sunday, with the exception of the second Sunday in the month, and the attendance has been gratifying. At Oriskany Falls services have been held twice every Sunday and Cottage services during Lent. The Rectory has been completed and part of it rented. At Holland Patent the attendance at the Sunday and Lenten services has been good. So far all financial obligations have been met in this field.

The work at Bridgewater, Clayville and Brookfield has prospered under Mr. Charles K. Gilbert, Lay Reader from Hamilton College. Clayville shows signs of special promise. A Vestry has been elected and has sent in a pledge for the support of the service. It is hoped that the old Church may be sold and a smaller one built during another year. At Bridgewater the services have been maintained with regularity and satisfaction to the people. The great distance of Brookfield from the other points makes it almost impossible to hold regular services there.

St Paul's, Deerfield, is a self-supporting Mission. It is under the charge of the Rev. J. W. Clarke of Utica. Services are held once each Sunday, with the exception of the third Sunday in the month, and week day services during Lent. The Sunday School, under the charge of Mr. George M. Weaver, continues in a very prosperous condition.

THIRD DISTRICT.

(BROOME AND CHENANGO COUNTIES.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. Geo. G. Perrine, Dean; the Rev. Alex. H. Grant, Secretary; Mr. William J. Russell, Treasurer; the Rev. J. H. LaRoche, D. D., and Mr. J. R. Van Wagenen, members of the Board of Managers.

The Finance Committee consists of the Dean, Secretary and Treasurer, ex-officio and the Rev. Harry J. Longley, Mr. John Anderson and Mr. J. R. Van Wagenen.

The third District embraces seventeen Parishes and Missions of which the following receive assistance from the Board: Harpursville and Afton, Chenango Forks and Whitney's Point, Bainbridge, Guilford and Mt. Upton, McDonough and Windsor.

Three meetings of Convocation have been held during the year, namely, in St. Paul's Church, Oxford; Christ Church, Binghamton; and Zion Church, Greene.

Afton and Harpursville—Services have been regularly maintained at these places, twice each Sunday at Harpursville and once every Sunday at Afton, with an average attendance of about thirty at the former and thirty-five at the latter place. During Lent there were frequent week day services in both places, with the exception of three weeks during which the Missionary was sick with pneumonia. Three have been confirmed at Harpursville and there is promise of a large number there and at Afton another year. There is a Sunday School in both places with gradual increase both in interest and numbers. These Missions have paid their assessments in full.

McDonough—The Rev. K. G. Heyne gave up the charge of McDonough Dec. 1, 1900, since which time there have been no services at that place.

Bainbridge—The Rev. Alex. H. Grant is doing faithful and effective service in Bainbridge. The Church has been fitted with electric lights; $360 has been secured towards a new organ; the effectiveness of the service has been increased by the organization of a vested choir, and there is a noticeable increase in the attendance and interest of the congregation. A few names have been added to the list of members, but the losses have so much exceeded the gain that the Vestry have thought it necessary to make a reduction of $100 on the salary. Through constant efforts of the Rector, however, this Parish has met its assessments in full.

Chenango Forks and Whitney's Point—After a vacancy of two months, caused by the removal of the Rev. Mr. Cresser, these places were filled by the appointment of the Rev. W. G. Coote on December 1, 1900. Mr. Coote has been well received here, and his efforts have met with considerable encouragement. Twelve have been added to the Church by baptism and twelve confirmed at the Bishop's last visitation.

Guilford and Mount Upton—The condition in Guilford is one of steady progress and improvement, but with no marked changes. The Parish has paid its assessment for Diocesan Missions in full and met all its other obligations promptly. The Easter offering, which amounted to a little over $65, was appropriated to various objects, over $40 being for Missions, Domestic and General. The Womans' Auxiliary is doing good work and contributes liberally to all objects for which its pledges are asked. The Endowment Fund grows steadily and is safely invested by the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, and amounts to $1,082.54 at this time.

The services at Mount Upton were discontinued during the winter on account of the difficulty of procuring a suitable place for holding them. The service is now held on the second and fourth Sunday of each month in the Opera House. Four Church families have recently come to live in Mount Upton. The services are better attended, the feeling towards the Church more friendly and the outlook more hopeful than at any time during the last eight years. The Church owns a lot and has between $500 and $600 on hand as a building fund. This Mission has paid its assessment in full.

Missions of the Diocese—Third District.

Windsor—The Church in this place has recently been greatly afflicted by the death of one of its vestrymen, Mr. Alvin Edwards. His loss will be deeply felt by the Missionary and other friends of the Church in Windsor. During the pre-Lenten season a six days' mission was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Coote of Whitney's Point, with beneficial results. The services are faithfully maintained, contributions for the Missions of the Diocese proportionately large and offerings for other Church purposes liberal. This Church is one of the few that have slightly exceeded the amounts of their assessments.

The Rev. Mr. Hubbard held services at Smithville Flat twice a month during the Fall of 1900 and prepared a class for confirmation. The only vacancy in the District at present is McDonough.

The report of the Treasurer of the District in detail will be found in the report of the Treasurer of the Board.

FOURTH DISTRICT.

(ONONDAGA, OSWEGO AND CORTLAND COUNTIES, and the Townships of MADISON COUNTY not included in Second District.)

The officers of the Fourth District are: The Rev. William D. Lancey Wilson, Dean; the Rev. Herbert G. Coddington, Secretary; Mr. George J. Gardner, Treasurer. The officers and the Rev. John T. Rose and the Rev. Henry S. Sizer compose the Executive Committee. Mr. George C. McWhorter and the Secretary are the elected Members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Stations in the Fourth District are: East Syracuse, Manlius with Jamesville, Marcellus, Cleveland with Constantia, La-cona, Redfield, Altmar, Mexico, Warners, Memphis, Pulaski, Canastota with Chittenango, St. Philip's Church, for colored people, Syracuse, and the Church of the Good Shepherd at the Onondaga Indian Reservation. Besides these stations to which stipends are granted or other help given by Diocesan institutions there are the following Missions to which no stipends have been given: St. Luke's in Syracuse and St. John's, Oswego.

Three meetings of the Convocation have been held during the year—in the Church of the Evangelists, Oswego, May 1 and 2, 1900; in St. Paul's Chapel, Syracuse, July 6, 1900, and in Trinity Church, Fayetteville, October 2 and 3, 1900.

Manlius and Jamesville—The Rector, the Rev. Geo. D. Ashley, reports that the usual services have been conducted in these Parishes during the year, and that the Rector's salary and the Diocesan assessments have been fully paid.

Altmar—The Rev. B. E. Whipple reports St. John's Church to be in a healthy and harmonious condition. The Missionary's salary and the Diocesan Assessments have been paid. The improvements about the Church have been nearly paid for. The Parish has lost some strength through the crippling by fire of the largest local industry.

Pulaski—The Rev. E. A. Anson reports this Parish to be in a prosperous condition. The Diocesan Assessments have been paid. Some improvements upon Church and Rectory are contemplated.

Lacona and Redfield—The Rev. Daniel Daly reports that these Parishes are in good condition, and that the Missionary's salary has been paid.

East Syracuse—This Parish is now a part of St. Andrew's Associate Mission in the care of the Dean of St. Andrew's Divinity School, the Rev. Dr. Theodore Babcock. After the departure of the Rev. W. S. Hayward the attendance at the services decreased, but the interest has revived under the faithful ministrations of two of the students of the School.

Marcellus—The Rector, the Rev. E. B. Mott, reports that his salary and all assessments have been fully paid, and that in addition to the regular services in the Parish Church he conducted, during Lent, two cottage services at a point about three miles from the village. The Parish is in good condition.

Mexico—After the death of the Rector, the Rev. T. L. Allen, last Autumn the Bishop united this Parish with Pulaski, under the care of the Rev. E. A. Anson, who has officiated at each place or alternate Sundays.

Cleveland—The uncertain future of the glass industry in this place seriously affects the Parish. Regular services have been maintained, with good congregations. The Diocesan Assessments have been paid, and the people have begun to raise a fund for building a Rectory. This Parish makes good use of the books loaned by the Home Department of the State University Regents' Library.

Canastota and Chittenango—These Parishes are very acceptably served by the Rev. Geo. H. Ottaway, Principal of the Canastota High School. St. Paul's, Chittenango, has met all its obligations, and Trinity Church, Canastota, has nearly done so.

Onondaga Indian Reservation—The Rev. W. S. Hayward took charge of this Station November 1st, 1900. Since that date he has conducted three services each Sunday, preaching twice and catechizing the Sunday School. There have been eight baptisms. The present number of communicants is 57. The sum of $1.26 has been contributed for Diocesan Missions. The Missionary has held one service at Cardiff, five miles south of the Reservation.

St. Andrew's Divinity School and Associate Mission—The Rev. Dr. Theodore Babcock reports that the Stations in the care of the Associate Mission are Warner, Jamesville, East Syracuse and the Shelter at Syracuse.

The Rev. E. W. Saphore has special charge of Warner and the Shelter. Jamesville and East Syracuse have been served by students under the direction of Dean Babcock. Services have been held at LaFayette.

Warners—The Rev. E. Warren Saphore reports that during the year he has held twenty-five Sunday services, with five celebrations of the Holy Communion, and twelve week night services at St. Paul's Mission, Warners; that the Diocesan Assessment has been paid, and $176 raised for current expenses. The services are well attended and the outlook is encouraging.

The Shelter, Syracuse—In addition to his duties as pastor of St. John's Church, Syracuse, and St. Paul's Church, Warners, the Rev. Mr. Saphore, as Chaplain, has conducted a service each Sunday afternoon in St. Ann's Chapel at the Shelter in Syracuse. Ten week-day services have been conducted, the Holy Communion has been celebrated five times, and four persons have been baptized.

Missions of the Diocese—Fourth District

St. Andrew's Mission, Syracuse—The work at this point has been discontinued.

Memphis—On April 12, 1901, the new Emmanuel Church was consecrated by the Bishop, and is an evidence of the labor and devotion of the Rector, the Rev. F. B. Keable, and his people. The sum of $4.50 has been contributed for Diocesan Missions.

St. Philip's Church, Syracuse—On January 16, 1901, this organization was incorporated, and on April 15th, 1901, the dwelling house at 209 Almond Street was purchased, and has been fitted and is in use as a place of worship for this congregation of colored people. The sum of $6 has been contributed for Diocesan Missions. During the year eight persons have been baptized and nine have been confirmed. The greater part of the purchase price of the new place of worship was obtained by the Bishop. There remains a mortgage of $1,250 upon the property.

The report of the Treasurer will be found in the report of the Treasurer of the Board of Managers.

FIFTH DISTRICT.

(COUNTIES OF CAYUGA AND SENeca.)

The officers of the District are; The Rev. Wm. Bours Clarke, Dean; the Rev. Charles W. McNish, Secretary; Mr. A. N. Hollister, Treasurer, the two latter being also members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are; In Cayuga County—Aurora, Cayuga, Moravia, Northville, Kellogsville, Port Byron, Union Springs and Weedsport.

Missions of the Diocese—Fifth District.

In Seneca County—Dey's Landing, Hayt's Corners, Romulus, Rose Hill, Kidders Ferry, Willard and Willowdale.

Three meetings of Convocation have been held during the year viz. Cayuga Lake Park, July 2nd, 1900; St. Paul's Church, Waterloo, October 30th and 31st, 1900; and St. Peter's Church, Auburn, April 23rd and 24th, 1901.

The work in St. Matthew's Parish, Moravia, is in charge of the Rev. Mytton Maury, D. D. The assessment for Diocesan Missions has been paid in full. The Holy Communion has been celebrated regularly on the first Sunday in the month and on the great festivals of the Church, with one exception, when ill health of the Missionary prevented. Dr. Maury reports, also, that services have been held by him at Kelloggsville, as usual.

Weedsport and Port Byron are in charge of the Rev. Frederick B. Keable, the Rector of Christ Church, Jordan.

Mr. Keable is very hopeful for this Mission, and says there are evident and encouraging signs of new life and awakened zeal. He feels confident that if a way and means could be devised to put a zealous and self-denying Priest in charge of these Missions most encouraging results might be expected. St. John's Church, Weedsport, was assessed $12 for Diocesan Missions, but no offerings have been made for this object, the people evidently not having yet learned the most important law of giving which must pervade all healthy life in both the kingdom of nature and Grace. St. Paul's Church, Port Byron, was assessed $6 and contributed $4.

Aurora, Cayuga and Union Springs are served, as for a long time past, by the Rev. Wm. H. Casey, but no report has been received from him. Through the Treasurer of the District we learn that St. Paul's Church, Aurora, has paid its assessment of $60 in full. St. Luke's Church, Cayuga, was assessed $26 and has paid $18. Grace Church, Union Springs, was assessed $39 and contributed $29.

At Northville are to be found a few devoted Church folk who love the Church and appreciate the services. Through the kindly care of the Bishop, and the laudable zeal of one of the Church women there, arrangements were made for four services last summer. The attendance at these services was remarkably good, while the offerings deserve especial mention. They were as follows: For Diocesan Missions, $6.37; for Domestic Missions, $3.83, and for Foreign Missions, $3.46. It is unfortunate that for some years it has been impossible to provide regular services throughout the year for Northville, as the faithful souls there long for and deserve.

Missions of the Diocese—Fifth District.

The two self-supporting Parishes in Cayuga County, viz.: St. John's and St. Peter's, Auburn, have contributed respectively for Diocesan Missions, $25 and $300, the latter being the full amount of its assessment. St. John's Church was assessed $36, but part of the year it was without a Rector.

The report from Grace Church, Willowdale, would seem to indicate that the Church was most fittingly named, for there is and has been an unrelenting growth in grace as is evidenced by the fruits of the Spirit. Eighteen souls have been baptized into the Kingdom during the past year, of whom two were adults. The number confirmed was ten. Fifty-three Sunday and seven weekday services have been held, and regular visits made to the County House, 12 in all. St. Faith's Guild is unrelenting in its good works for the Master.

Thirty-four services have also been held at Dey's Landing, and 17 at Rose Hill. The assessment of $40 has been paid in full. Special thanks are due the Rev. Doctors Nelson, Leighton, and Hubbs, the Rev. Messrs. Kearton, Foster, Duck, Cornell, Sturges, Macduff, and A. Cleveland Clarke for gratuitous services rendered, also to Messrs. Rose, Haight, Graves, Keyes and Jones, and the Lay Reader upon whom dependence is mostly placed, Mr. William Compton.

St. Stephen's, Romulus—Mr. Walter E. Cook, a candidate for Holy Orders and a student in Hobart College has been doing faithful work in this interesting Mission for the past four years. One hundred and nine services are reported for the past year which include a service each on Christmas Day, Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and Thanksgiving Day. Four persons have been baptized.

The services during the year have been unusually well attended and a deeper interest in the work and growth of the Church has been manifested. A deficit of seventy-five dollars was paid off by means of a very liberal Easter offering. The general outlook for the Mission is brighter than ever, and all look forward with hope to the near future when the mission can be served and ministered by a resident Priest. The assessment was $35 of which $22.56 has been paid.

Christ Church, Willard, and Calvary Church, Hayt's Corners, are under the care of the Secretary of the District, whose privilege it was to found them both. The work of the Church at Willard has been encouraging from the beginning though perhaps in a different sense from that of any other cure in the Diocese. Being located in the vicinity of the Willard State Hospital it has become a sort of training school for Disciples of Christ. Many of the employees of the Hospital receive their first lessons here in the Church's way and are led to affiliate with the Church here or on their return to their former places of abode. The number baptized during the past year is 9, two of whom were adults. The number confirmed was 1. The assessment was $60 while the offerings have amounted to $60.00.

A great calamity has just befallen both the parish and the community in general, through the failure of the Banking House of I. Roy C. Partridge located at Ovid, N. Y.

A Parish House has been a long felt want, as it is believed would be a valuable adjunct to the Church, and more especially since the Mission has to do mostly with young people away from home restraints and comforts. To make provision for this, East offerings have been made for the ten years last past, until the accumulation with interest amounted to over $1,000. This money was deposited in the Ovid Bank and it is probable that not more than half of it, if indeed so much, can be recovered. While financial outlook seems gloomy, in all respects the Mission is prospering. In addition to the regular Sunday services with celebrations of the Holy Communion each month and on Holy Days, a Parochial Mission was held last January, the Rev. Wm. F. Faber of Lockport, N. Y., being the Missioner. The interest manifested by the large and regular attendance upon the Mission services, as well as in the other effects, has been most gratifying to the Priest in charge. The general aspect of the work and fruits of the Church, at Hayt's Corner are not so encouraging for there has been a counter influence of sectarian character at work there for years. However we must hold our own, and hope and work for better things. Through the kindness of the Dean, acting as Missioner, a Parochial Mission was held at this place in February last, when our own Church people were more firmly established in Church doctrines and Bible truths and others were led to look with greater favor upon the Church and her ways. The Sunday services have been held without interruption with regular celebrations of the Holy Communion. The assessment for Diocesan Missions was $15 and has been paid in full.

All Saints' Church at Kidders Ferry, which was assessed $3, has failed to make any offering for the Missionary work of the Diocese.

The Rev. R. M. Duff, S. T. D., Rector of St. Paul's Church, Waterloo, reports that he has held four Missionary services outside the Parish and twelve within the same, and that he has visited the County House and said prayers there three times. St. Paul's Waterloo, was assessed $150 and has paid $120.76.

Missions of the Diocese—First District.

The Dean reports that, besides conducting a Mission at Hayts Corners, he has celebrated the Holy Communion at Northville and Romulus. At the latter place he baptized two children and one adult. He has made frequent visits to the County House, where he baptized two infants and one adult, and officiated at two funerals.

SIXTH DISTRICT.

The officers of this District are: The Rev. S. H. Synnott, D. D., Dean; the Rev. H. H. H. Fox, Secretary; H. V. Bostwick, Treasurer; The Rev. G. H. McKnight, D. D., and the Treasurer are members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are: In Chemung County—Big Flats, Horseheads, Emmanuel Church, Elmira; Wellsburg, Millport and Van Etten. In Tioga County—Candor, Spencer, Smithboro and Waverly. In Tompkins County—Slaterville Springs, Speedsville, McLean and Trumansburg.

Two meetings of the Convocation have been held during the year, viz.: At St. John's Chapel, Ithaca, July 12th, and Grace Church, Waverly, October 16th and 17th, 1900

Waverly and Smithboro—The Rev. T. A. Stevenson reports that services have been held in each place during the past year without intermission. The attendance at both places has been irregular, except during Lent. The monthly offerings for Diocesan Missions have been taken and the full amount of the assessment, $35 for Missions of the Diocese—Sixth District.

Waverly, and $10 for Smithboro, paid. Last April a pledge system was instituted at Waverly with most gratifying results, the Treasurer reporting a balance each month, with all bills paid. At East an offering of $226 was made, $16 of which was given by the Sunday School, for General Missions.

The Ladies' Guild has cared for the Parish poor. The Waverly offerings in value amounted to $50.

Mr. Stevenson expresses his grateful appreciation of the financial aid given by the Board of Missions.

Emmanuel, Elmira—The Rev. L. B. Thomas, Missionary in Charge, reports steady growth and encouragement, the pledged offering come about three times as large as when he went there. The attendance also has increased considerably. A paid leader has been added to the vested choir. Three hundred and fifty dollars for the mortgage on the lot has been paid, leaving now only $150. Everything is harmonious and all are interested in the work. Services are held in the morning and evening. Communion is administered twice a month. All but 70 cents of the Diocesan Missionary assessment has been paid.

Wellsburg—This Mission is under the Rev. L. B. Thomas, who holds an afternoon service every Sunday. Holy Communion is celebrated once a month. The year has not been a prosperous one, but the people show signs of renewed effort that promises some improvement this summer.

By permission of the Bishop the Missionary was abroad during August, September and October, the Missions being supplied at expense by the Rev. J. H. Griffith and the Rev. W. M. Pettis, D.

St. Mark's, Millport—After being without a Pastor for over a year the Rev. K. G. Heyne was placed in charge here about six months ago. During the interregnum services were conducted by lay communicants of the Parish. Regular offerings have been taken and all assessments have been paid. While there is not much chance of growth owing to removals, etc., the Church members are steadfast and loyal.

The Rector of Grace Church, Elmira, the Rev. W. H. Van Alstyne reports a Mission Station established at Hendy Hollow, five miles from Elmira, under the name of St. Gabriel's. Services were held here every fortnight on Sunday afternoon, and much interest has been shown. Several baptisms have resulted, and on Thanksgiving Day a generous offering of provisions for the poor came from the Missions of the Diocese—Sixth District.

In the year to come greater use of Lay-reading will be made in that work. At St. Agnes' Chapel, Madison Avenue, Elmira, Sunday even song, a Sunday School, and during Advent and Lent a week-night service was maintained.

Groton—Mission Services have been held at Groton by the Rev. E. L. Tanner and Mr. Way of Homer. The outlook there, he reports, is decidedly encouraging, but the distance is so great and the roads so bad during a large part of the year that it is almost impossible for the Minister at Homer to maintain regular services at both places. A branch of the Womans' Auxiliary has been organized at Groton and has already made a remarkable showing, sending away boxes to the value of $55, besides $5.25 in money to Bishop Kinsolving of Texas for his Relief Fund.

Dryden—Cottage services have been held at Dryden by the Rev. Herbert H. H. Fox, Missionary at Slaterville Springs and Speedsville every fortnight, from October 1st to May 1st, on Sunday afternoons. There are a number of earnest, devout communicants here who have worked hard during the winter. The work has met with bitter opposition among our sectarian friends, which, of course, is no new thing. The Missionary has found the roads well nigh impassible during the winter and spring. This, with other things, has led him to give up the service temporarily. If some arrangement could be made whereby a Missionary could be sent to Groton and Dryden, possibly taking in McLean as well, a new and what seems in many ways to be an encouraging field would be opened. All these missions are on the railroad and easily accessible to one another, while Homer and Groton, and Slaterville Springs and Dryden are separated by hard, rough, hilly roads, which in winter are oftentimes impassable.

Slaterville Springs and Speedsville—The Rev. Herbert H. H. Fox entered upon his duties at these two places July 1st. 1900. The services have been well attended and the people are working hard. At Slaterville Springs one service has been held every Sunday. During Lent there were three services a week, which were very well attended. Twenty dollars has been paid for Diocesan Missions and the assessment in full for the General Fund. At Speedsville, from July 1st to October 1st, one service was held every Sunday. From October 1st to May 1st, services were held every fortnight. The Lenten services were poorly attended, largely owing to the very bad roads. Assessments have all been paid here.

Candor, Spencer and Van Etten—The Rev. E. C. Hoskins entered upon his labors in this cure early in May, 1900. He reports hopeful signs of success through the Divine Blessing. There is good feeling in all the places, and despite much opposition in Spencer and Van Etten on account of ignorant prejudice against the Church the work goes on.

For over a year past the Stations at Trumansburg, Big Flats and Horseheads have been without regular services. Hence no report forthcoming from them.

McLean—At McLean the services have been maintained since Jan. 1st, every other Sunday afternoon with hardly any interruption, by the Rev. Messrs. W. W. Way and E. L. Tanner of Cortland and Homer. The Rev. Amos Watkins, who served McLean so long and well, left Cortland early in September and hence for some months the Church was rarely open for worship. The devoted little flock has nevertheless been zealous in good works and is looking forward hopefully.

STEPHEN H. SYNNOTT, D. D., Dean,
HERBERT H. H. FOX, Secretary.

In addition to these reports from the Districts, the Rev. H. V. Allen, Missionary to the Deaf and Dumb in the Diocese of Albany and Central New York, reports that for the quarter ending April 30th, 1901, he has held twenty services in nine of the parishes of the Diocese, with a total attendance of 280; has made fourteen calls on invalid and aged deaf-mutes; and has presented one infant for Holy Baptism and six candidates for Confirmation. The offerings at these services amounted to $22.26, while his expenses amounted to $24. In addition he has received $50 from the Diocese, and a gift of $5 for personal expenses. Speaking of the work, he says: "I think I may venture to say that I now have the work fairly well in hand. I have received all lists of names, books, and papers, from Mr. Dantzer and have visited all the regular mission stations with the exception of Oswego. I have so adjusted my other work in the Diocese of Albany as to give to each Diocese two Sundays in each month. The field which I must cover is so immense, and so much precious time is lost in railroad journeys that I must ask indulgence until I can ascertain the most effective way of arranging my missionary journeys. Then I hope the amount of work accomplished will show a satisfactory increase."

In presenting these reports which are made up largely from the personal statements of those who have in charge the Missionary work of the Diocese, the Board of Managers desires to express its thankfulness to Almighty God for another year of signal blessing.

With the limited means available for the great work of upbuilding and strengthening the Church in the rural districts of our Diocese, it is difficult to see how more effective work could be done.

Yet the fact that almost all our efforts and resources are consumed in the keeping of the Missions we already have, leaving very little for the opening of new fields or more aggressive work, affords ground for serious reflection as to whether some departure from our present policy might not be advantageous.

Two plans suggest themselves :

1. The appointment of a general Missionary to minister to scattered communicants and hold services from time to time in Missions temporarily closed, and whose duty would be to visit the larger parishes and secure greater interest and consequent larger offerings for this great department of our work.
2. The granting of stipends large enough to keep good men in the field, grouping together a sufficient number of Missions to warrant such expenditure.

The report of the treasurer shows a most gratifying condition of the treasury. Yet again it must be noted that but for the surplus carried over from last year, and the fact that the First and Second Districts have raised more than the amount of their assessments, the First District $83.92 and the Second $18.27, the balance left in the treasury would be very small.

We cannot then relax our efforts to increase the offerings for Diocesan Missions as far as possible.

Missions of the Diocese—Report of the Board of Managers.

In conclusion, the Board renews its recommendation of last year that every Sunday School be asked to give at least one offering every year for the Missions of our Diocese.

Respectfully submitted for the Board of Managers,

WM. BOURS CLARKE. Secretary,

D, Treasurer of the Diocese.

SYRACUSE, May, 1901.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York :

The Treasurer of the Diocese herewith submits his Thirty-third Annual report, giving in minute detail an account of all receipts and expenditures.

The two principal items of interest are embraced under the heads of Missions in the Diocese and the General Fund.

The main features of the first are embraced in the report of the Treasurer of the Board of Managers where is shown in detail the entire transactions financially of the Board as carrying on the missionary work of the Diocese. A recapitulation of that report is unnecessary here as reference can readily be had thereto. It is well to state however that of the amount assessed upon the Districts $10,500, but $9,669.13 was contributed leaving a deficit of $830.87. Funds from other sources aggregated $1,702.49, from which was disbursed for stipends to missionaries and sundry expenses therein noted $1,501.89, leaving to the credit of the fund the sum of $869.73 applicable to the payment of stipends for the present quarter. This favorable showing however is not a fair exhibit of the financial condition of the fund during a greater portion of the fiscal year, during which time the Treasurer is required to advance sums ranging from $700 to $1,000 in order to meet demands for stipends falling due. Did parishes remit their full quota of assessment promptly this would be avoided. As the fiscal year closes the contributions to the fund increase, as for instance it will be seen by the monthly reports in the Gospel Messenger that the last month of the year (April) shows an increase of more than three times the amounts received during several other months. Of the six districts contributing to the fund, two have exceeded their assessment by an aggregate of $102.19, while four have failed to forward the amount of their assessment in the aggregate sum of $933.06. Further details of interest will be found in the Treasurer's report to the Board of Managers as previously alluded to and to which reference is recommended.

Regarding the General Fund, the Treasurer would reiterate in part the expressions made by him in his last report touching the effect of the amendment of the Canon regarding the compulsion and forfeit therein imposed for non-compliance therewith. While perhaps the receipts may have been augmented in some degree, the compulsory principle may have had the effect to retard favorable results. The list of Parishes delinquent in meeting their assessments has been prepared in accordance with the provisions of the amended Canon and is in the hands of the Secretary for use by the committee on credentials.

A list of appropriations needed for the present fiscal year has been submitted to the Standing Committee upon which an assessment has been made and which I presume is ready for presentation to the Convention for its action.

In the budget of last year as approved by the committee an item was embraced of $500 for the use of the Bishop for "additional services as required by him." No portion of that amount has been drawn for such services.

The report has been examined by the Committee appointed for the purpose and has been certified to as to its correctness.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE J. GARDNER,

Treasurer of the Diocese

Of the new loans, the security of the Andrews $1,000 consists of four unimproved building lots numbered 24, 46, 99 and 110 on a map of Moeller Place in the City of Binghamton, search of title and map on file with papers; originally taken for another Trust, now transferred to this. Mortgage filed in the county of Broome in book 105, Page 545; Feb. 8, 1898.

The Shapley $300 is that much additional advanced on Binghamton City Real Estate upon which the Fund already had $2,000, the sufficiency of which was commented upon last year. Mortgage filed in Broome County, June 8th, 1900, in Book 115, page 348.

The Delos Church lien is on two village lots in North Susquehanna, Penn., with dwelling upon which there is carried $1,000 of insurance. Mortgage recorded at Montrose, Book 12, Page 75.

That of the Yale loan is her undivided one-half of the family home in the village of Bainbridge. Mortgage recorded Jan. 28, 1901 in Book 126, page 261.

That of the Norris loan is on 105 acres (upon which are the buildings) of the William W. Norris farm in the town of Smithville, being the same farm on which the Fund had a mortgage which was paid off May 22d, 1894. Mortgage recorded in Chenango County, March 12, 1901, in Book 128, page 235.

That of the Root loan is on 260 acres in the town of McDonough, now owned by William M. Miller of Oxford, the Mortgage being re-

N. Registrar's Report.

Since the last Convention the following contributions to the Diocesan Archives have been received:

From the Bishop of the Diocese: 37 Convention Journals of other Dioceses, 25 catalogues and pamphlets and 5 books.

From the Secretary of the Diocese: 66 Journals of other Dioceses and 18 catalogues and pamphlets.

From Rev. A. E. Dunham: Two published sermons.

From Rev. R. H. Cobbs, D. D., Secretary of the Diocese of Alabama: Journals of that Diocese for 1854, '59, '61 and '91.

Various Parish papers have been received and filed, and also sermons, year books and catalogues.

No Journals have been distributed since the last Convention, but several historical investigations have been made at the request of some of the clergy of the Diocese.

An appropriation of $25 has been received from the Treasurer of the Diocese, and 26 volumes of Convention Journals have been bound.

If this appropriation is regularly made a great mass of inaccessible pamphlets will soon give place to a valuable reference library.

Report on Christian Education

A. Report of the Committee on Christian Education.

The Committee on Christian Education beg to report that they have considered as a topic well deserving the attention of the members of this Convention, and of Christian people in general, the nearly universal absence of the spiritual element from the science teaching of our schools and colleges.

A complete education has in view two objects: First, the imparting of such knowledge as will fit the recipients to become good machines; and Second, The imparting to these machines a principle of self-direction and self control. A boy or girl just graduated from one of our high schools or colleges, with well developed technical activities, may be nothing better than a locomotive running wild—dangerously capable.

The development of mere capacity is, your Committee believes, occupying almost exclusively the attention of our educators. The Brooklyn Public Schools rank confessedly high. Notice the directions issued by the Board of Education to the teachers in those schools. In the programme of the course of study adopted in 1895, and amended in 1897, there is a section devoted to manners and morals. It reads thus:

"MANNERS AND MORALS.

"In all grades, teachers should embrace every convenient opportunity to instruct their pupils in morals and manners. The following list of topics will supply basis for many interesting talks:

"Duty to parents, to brothers and sisters, to playmates, to the aged, to the poor and unfortunate, to the ignorant and stupid, to strangers and foreigners, to the public, to one's country.

"Home manners, table manners, school manners, street manners, manners in public assemblies and in public conveyances.

"Industry, punctuality, order, economy, honesty, truthfulness, cleanliness, self-respect.

"Other topics will be suggested to the thoughtful teacher by occurrences that come under her observation in the school room and elsewhere."

Report on Christian Education.

There is much suggested that is excellent. The entire catalog of practical virtues is detailed, but there is no basis suggested any one. The motive power that shall constrain the discharge of these duties is not alluded to.

If you ask the most patient and competent student of the subject of experimental psychology (which proposes to relegate material provocatives, if not to material causes, all the phenomena of emotion and will) what basis he has discovered for Ethics—what reasons his science furnishes for doing what is right and kind for speaking what is true, he will confess to you that thus far experimental psychology has discovered no basis for Ethics at all. In other words the really valuable result has been by most laborious research attained, that if we refer the phenomena of will and emotion, which are the obvious mainsprings of human conduct, to material causes, we have no discoverable reason for insisting on truth, honor and honesty as preferable to their opposites, and as imperatively binding on us, except that experience rather suggests that a truthful, honorable and honest course has been found, on whole, to be better suited to the general good than is one of reverse character.

Not wishing to rest their argument on grounds which might be criticized as purely ecclesiastical, your committee beg to direct attention to the principle invoked by the Masonic body as the motive that shall urge to truth, honor and generosity. That organization inculcates the sublimest charity; and beyond question the manner and degree in which it carries its doctrine into practical effect places it far in advance of any existing section of the Christian Church.

Now the foundation stone of Masonry is belief in God—a belief that is affirmed and reaffirmed. It is never lost sight of. The Bible is the Mason's great source of light and inspiration.

In the directions of the Brooklyn School Board as to the teaching of morals, charity and generosity the word God does not occur.

Imagine some infantine phenomenon of inquisitiveness in the Brooklyn school, desirous, as children frequently are, to penetrate to the fundamental reason of things, enquiring of the teacher "Why are we to be truthful, honest and kind?" The problem, being absent from the curriculum, would be quite perplexing.

Report on Christian Education.

In the Synopsis of the proceedings of the Science Teachers' Association of the State of New York, while the material mechanical conclusions of science are insisted upon as highly important to be made part and parcel of the child's intellectual furniture, the spiritual deductions of science—its grand revelation of that Divinity whose mysterious pathways it endeavors to trace—is a topic not touched upon by a single one of the many able teachers and professors who took part in the proceedings.

There is a demand for science teaching in the schools, and the schools are attempting to meet the demand, not unfrequently cramming pupils to, and, indeed, beyond the point of intellectual investigation. Botany is taught, physiography, physiology. It is well. The infant is instructed to distinguish a petal from a sepal, to understand that flowers are modified leaves, and that the plant forms an organism which gathers its nutriment from the carbon dioxide which floats in the air. He is trained to watch the growth of the seed and to record his observations. But what is he taught about the indwelling Divinity that shapes the leaf and adapts it to discharge its wonderful function, and by his unerring laws constrains the nutritive carbon to find its way to the mouthlets of the leaf, and adapts the mouthlets to receive it; whose angel of light is instructed to paint the petal, and from whom alone the seed derives its capacity to grow?

The child is carefully instructed in physiographic processes. He learns of the triple forms and other marvelous physical properties of water. He can tell of its stupendous work as a heat bearer in the currents of the sea and a fructifier in the clouds of the air. He can talk glibly of evaporation without a particle of wonderment being aroused in his soul. He learns how the ocean waters are wafted on the wings of the wind to drop in refreshing showers upon the sunburnt lands of earth; but he does not learn that the cloud-bearing winds are the cherubs of God. Nothing is set down in his curriculum of that Being, who, by his excellent wisdom, ordained the wondrous relations that subsist between sea and land.

How little have we introduced into our instructive methods that sublime conception of the deep-thinking Greeks, with whom every river had its God, for whom the ocean was filled with the fullness of Infinite Divinity!

Carefully the pupil is instructed that to a distance of $23\frac{1}{2}$ degrees from either pole there is a region of perpetual cold. If he does not know this how could he hope to pass that infallible standard of knowledge—the Regents' examination? But is the idea ever presented to him that the eternal icebergs and the ageless snow fields are chaunting in silent solemnity an everlasting anthem of praise to the God who gave them their eternity? Is the thought, in other words, suggested that the twin regions of perpetual cold are divinely ordered means for maintaining from equator poleward and back the vastly important circulation of the atmosphere? That by their agency, as the "Preacher" tells so well, "The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits?"

Report on Christian Education.

It may be thought that such conceptions suit the pulpit and the Sunday School, but not the day school, or the manly Professor's chair. If, however, we compare the sublimest, most intensely religious interpretations of nature ever given with those of pure science we shall find that they agree completely.

In the wild flowers that glow in the fields of Judea the Saviour recognized indwelling divinity. It is God, he says, that clothes them with beauty, that weaves from vapor and air a garment surpassing in texture and radiance the costliest robe that king can wear.

What keen discernment is here of the wonderful process by which the plant uplifts the mere material, gives shape to the formless and splendor of tint to atoms that cannot be felt or seen!

Grandeur yet than this, because distinctly containing the idea that the phenomena of nature are suggestive and predictive of God's sublimest purposes, is Christ's magnificent interpretation of the thunder roll which startled the men of Jerusalem shortly before his crucifixion. Some, hearing naught but noise, said, "It thundered." Others more truly suggested, "An angel spake to Him." So he himself, employing the magnificent Hebrew appellation for thunder, "the voice of the Lord," he said: "This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes." And then he gives his own sublime interpretation of the phenomenon. It came to his soul (forecasting now the suffering by which he should be made perfect as the Captain of Salvation and the conquerer of ill) as a pregnant suggestion of the consummation of His work. "Now," he said, "is the judgment of this world." Presently shall occur, when I shall be uplifted on the cross, the complete condemnation of sin. Presently shall begin that work whose issue shall be the utter destruction of evil. Even now in those thunder tones is there promise of the crushing overthrow of the sovereignty of the Prince of this world.

Report on Christian Education.

It will be remembered that in the grand vision seen by St. John of the establishment of the complete dominion of the One who sat with rainbow crown upon the throne, sin, Satan and death being utterly destroyed and all things living (the wild and the tame, those roaming the earth or eagle-like soaring through air, those guided by instinct or by intelligence alike) joining in one universal hymn of adoration; out of the throne proceed lightnings and thunderings and voices. They are symbolic of resistless, undisputed sovereignty.

Similar to the Saviour's interpretation of Nature is that offered by St. Paul. "We know", he says, "that the whole creation, made subject to purposelessness," as it has been "groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now." It is, he explains, looking for emancipation from its subjection. "For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth" with longing hope for its glorious share in the manifested redemption of the sons of God. Nature, he insists, is grandly prophetic. So in the bare grain assuming its exquisitely beautiful plantal form the same Apostle perceives a forcetful analogy to the resurrection. The processes of life are processes of realized hope, symbols sublime of hopes that are grander yet.

In other words, Christianity definitely teaches us to look upon the composite phenomena of the natural world as a marvellous evolution from the low toward the lofty, out of the mean toward the grand, out even from the grand to something grander yet, something nobler than human thought, with all the sublimity of poetic hope, can conjecture or describe, a goal of glorified attainment of which eye hath seen nauhgt—"ear hath not heard neither can it enter into the heart of man to conceive."

But however lofty this Christian interpretation of the natural world—the scientific interpretation is no less grand. There is magnificent correspondence between the two. Review the momentous changes in the material world revealed by the study of geology, the deposition of the layer rocks at the bottom of the primeval ocean, their wondrous uplift above the waters, the growth of coal forests over areas probably covering millions of square miles, the mysterious processes by which those forests were transformed into the fuel which to-day yields up the force absorbed from a sun which shone a million centuries ago; the mighty upheaval of the vast mountain chains which were to be earth's great rain makers, the establishment of such ocean rivers as the gulf stream and its companions to perform their extraordinary functions as distributors of heat—what are all these but fragments of a grand preparation of the material world for something grander? for, plantal, animal, human life as they are? And if we examine the life record of the past, it is most clearly a story of progressive advancement. Invertebrate fossils alone are to be discovered in the earlier rocks. Later on the low vertebrates appear, reptiles follow the fish; but only in recent geologic ages are the highest forms introduced. What an advance is marked when the crudest vertebrate makes its appearance! What a succession of advances follows until the introduction of man forms the grand consummation. The past has ever contained the promise of the future, the present has ever been the glorification of the past. Things that have been, have been ever predictive of better things to come.

The Botanist watches a similar progression in the life-history of every individual plant that grows. What is the activity of vegetable forms but the working of a transmuting, uplifting, glorifying power--the all-soul inspiring the soulless, rendering earthly in a most true sense divine?

It was one of the exquisitely beautiful conceptions of the Middle Age thinkers that the spirituality which had moulded the form of a withered flower could not become extinct. Like all that is in the vine the soul of a rose must, they thought, live eternally. Through proper alchemistic processes it could be caused to manifest its shadowy presence.

And if it be true--as true we know it is--that "in God we live and move and have our being;" that we live only because we live in Him and He in us. Why must this not also be true of the plant? Certainly thus much we must concede that in it, as in ourselves, there is an indwelling, uplifting force that works toward something grand. The student of embryonic development does nothing, may be said, but observe a series of transitions in which that which is formless and lifeless passes onward and upward, until it manifests at length the phenomena of physical activity and the more marvellous phenomena of reason, emotion and will.

Progression then may be fairly stated to be one of the fundamental facts revealed by scientific investigation. Contemplating the past and applying his own specific method of reasoning to the future, taking the strictly scientific ground that the future must be analogous to the past, the scientific thinker demands as the logically necessary completion of what he here observes, some grander advancement for man hereafter. The progressive past must be only preparation and a forecast of a future more nobly progressive. That progression should be transient and fragmentary, that it should be not merely interrupted, but forever arrested by the phenomenon called death is not scientifically logical. The logic science is that "the thing that has been is the thing that shall be." It requires that the progression of the present must be eternal—incapable of arrest.

In the whole world of poetic thought no illustration of the progressive destiny of the human soul is to be found that compares in aptness and beauty with that supplied to us by the abstruse mathematical theorem of the asymptotes of the hyperbola—the lines that forever approach but never meet. It is not merely an illustration. It is indeed a mathematical expression, an equation of that reasonable expectation which the scientific man reaches through the leadings of his science. Like the line that forever and ever draws near, yet never can blend with its companion line is the human soul—halt-ingly here, unrestingly hereafter—sluggishly now, with angel force hereafter, winging its flight into regions nearer and ever more near to "the Light that no man hath seen or can see" yet destined never to blend with its beams of infinite splendors. But what does progression either in the material world or in the world of life and thought imply?

If things are ceaselessly advancing toward a goal must it not be that a goal has been primevally fixed; must it not be that a force within things is designedly urging them toward that goal—a force that is no mere dead desire but a living will, not a spasmodic impulse but a perpetually working Divinity? In other words is not continuous progression explicable only on the supposition of purpose?

That there is adaptation, or rather that the universe is filled with adaptation, that the relations of matter to matter, whether they be chemical or physical, the relations of inanimate nature to animate, the relations of living things one to another, and the parts of living things each to each constitute one interminable tissue of adaptations is admitted by all. Such adaptations are recognized as the warp and the woof of that fabric of surpassing beauty with which all nature is enrobed.

But not alone does Science recognize adaptation. It is her specific function, her noblest glory to reveal it, to force its recognition upon every thinking mind. Take away what science has to say about the marvels of adaptation, and you leave her without a story to tell, you take from her the spell more potent than magic with which she enchants the wrapt intelligence of man. Guyot, one of our profoundest physiographers, entitled his book "Earth and Man". It was his definite aim to indicate the interaction of the one upon the other—their mutual adaptations. Every treatise on Biology is full of the correlations of living things—plants and animate forms alike—to their surroundings. What indeed is the theory of evolution, but the idea that organisms have been eternally impelled to seek correspondence with their external conditions? Failure to survive is interpreted as inability to attain such correspondence.

Follow the paleontologist as he resurrectionizes antique forms of life, and reviews their strange appearances and disappearances, their birthdays and their burials. These come into existence, he tells you, because at such an epoch terrestrial conditions were adapted to their peculiar mode of life. Those perish because they ceased to be in harmony with conditions. There was an age when fishes first began to dart through the waves, because anterior to that special age conditions did not exist which fish life demands. An age of reptiles and an age of birds succeed because conditions arise in earth and sea and air which are adapted to reptilian and birdlife. At length are evolved the highest forms, with man as the masterpiece, coming last rather than first simply because conditions were not earlier ripe. Earth was not in correspondence with the life that man was destined to live. It is fully agreed that things material, and living things are definitely constituted so to interact as to produce invariably certain results, that the contents of earth are one vast system of means adapted to ends.

It may be claimed that all this implies nothing more than adaptation. There are probably some who, on supposed scientific grounds, would hesitate to conclude that because there is adaptation there must be purpose.

But must not the two go together? Are they, as the case stands, logically separable? Were the instances of adaptation solitary or spasmodic it would be one thing. But there is neither sparseness nor intermittency here. Adaptation is like deity itself, omnipresent in space and time. It is everywhere, and always is. Can we, then, rationally affirm that the contents of the world are and always have been so related to one another, as that their interaction must invariably bring about certain results, and at the same time affirm that this has come about without a definite purpose, establishing and maintaining such invariability?

In view of the fact, for example, that the elements of the atmosphere are confessedly adapted to the support of both animal and plantal life, while at the same time each of these diverse forms of life is possessed of such selective capacity as that, without the exercise of will, it appropriates to itself that element which is adapted to its requirements. When we find the plant so constituted as that it feeds on what would be destructive to animal life, and rejects what animal life requires, can we logically deny that the atmosphere has been purposely constituted as it is. Can we suppose that having in ancient geologic ages been constituted so as to sustain other organic forms it has received its present constitution without some intelligent direction? Could it be insisted that while the eye is adapted, by its nerves and mechanical appliances and self-adjusting capacities to receive impressions of light from the outer world, and to convey such impressions to the thinking brain, that thinking brain having the capacity to translate such physical impressions into intellectual conceptions; and while on the other hand, the infinitesimal vibrations of the luminous ether are adjusted with mathematical precision to produce upon the retina impressions of an almost infinite variety of colors and shades, that nevertheless these marvelous correlations of eye to light and light to eye, nerve to light-wave and lightwave to nerve, and of all and each to the thinking soul can have arisen without design? That such relations, in other words, were established by the effecting cause, name that effecting cause what we will, without any forecasting intention? That it stumbled to the result? Or, again, consider the reciprocal adaptations of the organs of voice to the medium of sound, and of this to the organs of speech and of both to the organs of hearing—Can we suppose that while the vocal cords are precisely adapted by their tenuity and elasticity so to vibrate under the influence of the human breath as to communicate absolutely definite, yet marvelously complex, vibrations to the outer air, that outer air being likewise adapted to receive and transmit such vibrations with mathematical exactitude, and the nervous system of the ear being adapted to receive them from the outer vibrating air, to translate them into impressions of sound and transmit them to the brain—that brain being adapted to interpret their rational import. Can all this series of astoundingly intricate adjustments have possibly been established without the result having been an eternal preconception and purpose in the mind of some infinitely intelligent cause?

When, again, we consider the relation of the universe and its contents to the development of the intellectual capacities of human beings the vast succession of problems and difficulties presented to man while struggling for his promised dominion over all material things, the ennobling perplexities which he has encountered and surmounted while investigating the laws of matter and force—perplexities the solution of which has brought his intelligence into the closest kinship with divinity itself. Does not the conclusion overwhelmingly impress us that between the intellect that can study and the universe that can be studied there is a correlation that needs must owe its origin to thoughts and purposes sublime—divine?

Report on Christian Education.

If while admitting adaptation we deny purpose, what is the alternative explanation? We are not far from the dogma that the adjustment of the parts of the universe one to another is the result of blind chance. In fact purposeless adaptation is blind chance. We shall, however, no doubt be reminded that scientific facts have led to the abandonment of the old doctrine of special or specific design. This is freely granted, and it is moreover insisted that religion and philosophic thought are under profound obligation to science for the immensely valuable modification of the teleological views of non-scientific ages which exact research has suggested.

The dogma was long ago held as tenaciously as if it were an infallible revelation that everything that is was created for a specific purpose.

Unquestionably there are abundant facts upon which such a dogma might seem to rest immovably firm. The organs of special sense are marvelously suggestive of such a theory, and to a person taking only a general or a fragmentary view of the relations of things it would appear almost a necessary deduction.

Yet, like every argument that claims too much, it is weak. Full observation, more complete acquaintance with the details of the organic world have shown that in its old form, the dogma of teleology, that everything has a specific purpose, cannot be held.

It may, perhaps, be said that many things which have no specific purpose have a specific explanation; and that in some mode and degree they are related to a grand comprehensive purpose; but it is neither profitable nor possible to maintain that everything is for some ascribable or even conceivable purpose.

When the man who has entertained this view is seized with the symptoms of appendicitis, submits to an operation, and finds himself all the better and none the worse for the loss of his curious appendix vermiformis, he rapidly remodels his teleological conceptions. He simply cannot believe that there was any specific purpose in the process by which that organ was developed in his body, he cannot suppose that it was there to perform any supposable function.

Shocked it may be at finding something utterly useless in a mechanism which he had hitherto conceived to be perfect—with nothing lacking, nothing excessive—how is his reverent soul relieved when he learns that the organ in question is a survival or reminiscence in his structure of that which did serve a definite purpose in an antecedent form of life to which his own anatomy is indeed vastly superior, but to which it is, beyond all doubt, very closely akin. More grandly than ever before he recognizes the oneness of the plan of life, more depth of meaning than ever before he sees in the poet's words, "He liveth well who loveth well all things, both great and small."

A like revolution in our teleological views is forced upon us when we attempt to ascribe some use to the undeveloped mammary organs of the male, or test our ingenuity upon the problem which Darwin found so perplexing: What is the final cause and purpose of the tuft that bedecks the turkey cock's breast? Or when, rising to regions of higher thought, we contemplate our companion planets, no one of which can possibly be inhabited by beings like ourselves, and ask, "What are they for?"

Furnishing to us in her theory of evolution an explanation of the appendix and of other superfluous organs, science enables us at the same time to correct and vastly to amend our teleological views. She does not say, "Abandon as untenable the doctrine of purpose." She does not advocate—rather she revolts from the idea that the adaptations of the universe are the results of chance. For example, the comparative biologist discovers certain singular differences in the embryonic development of the several tribes of vertebrates. In the fish two aortas branch from the heart, one to the right, the other to the left. In the embryo bird and mammal both these vessels come into existence in an early stage of embryonic life; but in the bird only the right aorta is persistent and appears in the adult form, in the mammal only the left. The development of the one or the other in each case is invariably arrested. The vessel, having distinctly come into existence, as clearly ceases to be.

In attempting to explain these extraordinary phenomena the biologist never dreams that they are accidents. Basing upon them, as he does, one of his most cogent arguments in favor of evolution, he does not therefore deny—he, on the contrary, insists that such facts give distinctive witness of design. His explanation of these phenomena is that, for reasons not easy to define, it is best for the purposes of fish-life that there should be two aortas; it is best for the purposes of bird-life that there should be one only, and that it should be upon the right side of the body; it is best for the purposes of mammal life that there be only one, but that it should be on the left side. He feels convinced that there are good and sufficient reasons for the peculiarity of every case. He merely cannot discover what these reasons are. In a word, the biologist exercises a little of that faith which is erroneously supposed to be the exclusive function of the religionist.

The scientific man dismisses the supposition of blind chance on mathematical and logical principle. He asks, "Can these features which adapt the animal to his environment be the of chance, when, as matter of fact, they always occur? Repurrence diminishes the possibility of chance in geometric tion. Invariable occurrence absolutely excludes it.

The fundamental conception of chance is that the pher sometimes occurs; many times does not. A chance that chances to happen loses its random character. It is w scientific man denominates a law.

But even the erratic phenomena that unthinkingly we as accidents are not referred by the scientific man to chan only apology for ever employing the word is that it is a cor term for unknown law.

In corroboration of what has been said as to the deduc science and its interpretation of nature your committee cit marks with which Lord Salisbury, when President of the Association for the Advancement of Science, closed his ad that body in 1894:

"I shelter myself in this matter," he said, "behind the ju of the greatest living master of natural science among u Kelvin, and I quote the striking language with which he ch address from this chair more than twenty years ago. "I f foundly convinced," he said, "that the argument of design h greatly too much lost sight of in recent zoological speculations. poweringly strong proofs of intelligent and benevolent design lie us; and if ever perplexities, whether metaphysical or scientij us away from them for a time they come back upon us with irre force, showing to us through nature the influence of a free u teaching us that all things living depend on one Everlasting and Ruler " meeting of the British Association for the Advancement of Science it appears to your committee altogether appropriate to be taught in our schools. What Lord Kelvin insists upon can hardly be unmanly—certainly not unscientific.

It cannot, indeed, be maintained that everything occurring in the world of nature is a direct result of a specific divine intention that it shall occur, nor can it be said that everything is for some specific use. On the other hand it must be maintained, and it should undoubtedly be employed as an element of Christian education, that there is throughout the universe an all-pervading, magnificently comprehensive design, infinite and eternal in its scope, transcending in its fulness the sublimest capacity of man to trace or to fathom, and yet so simple in what we may call its dearer manifestations that a child may discern and understand them as readily as he could the precepts traced by the finger of God upon the Mosaic tablets of stone.

A fine illustration of what your committee mean by a clear manifestation of purpose is furnished by the very extraordinary phenomenon of human language.

This is, beyond question, one of the mightiest evidences that "there is a spirit in man, and that the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding." That in the gift of language, which absolutely differentiates man from lower animal forms, there was the definite design of the Creator that man should be able to communicate thought and feeling—that human beings should exert upon one another the marvelous and manifold interaction which forms so largely the life of man; that soul should enter and interpenetrate soul; that thoughts supremely grand, conveyed in speech, should touch, like Seraph's burning coal, one and another darkened intelligence, and kindle therein a refulgence all divine is as undeniable as that man was intended to live. It is explicable only as one of the unspeakably magnificent methods whereby the purposeful Creator designs to draw the finite ever nearer and nearer to his own Infinity.

Well spoke an ancient thinker, "The fool hath said in his heart, 'There is no God.'" The fact that he says what he says—his use of words and his capacity to think them contain in themselves absolute disproof of what he affirms.

Language lessons are prescribed in our schools. Are they not commonly "Vox et praeterea nil?" Grammar, parsing, inflection, construction—all are more or less badly taught. But where do we find in the books employed or in the instruction given a suggestion that words are proofs of a soul in man and of a divine intelligence, whose breath it is that makes that soul to live, to think, to feel, to speak?

Thousands of cases equally clear, "lie," as Lord Kelvin says, "around us."

In view of the foregoing your Committee offer the following, not as a resolution, but as a suggestion, viz.: "That the clergy might do good service to the cause of Christian Education if they would make a practice of visiting the public schools from time to time, and point out in addresses to pupils some of the surpassingly beautiful provisions of the natural world which reveal to us divinely intelligent purpose.

Your Committee believe that the question so constantly asked by children, "What is it for?" is the expression of a conviction innate in man, a conviction parallel in origin and character to the conception of truth and falsehood. That is to say that it is one of the axiomatic principles of the human soul to believe that things are for something. They feel sure that by the course suggested this instructive conviction could be developed with good results.

Report on Sunday School Work.

R. Report of the Committee on Sunday School Work.

In the Diocesan Convention of 1895, held in Trinity Church, Watertown, the Rev. J. H. La Roche read the report of the Committee on Christian Education, to which was appended the following resolution, which was adopted: "Resolved that a committee be appointed, to be called the committee on Sunday School Work in the Diocese of Central New York, consisting of five members, the duty of said committee to be to suggest plans for Teachers' Institutes, to make provision for an annual Convention of teachers and workers, and to consider such other matters as may properly come before it."

The Chair appointed as such Committee the Rev. B. Schulte, D. D., the Rev. W. B. Clarke, the Rev. J. H. La Roche, Mr. John V. Needham and Mr. W. H. Moore.

The present committee appointed at the Convention of 1900 held two meetings in Syracuse and one in Utica.

At the first meeting, after an examination of the resolution of the Convention of 1896, under which they were appointed, they decided that as five years had elapsed since the adoption of this resolution and the appointment of the Committee on Sunday School Work without any report on Sunday Schools having been presented, it would be best for the present committee to confine their attention to an inquiry into the general condition of Sunday Schools in the Diocese, leaving to subsequent Committees the duty of dealing with particular departments of Sunday School work.

Reckless charges of incompetency have been made, from time to time, against Sunday Schools, very often by those whose knowledge of the same has been obtained at second-hand; therefore your Committee sought information directly from the Sunday Schools themselves.

With a view of securing definite facts for this report the Committee prepared a series of questions which they hoped would elicit the desired information. These, with a brief explanatory statement, were sent to every Parish and Mission Station reported in the JOURNAL of 1900, (with the exception of seven, where the address of the Minister in charge was unknown), with a request that they be filled out and returned, and asking for suggestions. The Committee are grateful to all who so cheerfully responded, but regret that many utterly ignored their request. Under these circumstances it is hardly necessary to say that the present Committee is not prepared to suggest plans for the Teachers' Institutes, or to make provision for an annual Convention of teachers and workers. Instead, we beg to submit to this Convention a brief abstract of the replies received, which covers some of the more important questions submitted, with some comments which they naturally suggest.

Of course, many important details in the order and general management of Sunday Schools which have an important bearing upon the success of Sunday School work we have been compelled to omit. These details, however, require to be worked out by each school for itself. If we have drawn conclusions from inadequate and imperfect data, the responsibility belongs to those who, by ignoring our request for information, declined to co-operate with us in our effort to secure an honest statement of the actual condition of Sunday School work in the Diocese. Questions were sent to 139 Parishes and Mission Stations. Sixty-six of these made no reply, seventy-two returned answers, some of these arriving as late as the middle of last month, although sent out about five months earlier.

These 72 report, Superintendents, Clerical, 36; Lay, 25; Teachers, male, 77; female, 450.

Average attendance from two-thirds to three-fourths of the whole number enrolled.

With the exception of three or four schools, all meet about noon and one hour constitutes the length of the session, with from twenty to forty minutes given to the lesson—the average being about thirty minutes.

With few exceptions the Book of Common Prayer and the Church Hymnal furnish the devotions for the opening and closing exercises.

A very general effort has been made to introduce the graded system, but only with partial success, on account, principally, of the difficulty of securing a proper series of Sunday School lessons adapted to that purpose, and because of the impossibility of finding a sufficient number of competent teachers.

Four schools report regular examinations on the Church Catechism.

Seven, examinations on the general lessons, while fifty-two report no examinations held.

Seven hold regular teachers' meetings; fifty-three hold none.

Most of the schools report their scholars baptized—the unbaptized being a small minority.

Report on Sunday School Work.

Some schools report (within the last three years) all their candidates for confirmation as gathered from the Sunday School, while others say none have been so received; but the average number of the Confirmed who pass through our Sunday Schools is about fifty per cent.

Some of the schools hold special services on the important festivals of the Church; a few have a regular Church Service weekly in connection with the Sunday School; others hold such a service with catechising monthly; but the great majority do not seem to have any service of worship for the children beyond the brief devotional services at the opening and closing of the school and only a small proportion of the younger children ever attend the regular Church services.

One school closes for two weeks in the year; two schools close for four weeks in the year; eleven schools close for eight weeks or more; thirty-three do not close throughout the year.

Twelve schools report no Sunday School library, fifty schools have libraries, but some of the former have the use of other libraries while some of the latter report their libraries as not in use.

Eighteen schools do not distribute any Sunday School papers or magazines, fifty distribute papers of seven different kinds.

Thirteen schools take offerings for Diocesan Missions or some other special object; twenty-eight taken a Lenten offering for General Missions, and twenty-two consume all their own offerings.

Many replies have been received in answer to the question: "What; in your opinion, is the greatest need of the Sunday School?" some of them vague, some dealing only with local conditions, and many Superintendents declined to answer the question because they considered the needs too numerous to mention. Later in this report this matter is considered more fully.

Sixty-eight Sunday Schools report 48 different leaflets or textbooks in use. With this closes, practically, the abstract of reports received. We will now examine these answers in order.

Seventy-two Schools report thirty-six Clerical and twenty-five Lay Superintendents.

It ought to be taken for granted that the Rector or Minister in charge is the Superintendent of his own Sunday School. He has no right to hand over the spiritual direction of his school to a Lay Superintendent, however wise and godly he may be. Of course this rule does not apply in the case of Sunday Schools that cannot possibly secure Clerical oversight. Further, when the Rector or Minister cannot be present, as must often happen where he has the charge of two or more places, he should put the school under the Superintendence of some godly Lay man or woman acting under his direction. And, although the Superintendent of his own School, there seems to be no good reason why he should not appoint a Superintendent to assist him in the details of the Sunday School work. The services of such a person can be used by him to the great advantage of the School and to his own relief, without any surrender of his spiritual and special prerogatives. It appears as if some of the Clergy were afraid to avail themselves of this Lay help, although theoretically believing in the priesthood of the Laity.

We think it is a mistake for a Missioner, where he has two or more places to look after, especially if they be rural, to try to keep up in all the places the Sunday Schools as distinct organizations in addition to the occasional Church services there held. Teachers cannot well be procured, and when procured will be generally found incompetent. He might better get the children to attend the regular Church service with the congregation, catechise them in public and then, if it seems best, dismiss them before the sermon. This seems the proper place to call attention to the catechetical system of instruction which a few parishes prefer as a substitute for the usual Sunday School system in vogue.

This system is well worthy of an investigation, and might safely and easily be tried by any Rector, distressed because of a lack of teachers.

The large disproportion between male and female teachers, about as one to six, calls for an arousing of the male conscience in our several Parishes.

This disproportion shows a lamentable lack of interest on the part of men in Sunday School work, and partly explains, perhaps, the fact that many of our candidates for the Ministry received their first marked religious impulses in other Christian bodies. We may, by way of explanation, say humorously, "As soon as they began to think they begin to look for the Church." Nevertheless the fact remains that in their case the first impulse to think religiously, the first desire towards a definite religious choice was not acquired with us, and there is cause for humiliation in this fact. In spite of our claim to the term, "the Church," we seem to be a debtor to ~~sectarianism~~ for much new blood. This is not the time to discuss this question at length, yet the lack of interest in Sunday School work in general

Report on Sunday School Work.

On the part of numbers of the adult members in our Church, especially of our men, in comparison with sectarian bodies is a humiliating and lamentable fact. Possibly we sometimes mistake the accessories and accidents of religion for its real and vital essence. Possibly we do not sufficiently seek to win the affections of our young male communicants for God. It is much easier to gain the heads of our men than their hearts. We need prophets and priests who are fishers of men. One Lay Superintendent, in this connection, says, "We need more interest by the men. So far as I can learn there is practically no interest taken in Sunday Schools by the men of our Parishes." It is a reproach on our Wardens, Vestrymen and male members generally that the great majority of them never show interest enough in the Sunday School, even to visit it occasionally, or even to make inquiry of the Rector concerning its progress, much less to teach therein. They ignore it as consistently as if they considered it a rival organization to the Parish, although, in fact, it is one of the chief feeders of the life of the Parish. To those whose interest in the welfare of the Parish includes the Sunday School their attitude is incomprehensible.

Probably about fifty per cent. of our Sunday Schools take special offerings, in addition to the regular offerings for their own support. It would seem as if all our Sunday Schools ought to take at least an annual offering in Lent for General Missions. It is not good for Sunday Schools, no less than for individuals, to live only for themselves. Such selfishness must be followed by bad results on the future life of the Parish, and Parishes need not complain if they have to reap of that which they have sown.

It is not possible to estimate with any reasonable certainty the average attendance because of imperfect returns, e. g. one school reports average attendance 170 but does not state the number of scholars enrolled; another reports the number of scholars 368, but does not give the average attendance, while many make a rough guess at it.

Probably the average is about two-thirds of the whole number; although in some cases the average is much lower; as e. g.

"	160,	"	"	80
"	110,	"	"	40

Two of these schools show considerably less than half the scholars attending, one exactly half, and the fourth, only a little better than half. These four schools are in cities where the temptation to move about, rather than the hinderance of bad roads, is felt. But it may indicate also a very lax supervision on the part of the officers of the Sunday School over their scholars and a general neglect of visitation. There seems to be no systematic visiting by the teachers. Here and there some conscientious teacher looks up the scholars, and the parents of the same; but as the time of the teachers is generally very fully occupied throughout the week, they find little opportunity or inclination for visitation. Out of all the schools reporting only seven make any systematic effort through the teachers to visit the scholars; and of these seven, some answer "yes" with qualifications. So, too, with very few exceptions, there are no regular classes for the preparation and instruction of teachers; many Rectors and superintendants reporting the difficulty or impossibility of getting the teachers together for that purpose. The Sunday School Commission of the Diocese of New York is devoting its attention just now principally to the preparation of teachers; by recommending to them proper books for study and by supplying experts on teaching, who instruct them by lectures and otherwise. The Secretary of this Commission writes: "The important feature of our work has been that of the Teachers' Training Classes; for we have felt most strongly that this is the first point of attack."

This whole matter is now before us when we come to examine the replies received in answer to the last question on the "Report Blank" sent out by your Committee. "What in your opinion is the greatest need of the Sunday School?". The principle answers may be summarized as follows: Three express preference for the Catechetical System; twenty-three, a more general conviction in our Church of the importance of the Sunday School, and consequently a greater and more practical interest shown in it by our adult members generally and by parents in particular.

Twenty-three plead for good teachers, and training classes for them, while many others find the most pressing need to be for a series of progressive studies adapted to the graded system, issued by the authority of the general Convention or by the Diocese. It is interesting to note that while all confess the shortcomings of the Sunday Schools not one suggests their abolishment.

Here then are the three pressing needs of the Sunday Schools:

- (a) Good teachers, and classes for their preparation and instruction.
- (b) A uniform system of progressive studies adapted to the graded system, and issued by proper authority.

Report on Sunday School Work.

- (c) The Parish as a whole feeling more interest in and responsibility for the Sunday School.

The teachers feel the need of instruction and many of them would prefer to be learners themselves. The multiplicity of text books and leaflets is a weariness to flesh and spirit. Under such circumstances there can be no pretence of any general unity of teaching in the Sunday Schools of our Diocese. Until we can have a general system of lessons from which examination papers can be made out applicable to every school in the Diocese, there can be no real unity of teaching, or enthusiasm for study. Sixty-eight Sunday Schools report forty-eight different text-books or leaflets in use, although all deal with three text books only--the Church Catechism, the Book of Common Prayer, and the Bible. Why, e. g., should the children in the Sunday schools of Syracuse or Elmira require a text-book different from that in use in Utica? Or why, e. g., should any one parish in Utica require a different text-book from that of any other? The fact is, every Rector, Minister-in-charge, or Superintendent is left to his own will in this matter. As far as our Sunday Schools are concerned the system of study is thoroughly congregational or sectarian, which many of us think is a serious error, if not misfortune, and, of course, under these circumstances, Sunday School leaflets abound--good, bad and indifferent.

One rector, replying to the question as to the needs of the Sunday Schools, writes:

"Answers in instruction books and leaflets should be complete sentences as far as they go. No fool answers such as yes, no, God, Abraham, etc., by which is taught and learned nothing. The stupidest questions and answers abound in Sunday School question books. They would not be tolerated in secular schools. They are provoking to teachers who desire to accomplish something.

Impossible to do much more than 'go through the motions' with incompetent and too youthful teachers, who should themselves be scholars, yet practically impossible to obtain others. Panaceas in plenty presented in the papers and magazines; however good in one School," "and set of circumstances, good for nothing in others." Another Superintendent, a layman, writes in answer to the same question: 1st. A five years' course of instruction in four grades, upon a plan similar to the Blakeslee series, but following the Church year. It should be compiled by men and women who are accustomed to modern methods of teaching in secular or day schools. It should not embody the catechism, which should be taught to children of ten to twelve years, in a class by themselves. This series should be followed by a sixth year upon Church doctrines, etc., for those ready for confirmation; and perhaps a seventh for Bible classes. 2nd. A recognition of the fact that it is easier to influence boys and girls, and get them started right, than to get careless men and women to listen."

These sentiments by a clerical and a lay-superintendent express the convictions of many better teachers and some system of preparation and instruction for them; a better and more uniform system of progressive Sunday School lessons; and the practical manifestation of a more general interest on the part of the Church in Sunday School work—these are the three chief needs. Is it too much to hope that some day we may have a system of graded text books in our Sunday Schools issued by the authority of the General Convention or by the Diocese, on the Church Catechism, the Book of Common Prayer, Church Doctrine and the Holy Bible?

Is it too much to hope that some day Central New York may be able to make some provision for the training of its Sunday School teachers as does the Diocese of New York? Is it too much to hope that our adult members may become as much interested in our Church Sunday Schools as sectarians are in theirs?

A good representative committee of our lay-teachers, which, if it be thought best, might include all our Sunday School teachers with their clergy, could meet in their several Convocations to consider one or more of these three important needs; after which all the Convocations could meet together as a whole or by delegates, and agree on a common report to be presented to the Bishop. Even if on one subject only, say e. g., that of Sunday School leaflets, were to be considered, much good might follow. Possibly they might prefer to adopt for the present necessity some series of lessons already in use, and if approved by the Bishop might be recommended to the Sunday Schools of the Diocese as a whole. The great multiplicity of Sunday School lessons has become somewhat of a nuisance, so much so that a drastic measure forbidding the use of any text book in our Sunday Schools except the Church Catechism, the Book of Common Prayer and the Bible, although it might for a time seriously embarrass some Sunday Schools, and put much additional work on the Rector, Superintendent and Teachers, it would in the end hasten the day of deliverance from this confusing flood of instruction papers, not inaptly termed a "plague", which reflect the narrow doctrinal views of the "School" Churchman, instead of coming with the stamp of catholicity and authority of the whole Church. Our Church stands for a faith distinctive and definite, why should not all our Sunday Schools study from one common series of texts?

books? Imagine the confusion in our public schools which would result if each district school were free to choose its own text books! In spite of these defects and others which might be enumerated, the Sunday School in the majority of our parishes continues to be the chief feeder of the Church, directly as the recruiting ground for the Confirmation classes and indirectly by putting the Pastor in communication with families who otherwise would remain unknown to him, thus enlarging the sphere of his missionary activities. To gather the children to God and His Church in Baptism and Confirmation so that they may become Communicants and devout worshippers in God's house, loyal members of the Protestant Episcopal Church and consistent everyday followers and imitators of Christ, that is the purpose of the Sunday School with us, nothing less and nothing more.

The need of definite religious instruction for the young is an imperative one, more especially because this need is not felt by the general Protestant public. The family altar is largely a thing of the past. Family life in these days generally lacks this center of religious unity, as far as the general condition of our American life is concerned. The Church may as well concede and face the fact that many parents impart no religious instruction to their children, much less influence them in a religious way; and if the Church does not give them this necessary instruction, they are not likely to receive it elsewhere. The public schools have eliminated everything distinctively Christian, if not religious, from their curriculum—so that even a Pagan could hardly find fault with our public schools unless on the ground of their secularity. It is even a mooted question whether our National Hymn can now be sung in its entirety in our public schools, without incurring the penalty of the law, and the displeasure of the majority of our School Commissioners, because God's name is mentioned therein.

It used to be the custom in this city to close our public schools on the day that holds in sacred memory the Crucifixion of our Redeemer, but such a custom seemed to assume that this is a Christian country, and so orders went forth that this permission is revoked. Now the state or city graciously permits us to keep our children from school on that day if we so desire for which permission we ought to be duly and devoutly thankful. Under these circumstances we cannot hope to secure for our children any religious instruction in the public schools.

The Roman Catholic and the Lutheran Churches gather many of their children into parochial schools, where religion is made an important part of their school education; but so far as our church is concerned after meeting the necessities of our Churches and gratifying the decorative tastes of our congregations, nothing remains for parochial schools. All these causes combine in making the Sunday School an absolute necessity for the large majority of our children. Surely then the Church has a right to claim the means, thought and time of her members to this subject. Surely it is a matter of reproach that the Wardens and Vestrymen and adults generally in our parishes are shamefully indifferent to the importance of this work of the Church for her children in the Sunday Schools. We append no resolutions to this report, preferring to leave the whole matter to the judgment of this Convention; but we have suggested some serious defects in our Sunday School methods which call for earnest consideration and reformation. We are not ignorant of some of the difficulties which may be met in seeking to accomplish necessary reforms in this important auxiliary of the parish machinery; but we are sure that the Convention is perfectly capable of supplying the wisdom and earnestness necessary for the accomplishment of this good work. Let us not, then, faithlessly conclude that nothing can be done; but rather with prayerful earnestness let us courageously grapple with our difficulties, assured that no subject of greater importance to the welfare of our beloved Church could engage the attention and time of this Convention. We plead for consideration for the children—the hope of the Church and of the Nation—and now confidently leave the matter in your hands.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES J. BURD,

The Rev. D. D. Waugh, Curate of Trinity, Watertown, has carried on this work, without financial compensation, in addition to his duties in Watertown, and has won the confidence of the community by his straightforward way and his indefatigable zeal. Other services have been held by George C. Dodge, Lay Reader, a convert from the Baptists. Mr. Waugh's contemplated departure will be a great blow to this little flock.

Statistics of St. Andrew's, Glen Park, now a "Parochial mission", sustained and operated by Trinity Church, are included in this report.

The contemplated departure of Mr. Waugh, who takes up work under his old friend and spiritual father, the rector of Grace Church, Utica, on July 1st, fills us with dismay, and will greatly cripple, for the present, at least, the various missions and enterprises of the parish. His honesty, his doggedness of purpose and his enthusiasm in The Master's work will not be easily paralleled.

It is almost needless to explain that the Rectory and Guild Hall noted above could not have been realized but for outside aid. It has been general and generous. The floating debt represents sums still due the contractors. It is partly subscribed, and by January next the incumbent hopes to have it all in hand.

The Missionary is supported by the Woman's Auxiliary of Central New York, and has received since Nov. 1, 1900, $250 from same. Nine of the baptisms were by my predecessor, and one of the burials was at Cardiff, five miles south, where we have some members (and perhaps the first Church service in the place). Otherwise the report dates from Nov. 1st, 1900, when the present Missionary took charge, and is the sum of the work at the Reservation, save a few of the Private Communion, which were elsewhere. The Industrial School is taught on Saturday afternoons in sewing, drawing and music.

Elmira—Evans' Mills. Parishes not Reporting.

Church Property - Church, $15,000; Chapel, $500.

Insurance, $4,500.

Besides the regular services of the parish Church, the Rector has maintained, with the assistance of devoted lay-workers, regular services in St. Agnes' Chapel, Madison Avenue, Elmira, and at St. Gabriel's Mission, Hendy Creek, Chemung County. Occasional services have been conducted in the Chemung County Alms House, the New York State Reformatory, St. Paula's Hospital and the Arnot-Ogden Memorial Hospital, the Old Ladies' Home and the Y. M. C. A. The most notable event of the year has been the entire freeing of the Parish from all burden of debt, a mortgage (on land owned by the corporation) given before the present Rector's ministry began, having been paid in full, and all bills for current expenses being met as they were presented. The men of the congregation have leased and furnished a Parish House for the use of the Churchmen's Club and of other Parish societies. The Brotherhood of St. Andrew has published a monthly paper, "The Message," which has been self-supporting.

The REV. THEODORE BABCOCK, D. D., reports his various services for the year ending April 30th, as follows:

As Dean of St. Andrew's Divinity School, besides the general care of the House, he has given constant personal attention to the supervision and instruction of the students, with generally most satisfactory results.

As Dean of the St. Andrew's Associate Mission, which is a marked feature of the Divinity School System, he has visited the several Missions regularly, celebrated the Holy Eucharist seventeen times. At other churches within the limits of the Mission, in the absence of the Rectors, he has administered the Holy Supper ten times, and officiated otherwise fifteen times. He has also presented ten candidates for Confirmation, and six for Ordination.

As Chaplain of the Hospital of the Good Shepherd, he has continued the week-day Evening Prayers through the year without interruption, and in the absence of the Bishop conducted sixteen Sunday services, besides assisting at two week-day celebrations, and baptizing two infants. He has also had charge of sixteen services at the Shelter, and baptized two adults there.

And finally, as Examining Chaplain, he has conducted seven separate examinations of candidates, and this not the least arduous of his varied labors.

The REV. W. M. BEAUCHAMP, D. D., residing at Syracuse, reports as follows:

After a rectorship of thirty-five years and three months, my absolute resignation of Grace Church, Baldwinsville, took effect Oct. 1, 1900. Our parish relations were harmonious to the last, and were only sundered by my belief that at seventy a man may properly retire from responsible office. Blessed with health and strength in no common degree, I have officiated in some place almost every Sunday since, have given some time to diocesan affairs, and have been employed through the week in historic and scientific work of special value. It was deemed important by many that the results of my studies should be put in form, but Church work will always be foremost in my thoughts.

The REV. S. D. DAY reports that since the first Sunday in Advent

THE REV. O. E. HERRICK, D. D., reports as follows: Since the date of my last report I have baptized one person, solemnized two marriages and officiated at four funerals, celebrated the Holy Communion eight times, and preached upon several occasions. Last September I completed the term, four years as prescribed by Canon, as Dean of the First District, being the only clergyman who has served a full term under the present Canon, and this week I complete fifty years in the ministry of the Church, June 15, 1851-1901.

THE REV. E. W. MUNDY reports that during the year past he celebrated the Holy Communion at St. Paul's Church, Syracuse, on Christmas and Easter, also once at All Saints and once at the Church of the Saviour, Syracuse.

THE REV. GEO. L. NRIDE, residing at Sing Sing, reports that, owing to infirm health, he has been able to do nothing more than occasionally assist the Rector at the Holy Communion.

ADOPTED JUNE 14TH, 1870.

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1. There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, on the Second Tuesday in June, in the year 1870, and each year thereafter, at four o'clock and thirty minutes P. M., in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being, or in case of his inability to act or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

SRC. 2. On Tuesday evening, after service, a quorum being present, the Convention shall organize, and the Standing Committee shall be appointed.

SRC. 3. In the event of the prevalence of any epidemic disease or for other sufficient cause, occurring after the designation of the place of meeting, the Bishop, or in the case above mentioned, the Standing Committee, may appoint another place for the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop may call Special Conventions when he shall judge it conducive to the good of the Church.

In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to do so, the Standing Committee may call such Convention -

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1. The Convention shall be composed of the Bishop, if he be present, and the officiating Ministers regularly admitted and settled in some Church within the Diocese which is in union with the Convention; and of Lay-members, not exceeding three delegates from each parish or congregation in union with the Convention.

SEC. 2. All other Clergymen canonically resident in the Diocese or the space of six months, and not under discipline, may be members of the Convention.

SEC. 3. The Lay Delegates shall be chosen by the Vestry, when one is in legal existence. When the Vestry is, from vacancy or otherwise, incompetent to act, they shall be chosen by the Congregation.

SEC. 4. But in case of Churches or Congregations organized or incorporated without a Vestry, Delegates may be chosen by the Church or Congregation, unless the Convention shall otherwise prescribe.

SEC. 5. The mode of admitting new Churches or Congregations into union with the convention and the conditions under which union or representation shall be forfeited, may be prescribed by Canon.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention at its first morning session shall be opened with prayers and the Holy Communion, and the Bishop may at this time deliver his Annual Address or Charge.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention; but in case of a vacancy, inability to act, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Presbyters.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen upon the assembling of the Annual Convention from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Annual Convention, and until a successor be appointed. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers relative to the concerns of the Convention which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of each Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

SECTION 1. In all matters which come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate, and, except as provided in the next section, may vote in one body; but if in any case it shall be required by five members, the two orders shall vote separately, the Clergy as individuals, and the Laity as Parishes; and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision.

SEC. 2. In case of the election of a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately by ballot, and according to the mode above prescribed.

Constitution.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering the Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing, and considered in the Convention; and if approved of, shall lie over till the next Annual Convention; and, if again approved of in such next Convention by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

ARTICLE IX.

No amendment of the Canons shall be made during the session of the Convention in which the same shall be proposed, unless two-thirds of each order shall concur therein; but any amendment, if approved by a majority less than two-thirds, shall lie over for the consideration and final action of the next Annual Convention.

Canon X.

These such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical Members alone; provided that no sentence shall be pronounced upon a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Standing Committee shall keep a record of their proceedings and report the same annually to the Diocesan Convention. He shall preserve all books, JOURNALS and papers belonging to said committee, and transmit the same to his successor in office.

CANON X.

Of the Diocesan Missions and Offerings.

SECTION 1. All members of the Church in the Diocese of Central New York constitute its Diocesan Missionary Society; and the Convention of the Diocese shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions.

SEC. II. For Missionary purposes the Diocese shall be divided into six districts, as follows:

First District—Jefferson and Lewis Counties.

Second District—Oneida County, the Village of Oneida, and all the rest of Madison County except the townships including the Parishes of Cazenovia, Canastota, Chittenango and Perryville.

Third District—Broome and Chenango Counties.

Fourth District—Onondaga, Oswego and Cortland Counties, and the townships of Madison County not included in the Second District.

Fifth District—Cayuga and Seneca Counties.

Sixth District—Chemung, Tioga and Tompkins Counties.

SEC. III. 1. The principal officer of said Missionary District shall be called the Dean of the District. He shall be appointed every four years by the Bishop, from the Clergy of the District, after nomination in a regular Convocation of the same. Under the Bishop he shall have the oversight of all Missionary work in his District.

2. Each Missionary District shall annually elect a Secretary and a Treasurer, at its first regular Convocation after the Annual Convention of the Diocese.

3. If the office of Dean of any Missionary District become vacant, by removal or otherwise, the Bishop shall appoint a successor for the remainder of the term.

SEC. IV. 1. In the general Missionary work of the Diocese, the Bishop shall be assisted by a Diocesan Board of Managers consisting, together with the Bishop, of the Treasurer of the Diocese, who shall also be the Treasurer of the Board, the six Deans, and six Clergymen and six Laymen, one of each from each Missionary District, to be elected severally by the Convocation of the District entitled to this representation. In any vacancy of the Episcopate, the Board of Managers shall elect one of its members to preside.

Canons II, III.

the good and sufficient reasons presented in a paper annexed. The form of said certificate may be prescribed by the Convention, and when so prescribed no other certificate of the appointment of any Lay Delegate or Delegates to the Convention of this Diocese shall be allowed or received.

SEC. 3. At every Convention the Bishop shall take the Chair, and shall continue to preside during its sitting. He shall possess the usual powers of presiding officers in deliberative assemblies to preserve order and decorum, and shall decide all questions of order without debate, subject to an appeal to the House. He shall have the right to name any clerical member to perform the duties of the Chair, but such substitute shall not extend beyond an adjournment, unless directed by the House.

SEC. 4. In case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, or of a vacancy in the office, the senior clerical member of the Standing Committee present shall call the Convention to order and act as President Pro Tempore, and perform all the duties of President until the Convention shall be organized and shall have elected a President.

SEC. 5. The President having taken the Chair, the Secretary of the preceding Convention shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats in the Convention, and shall enter in the Journal the names of those who are present. Notice shall then be given to the Lay Delegates to place their certificates on the table. They shall be examined by the Secretary and a Committee of two members to be appointed by the President. Any irregular or defective certificates shall be reserved until a quorum shall have appeared. The names of the Lay Delegates duly appointed shall then be called, and the names of those who are present shall be entered on the Journal. The irregular and defective certificates shall be reported to the Convention as soon as it is duly organized, who shall decide on the admission of the delegates named in them.

SEC. 6. The presence of at least twenty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least twenty Congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business, except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. 7. A quorum being found to be in attendance, the President shall declare the Convention duly organized. The Secretary shall then be elected, who may nominate an Assistant Secretary, to be approved by the Convention.

SEC. 8. The Rules of Order of the preceding Annual Convention shall be the Rules of Order until altered by a vote of a majority of the Convention.

CANON III.

Of the Call of a Convention.

SECTION 1. Notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be given by the Secretary in a printed letter, transmitted by mail at the expense of the Convention, to every Clergyman in the Diocese, and to the Wardens in every vacant Parish, at least one month before the time of meeting. This letter shall contain a notice of the time and place of holding the Convention, extracts from the Constitution and Canons relating to the appointment of Lay Delegates, and a form of certificate of their election. Notice of the meeting shall also be inserted in any newspaper in which the Bishop may direct such insertion to be made.

SEC. 2. Whenever, under the provision of the Constitution, a special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary in the notice thereof to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church into Union with the Church in this Diocese.

SECTION 1. To entitle a Church to admission into union with the Church in this Diocese, it is required that there be submitted to the Convention of the same, at a stated meeting: (1) A certificate from the Bishop, or in case of his absence or a vacancy in the Episcopate, of a major part of the Standing Committee, approving the incorporation of such a Church; (2) The certificate of incorporation duly proved and recorded, or a copy thereof certified by the Clerk of the County. But no such certificate shall be given by the Bishop or the majority of the Standing Committee save upon satisfactory evidence of the ability of such Church to pay and continue the sum of at least six hundred dollars a year for the support of a Rector or Missionary; and also that such Church contains at least thirty actual Communicants.

SEC. 2. Whenever, hereafter, any Church in union with this Convention, shall neglect, for three years in succession, to make a parochial report, no missionary report being made in its behalf; and during the same period shall not employ a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor obtain the services of a Missionary, nor make the stated monthly collections as required by Canon X of this Diocese, such Church shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and be no longer entitled to representation in the same; and the Bishop shall report said Church to the Convention in his Annual Address; but any such Church may be readmitted on the recommendation of the Bishop and by a resolution of the Convention, and such readmission shall take effect from and after the rising of the Convention which shall have agreed to the same.

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention

SECTION 1. In addition to the duties imposed upon the Secretary by the Constitution and by Canon III, he shall be required to transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention a copy of the JOURNAL of the Convention; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective JOURNALS in exchange. He shall also transmit a copy to each Clergyman in the Diocese, and each Lay Delegate attending the Convention, and five copies to each Parish in the Diocese, one of which it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Vestry to preserve with the Parish records.

SEC. 2. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in Section IV, Canon 20, Title I, of the Digest, a certificate to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary; together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary; and also a certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

SEC. 3. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the several sections of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 4. Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon the Assistant Secretary, if there be one; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Diocese

SECTION 1. At every Annual Convention there shall be chosen a Treasurer of the Diocese. It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, the collection and distribution of which shall not be otherwise regulated. He shall be subject to the direction of the Standing Committee in relation to the mode and place of depositing the funds received by him, and the manner of paying them out, and his accounts and books shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the Standing Committee or any member thereof. Before entering on the duties of his office he shall give a bond to the Standing Committee, in such penalty and with such surety as they shall direct, conditional for the faithful performance of his duties, and for the delivery over to his successor of all funds, securities, books and papers pertaining to his offices.

SEC. 2. His accounts shall be reported to the appropriate Committee, according to Canon XIV.

SEC. 3. In case of a vacancy in the office the Standing Committee shall appoint a Treasurer, and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an election is made by the Convention. The Treasurer may be removed at any time from his office by the Standing Committee for any neglect or misconduct, of which they shall be judges.

CANON VII.

Of Registers, Parochial Reports, and the Removal of Communicants from one Parish to Another.

SECTION 1. The Parish Register, required by Section V, Canon 18, Title I, of the Digest, shall specify the name and the time of the birth of the child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors; the name of the adult baptized; the names of the parties married, and of two or more special witnesses of the same, and the place where the marriage was solemnized; the names of the persons buried; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose belonging to the Vestry of each Church; which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the Records of the Church.

SEC. 2. The Parish Register shall contain a list of the families and adult persons in the Cure as far as practicable, and also an accurate list of the persons confirmed from time to time.

SEC. 3. In every Parish and Missionary Station a list of the Communicants shall be kept which shall retain the names of all persons who shall have been admitted to the Holy Communion in that Parish or Station until they shall have ceased to be Communicants in the Cure by either (1) death, (2) removal or (3) repulsion and suspension or excommunication by competent authority. In the Annual Report of the Parish discrimination shall be made by means of separate items between those who shall have received the Holy Communion at least once within two years preceding such report, and all others whose names are on the list as above provided, but who shall not have received the Communion either in public or in private during the two years preceding the report, whatever may have been the occasion or cause of their neglect of their privilege and duty.

SEC. 4. CANON XVIII.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of the Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become liable to presentment and trial under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceedings in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz.:

SECTION 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offenses of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever from public rumor, or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offense or misconduct, for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case—a majority of whom may make such examination; and if there is, in their opinion, sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

SEC. 2. A presentment being made in any of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as to constitute an offense, may dismiss it; or if it allege facts some of which do, and some of which do not constitute an offense, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention, and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn, from time to time and from place to place, (but always within the Diocese,) as they shall think necessary.

SEC. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons makes the presentment.

SEC. 4. If at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time; and if after one adjournment or more it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

SEC. 5. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial as before mentioned he shall be considered as denying them.

SEC. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn until another day.

SEC. 7. When the Board proceeds to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced; which evidence shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer authorized by law to administer oaths may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses, that they will testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

SEC. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witness can not be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a commissary to take the testimony of such witness. Such commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Laymen, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness; and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the commissary and enclosed under his seal and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

SEC. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare in writing, signed by them or a majority of them, the decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charge respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced; and a copy of such decision shall be without delay communicated to the accused; and the original decision, together with evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time and place as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some Church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be opened at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

SEC. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the fact shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper—provided, however, that the service, if not personal, shall be a notice of at least sixty days.

SEC. 11. The accused may have the privilege of appearing by counsel; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have like privilege; which counsel shall in all cases be members of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

SEC. 12. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman, shall be preserved by the Standing Committee; and for that purpose shall, after final decision be delivered to their Secretary.

CANON XIX.

The Vestry may, subject to the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and of the Diocese in which the Parish or Church is situated, by a majority vote, elect a Rector to fill a vacancy occurring in the Rectorship of the Parish, and may fix the salary or compensation of the Rector.

SEC. 4. Section thirty-three of said act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

SEC. 33. Annual Elections of Incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parishes. The annual election of a Protestant Episcopal Parish, hereafter incorporated, shall be held on the secular day in the week commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, designated in its certificate of incorporation. The annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church heretofore incorporated shall be held on the day fixed for such annual election, by or in pursuance of law, or if no such date be so fixed, then on the Monday next after the first Sunday in Advent.

Notice of such annual election shall be read by the Rector of the Parish, or if there be none, or he be absent, by the officiating Minister or by a Churchwarden thereof, on each of the two Sundays next preceding such election, in the time of divine service, or if, for any reason, the usual place of worship of the Parish be not open for divine service, the notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outer door of the place of worship for two weeks next preceding the election.

Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of holding the election, the name and term of office of each Churchwarden and Vestryman whose term of office shall then expire, or whose office shall then be vacant for any cause, and the office for which each such officer is to be then elected. The meeting for such annual election shall be held immediately after morning service.

The presiding officer of such meeting shall be the Rector thereof, if there be one, or if there be none, or he be absent, one of the Churchwardens elected for the purpose by a majority of the duly qualified voters present, or if no Churchwarden be present, a Vestryman elected in like manner. regular attendants at its worship and contributors to its support for at least twelve months prior to such election, or since the establishment of such Parish, shall be qualified voters at any such election. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon. The polls of the election shall continue open for one hour, and longer, in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the qualified voters present and voting.

The Churchwardens and Vestrymen shall be elected by ballot from persons qualified to vote at such election, and no person shall be eligible for election as Churchwarden unless he be also a communicant in the Protestant Episcopal Church, nor be eligible for election as Vestryman unless he shall have been baptized.

At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish hereafter incorporated, one Churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years; and one-third of the total number of the Vestrymen of the Parish shall be elected to hold office for three years. At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Parish or Church heretofore incorporated, two Churchwardens and the total number of its Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, unless the terms of office of but one Churchwarden or of but one-third of its Vestrymen shall then expire, in which case one Churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years, and one-third of the total number of its Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years. Each Churchwarden and Vestryman shall hold office after the expiration of his term until his successor shall be chosen.

SEC. 5. Section thirty-four of said article is hereby amended so as to read as follows :

SEC. 34 Changing the number of Vestrymen of Protestant Episcopal Parishes hereafter incorporated.—If the Vestry of a Protestant Episcopal Parish, hereafter incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the number of Vestrymen of such Parish be changed to either three, six or nine Vestrymen, notice of such recommendation shall be included in the notice of the next annual meeting of such Parish and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer hereof, and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the Vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election; that the meeting had ratified the same; and the number of Vestrymen so decided on. Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded, and such change in the number of Vestrymen shall take effect at the time of the next annual election thereafter.

If the number of Vestrymen be thereby increased then, in addition to the number of Vestrymen to be elected at such annual election one-third of such increased number of Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for two years thereafter, and one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for three years thereafter.

Organization of Parishes.

If the number of Vestrymen by such change be reduced, such reduction shall not effect the term of office of any Vestryman duly elected, and at such next annual election, and at each annual election thereafter, one-third of such reduced number of Vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years.

SEC. 6. Section thirty-five of said article is hereby amended as to read as follows:

If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified at such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry; the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of the annual election that such meeting had ratified the same; the date determined upon for the annual election of the Parish; the number of Vestrymen so decided on, and the fact that the meeting determined to thereafter elect Churchwardens so that the term of one Warden shall expire annually.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the County in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded. If the meeting determined to change the date of the annual election, the next annual election shall be held on the day in the week beginning, with the first Sunday in Advent, determined on by such meeting, and the terms of the Vestrymen and Churchwardens which, pursuant to law, would expire at the next annual election, shall expire, and their successors shall be elected on such day.

If the meeting determine to change the number of Vestrymen and manner of electing Wardens and Vestrymen, there shall be elected at the first annual election thereafter, one-third of the number of Vestrymen so determined on, to hold office for three years, one-third thereof to hold office for two years, and one-third thereof to hold office for one year; and one Churchwarden to hold office for one year, and one to hold for two years; and thereafter at the annual election there shall be elected one-third of the number of Vestrymen determined on at such meeting and one Churchwarden.

SEC. 7. Section thirty-six of said article is hereby amended as to read as follows:

Resolved. That the Convention adopt the Report of the Committee of twelve relating to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor.

The Rev. Dr. Egar, from the Committee on the Constitution and Canons, presented the following report which was adopted.

The Committee on the Constitution and Canons to whom was referred the Resolution asking for an interpretation of the provisions in Article III, Sections 1 and 2 of the Constitution of the Diocese, with special reference to the question by what means a Clergyman designated in Sec. 2 as one who may be a member of the Convention does actually become a member of the Convention, respectfully report that they have had the matter under consideration, and their conclusions, are as follows :

Sections 1 and 2 taken together divide the Clergy of the Diocese into two classes, one of which is composed of clergymen who have a right by virtue of their office and position to be members of the Convention; the other being composed of clergymen who have no such right by virtue of office and position, but of whom it is said that, they "may be members of the Convention."

The first-class may be designated as "members ipso facto," because by virtue of office and position they are entitled to take their seats and perform their functions as members, without any act of induction, election or admission.

The second class cannot be designated as ipso facto members, but only as persons eligible to membership, whose eligibility must be converted into actual membership by some formal act which makes them actual members. Until this formal act is performed they are not members and have no right to seats and votes as members.

(a) The Clerical Members ipso facto,—that is, by virtue of their orders, office and position—are defined in the 1st section of Article of the Constitution, as "The Bishop, if he be present, and the officiating ministers regularly admitted and settled in some Church within the Diocese which is in union with the Convention."

It is to be observed that it is not every minister who is officiating in a Church in the Diocese, who is ipso facto a member of Convention, but that there are two limitations of that number:—1. The officiating minister must be "regularly admitted and settled in some Church within the Diocese;" and 2. The Church in which they are settled must be in union with the Convention."

It is therefore only a limited number of the Clergy who have ipso facto the right of membership in the convention. All other Clergy of the Diocese can only be described as eligible to membership under certain conditions.

Membership of the Convention.

These conditions of eligibility are prescribed in Section 2. They are: 1. That the Clergyman has been "canonically resident in the Diocese for the space of six months;" and 2. That he is "not under discipline." Having these qualifications, it is said of him, not that he "is," but that he "may be a member of the Convention."

The question specially placed before your Committee by the resolution is, by what means this condition of eligibility can be converted into actual membership.

Three ways are conceivable :

1. By an act of the Clergyman himself; as for instance (as is the case in some secular societies) by signing the Constitution, etc. But for this the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese make no provision.

2. By an act of the Bishop, putting the name of the Clergyman on the list of clergy of the Diocese. But this is negated by the fact that this article of the Constitution divides the clergy into the two classes as we have seen, and yet the clergy of each class are equally clergy of the Diocese. Besides this, Canon 1 of the Canons of this Diocese expressly provides that in making up the list of the clergy of the Diocese, the Bishop shall distinguish between those who are members of the Convention and those who are not. The language of the Canon is : "Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop shall prepare or cause to be prepared, a list of all the ministers canonically resident in the Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures, Parishes, Stations, or places of residence, designating those who are entitled to seats in the Convention." This last clause necessarily infers that some whose names are upon this list are not entitled to seats in the Convention; and therefore negatives the idea that the Bishop's putting the name of a clergyman upon the list confers membership in the Convention upon him.

3. The third method is, By an act of the Convention formally admitting the clergyman who is eligible to actual membership. That this is the method contemplated in the Constitution, and Canons of this Diocese may be inferred from the provisions of Sec. 2 of Canon 1, of the Canons of this Diocese, which reads as follows: "The right of any clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention shall, if disputed, be determined according to the provisions of the Third Article of the Constitution by the Convention itself; whether his name be inserted in the list aforesaid or omitted.

Your Committee therefore report the following Conclusions in interpretation of Sections 1 and 2 of Article III, of the Constitution as referred to them :

1. That all Clergymen defined or designated by Section 1 of Article III, are ipso facto members of the Convention.

2. That all Clergymen, in whom the conditions of Section 1 are not fulfilled, but who fall under the designation of Sec. 2, are eligible to membership in the Convention, but are not members thereof, until they are admitted members by a vote of the Convention.

Your Committee, therefore, in order to correct any irregularities heretofore overlooked, and to avoid hardship to meritorious clergy, who have come to this Convention in good faith, believing themselves to be members, when a strict construction of the Canon decides they are not, recommends the passage of the following resolution :

Resolved, That all Clergymen of the Diocese, who fall under the designation of Sec. 2 of Article III, of the Constitution, (not being members of the Convention under Article I), and who have answered to their names as present in this Convention, be and they are hereby admitted and declared to be members of the Convention in accordance with said Section 2 of Article III of the Constitution and of Sec. 2 of Canon 1, of the Canons of this Diocese.

The Secretary read the report of the Trustee of the Wagoner Missionary Fund. (See Appendix 1, H.)

Report of Special Committee on Christmas Fund.

The Rev. Dr. Lockwood read the following Report of the Special Committee on the Consolidation of the Christmas Fund with the General Clergy Relief Fund.

The Committee appointed to consider the proposed consolidation of the Christmas Fund with the General Clergy Relief Fund respectfully report that the principal of the Christmas Fund is made up of legacies, and other gifts, intended for the benefit of Clergymen, or the families of Clergymen, canonically connected with this Diocese. To divert this fund to other than its designated use, or to surrender its management to hands not subject to Diocesan control would be in our opinion, inexpedient, if not of doubtful legality.

The supplementing of the income from this fund by offerings on Christmas-day is one of the good customs which, with a considerable part of the fund itself, we inherited from our Mother Diocese.

There are associated with this custom many sacred and tender sentiments, which appeal very forcibly to the interest of our people and to these is added, in many instances, the stimulus of personal friendship for the beneficiaries, and of more or less intimate knowledge of their needs.

On this, and other accounts, it is believed that a wider distribution of these funds, or even their distribution within the Diocese from a distant office, where there could be but little discriminating and sympathetic knowledge of the recipients would tend to impair the interest of the parishes, and materially lessen the amount of the Christmas offerings. It is, therefore, the judgment of this Committee that no change should be made in the present manner of administering even this portion of what is known as the Christmas Fund.

The Committee desire, however, to express their cordial sympathy with the object of the General Clergy Relief Fund, and the sense of the duty of our Diocese to share in its generous support. They recommend that in each parish a contribution for that fund taken at least once a year, if possible, on Quinquagesima Sunday, recommended by the General Convention.

Election of Bishop-Coadjutor—First Ballot.

The Rev. Dr. LaRoche, from the Committee on the Report of the Trustee of the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund, presented the following :

REPORT :

The Committee on the Van Wagenen Missionary Fund beg to report that the Financial Statement of the Trustee has been carefully examined and found to be correct. Mr. Chas. W. Brown, a well-known attorney of Oxford, was called in to assist the Committee and rendered valuable aid.

Under the efficient stewardship of Mr. John R. Van Wagenen, Trustee, the Loans and Mortgages are well placed and yield a profitable rate of interest. In the judgment of Mr. Brown, who is in knowledge of the majority of the Loans, the funds are properly secured and would realize in full on a forced sale of all the properties with possibly one or two exceptions.

The income from this Fund, having now reached a sum more than adequate for carrying out the purpose of its creation and the need being great, your Committee would respectfully recommend that steps be taken to place a General Missionary in the field covered by this bequest without delay.

The Rev. D. C. Huntington offered the following resolution which on motion was referred to the Committee on the Constitution and Canons :

Death, II. Removal by transfer, III. Neglect of the Holy Communion for a whole year, or IV. Repulsion and suspension or excommunication by competent authority."

In the Annual Report of the Parish discrimination shall be made by means of separate items between those who shall have received the Holy Communion at least once within two years preceding such report, and all others whose names are on the list as above provided, but who shall not have received the Communion either in public or in private during a year preceding the report, whatever may have been the occasion or cause of their neglect of their privilege and duty.

The Convention proceeded to sign the Testimonials of the Bishop Coadjutor-elect. The Clergy and Lay Deputies were called in order, and the document was signed by a constitutional majority of both Orders.

The Convention then, on motion, resolved to adjourn after the reading of the minutes and the usual devotions.

The minutes of this day's session were read and approved.

To the Thirty-Fourth Annual Convention.

Nothing is more plainly to be noted here than the relation to one another of two of the members of our entire organized Ecclesiastical system. What we know as our General Convention and its legislation, call it national or provincial, stands on one side of the Diocesan Body and above it. To that we owe deference, canonical obedience and respect. Similarly, on the other side, and in a closer connection, stand the authority and accountability of the Parish, or local Mission, towards the Diocese, with its Convention, its Canons, its Episcopal Head, and its territorial Missionary service, comprising families and individual souls.

In an organization so well established, distributed and harmonized as the Diocese of Central New York, finds itself to be, now at the thirty-fourth year of its life, with all its proceedings running in order, the duties of the annual assembly are found to be comparatively few and simple. Devotions must be observed, the Sacrament of the Holy Communion celebrated, reports received, counsel given, measures considered, offices filled and supported, missions directed and provided for. These, with the interchange of greetings and mutual fraternal assurances, create bonds of Church unity and promote beneficent activities. So we renew our strength. So we refresh our spirits. So we continue, to this day, long after the original ministry of the Twelve and the Apostolic pattern, in their "doctrine, fellowship, breaking of bread, and the Prayers." Each Parish Minister in his post, his pastoral walk, his pulpit, is confirmed and comforted. It would not be strange if sometimes, in the depressions, misgivings and apparent failures of his toil, any one should imagine that a part at least of the failures might be traced to the authority set over him; or the corporate rules imposed upon him, and that he would be tempted to seek relief by proposing new conventional methods, laws or schemes, "mending the machinery," a kind of resort useful in some cases no doubt, but oftener noticeable rather for a certain effect of novelty than for effectual or permanent furtherance in his sphere of appointed and perhaps lonesome labor and prayer.

Bishops may naturally be gratified with the very kind and compassionate things often said of them, of their labors and trials and sacrifices. As one of them who wants to keep a manly honesty and hardihood I must decline to share in the sentimental plaint that they are more severely taxed in work than many Parish Priests and Pastors and most other men in useful, conscientious and strenuous employments. Some tender hearted looker-on, of one sex or the other, makes out a frightful list of Episcopal toils. Half of them are too trivial to be taken into account. Many of them are of the nature of honors or compliments, because requests for them imply confidence or admiration. Before expending a lavish compassion on these workmen, when they happen to get tired, or faint, or show the common weakness or maladies of busy men, it would be well to exhort them to ask themselves whether quite all of their public, professional or social performances are precisely in the line of their religious engagements, ministerial vows and Episcopal obligations. The newspapers convey an impression that, especially in large places and populations, they do and say a good many things that might as well be done and said by somebody else. No part of the United States is so barren of competent public speakers that a Bishop is indispensable. It may require a little decision of a certain kind to refuse an invitation, or negative a popular appointment. But it is questionable whether a secular object has any business to advertise or advantage itself by using the Episcopal office or title: and if the Bishop is actually going beyond safety or health, why should he not first of all cut off his extra ministerial functions and stick strictly to his own calling?

The subject of a co-adjutorship, which I thought it a judicious forecast of a then certain future, to bring before the Diocese four years ago, was then so explicitly presented, though without the expression on my part of any wish for immediate action, and also in two recent formal communications since that you can not be surprised if, with the added time and its necessary effects, I now ask you, as I do, to elect a co-adjutor. You can hardly suppose that I should do this, in view of what may be called the risks of the proposed measure and its relations, without a very careful, anxious deliberation upon it in all its bearings. You are familiar perhaps with some of the reasons for it. What you cannot know as I do, even with much explanation in detail, is what pertains to my own person and its conditions and prospects. If I understand the matter with my long opportunity to study it, the need of increased force is due to the religious, economical and practical needs of the situation. No less systematic and orderly Episcopal ministration will fairly meet the demand. Happily, with our present dimensions and material resources, with a church population of over 10,000 families, including 19,000 communicants, with nine cities, a productive territory and lively trade and prosperous industries, no question can reasonably arise as to the ability of the Diocese to add to its annual expenditure during the limited term of my lifetime, having now passed my eighty-third birth-day. It may be observed that the $300 now appropriated for my traveling expenses, and the present liability to be called upon to provide $500 besides for Episcopal assistance, would cease.

It is a comfort that the needed election may be made, so far as I know or believe, without the methods or measures which in a few deplorable instances are said to have lowered such sacred and solemn acts of God's Church before and after special prayers for His guidance, to the level of political craft, surreptitious wire-pulling, or mere secular and worldly contentions, continuing rather the tradition of dignity and decorum which from the first has honored the history of this Branch of Christ's Kingdom, confirming our trust in the sure presence and promises of Him Who is the abiding Saviour and Defender of His flock and its Shepherds from generation to generation.

I venture to repeat here a part of what I said to you in 1898 :

"I have held up to you a standard in your selection of a leader and Father who must more than any other man represent your piety, direct your ways, marking your character before the world and your standing in the Church. Imperfect as my sketch is, and feebly as I know the standard to have been realized in the past and the only Episcopal administration in the Diocese of Central New York, I want you to know that I could approve no Co-adjutor whose convictions and spirit of life were not in a good degree conformed to that standard."

I recommend that a large committee be now appointed to consider this request and to report to this Body tomorrow.

Complying with the directions of the Canon I specify as duties which I should desire and expect of an Episcopal assistant: 1, The annual visitation of three-fourths at least of the Parishes and Missions; 2, the performance of offices held in the open air ; 3, the ordination of Deacons ; 4, the preparation of official documents ; 5, some duties of advice and arbitration in some local differences ; 6, an oversight of candidates for the Ministry with instruction, and such helps in official correspondence and record as my health might seem to render reasonable.

Among the various schemes, theories or notions proposed as changes in the ordered and regular public worship of the Church, we may be thankful that the office of the Holy Communion as it still stands in the Book of Common Prayer has not been meddled with. That venerable and august inheritance is intact. Nothing can be lawfully added to it, taken from it, or altered in it, not one word, which is without authority in the Canons, Prayer Book or New Testament. No revisers can touch it. When the revision before the last took place, at the first meeting of the Committee appointed by the General Convention, of which I was a member, a rule was formally adopted and recorded that no alteration whatever in the two Sacramental offices should be considered or proposed. Let the present and future generations heed the prohibition. An interpolation is as lawless as a mutilation or omission. You may intrude any such foreign element or language, whether from Scripture or any human composition, sung or spoken, after the Prayer of Humble Access and before the Consecration, but it has no warrant ; admit it, and there is not a heresy or sacrilege that may not claim protection. Disloyalty to Church law is a worse irreverence than any ritual shortcoming, and has no defence in personal or party sentiment, taste, choir-display or self-will.

Among all the foolish flings at Church services from worldly-minded people, it is rare that the worship as worship is either despised or ridiculed. Criticism of the sermon, sometimes silly and sometimes too well deserved, may be heard anywhere, although a sermon which is a direct and unambitious appeal to men's consciences, or a plain opening and application of God's word, is not apt to be sneered at. So it is with the music. Art is a fair enough theme for the critic. Artificial singing, an ambitious organ performance, a solo or duet, is not necessarily worship. Either one of them, as heard in very many of our Churches, is far less a means of lifting the Spirit into real communion with God or into a spiritual frame, than a Puritan Psalm or a camp-meeting chorus.

Herbert Spencer, in his last book, asserting the superiority of the moral element over the intellectual, in life and education, remarks upon "the distinction between the knowledge of musical expression in its complex developments, and the experience of those emotions to which the musical expression is instrumental." A like criticism might be applied with far sharper emphasis to the effect of much of the artistic choir singing and organ playing in Churches where both the musician and the audience lose all conscious attention to the devotional purpose in the performance, or the skill of the performers.

If there is, as most of us who are of the Catholic Faith believe, an active agency sagaciously at work to destroy or damage the Faith, to pervert worship, and to deaden the real life of the Church, we may reasonably suppose that its policy is to introduce the worldly spirit under existing forms and customs of the Church without an avowed or even suspected purpose of desecration or irreligion. No more convenient method of this anti-Christian craft would be found than the musical part of the worship.

The music that is most unfriendly to spiritual life commonly costs money and is displayed where there is wealth; but its irreligious effects creep out and are felt in practices, competitions, profanations, in a great many congregations where the performances or performers are unpaid. Too much can hardly be said in praise of the gratuitous painstaking and benefit rendered by men and women gifted with voices and ears for such service. The chief sins are indulged in cities and large towns where worldliness is most prolific of abuse, irreverence, frivolity and even indecency.

What are some of them? Or what is the musical desecration? It encroaches on the time allotted to liturgical devotion and the teachable hearing of God's word. It deprives worshippers of their just privilege of personal participation in prayer and praise. It puts foremost in interest and attention an artistic execution, good or bad, of a musical composition, often depriving the utterance of its meaning or smothering its meaning altogether. It intrudes not only vocal but instrumental strains which carry no religious idea or emotion to the hearer, strains, which convey no influence which worship is designed for, substituting a profitless criticism of their artistic or their comparative merit. Most of the Offertory Anthems, coming as they commonly do, near the end of a service, are for devotion too long. In secular newspapers without number, in comments, critiques and advertisements, the music, wholly as music, is made a principal motive of church attendance in God's sanctuary and before God's altar, singers and players being advertised by name. The law of the Church, as to the authority and direction of the minister, is grossly violated, and his control is wrested from him on peril of his popularity or position. In this Diocese repeated instances have occurred where disastrous embarrassment has been averted only by a check upon extravagance and ostentation. It is the correctness or skill of the artistic exercise that is regarded, but an insult is offered to Him who can be worshipped only in spirit and in truth.

Nothing can be properly said or sung in the sanctuary in which the language is not uttered intelligibly to the congregation of worshippers. Fortunately this sort of misuse of the Lord's House and Day and of the avowed purpose of Public Prayer and Praise is not much known beyond Parishes in large and comparatively wealthy communities. At the last service I attended, a solo voice, at the offertory, at a time when devout attention is apt to be weary to body or mind or both, poured out a strain in which not a sentence phrase, or even a word, could be understood by a careful attention I say this not without knowledge I declare the above to be irreligious and an impertinence. A clergyman who tolerates it either willingly disobeys the Law of the Church, Canon 25, Title I, or is afraid of his Choir or of the "Musical Committee." It is another part of human nature that is gratified by artificial, undevout singing, not the spirit. It is not the Apostolical, the Scriptural, true Christian "worship in spirit," and the effect is not a spiritual effect. I particularly advise, the Clergy always to recite to the congregation, before an anthem is sung, the Scriptural words to be pronounced, as the common practice is in England.

If, during the year, I have done or spoken too little for that Evangelizing and extending action of the Church, known as Missions, whether within or beyond our own borders, it has not been from indifference or intentional neglect. It remains true, as it has been, and must ever be, and as you have heard it said and perhaps said it yourselves over and over, that the Christian Church is radically weak and guiltily impotent where that action is suffered to decline; that Christianity, without Missionary zeal and systematic and pervading energy, is not possible, and is falsely named the Religion of Christ; that the Diocese or the Parish is to be invariably and infallibly judged by its Missionary interest, and effort, and gifts, as is the sincerity of the individual heart; that a self-centred and self-occupied life is just so far untrue to Christ; and that the

One of my very pleasant official acts has been to assist in the Consecration, April 22, at Worcester, Mass., of the Rev. Dr. A. H. Vinton as Bishop of the new Diocese of Western Massachusetts, my native place.

As President of the Board of Trustees of the Hospital of the Good Shepherd and Training School for Nurses, in Syracuse, known to me with personal interest since its inception, and of late greatly enlarged by an addition, to its Board of Trustees of citizens at large, and every way equipped through the signal liberality of Mr. W. B. Cogswell, and thus growing into one of the most complete hospital establishments in the country, I have attended the opening of the ample building, and have delivered the diplomas at the yearly graduation of nurses completing the three years' course.

Mrs. Louise H. Gates has been received as Matron of the House of the Good Shepherd in Binghamton.

The Rev. L. B. Thomas having resigned the charge of Emmanuel Parish, Elmira, and the the office of Dean, and having gone with my consent to a Foreign Mission station, the Rev. T. Ainslee Stevenson of Waverly, has been appointed Dean of the Sixth District Convocation.

The Bishop's Address.

At St. John's School, Manlius, the great disaster of the accidental fire April 8, destroying the principal edifice, has been met with remarkable courage, energy and loyalty, by the Superintendent and Headmaster, and by the whole body of Teachers and Cadet-pupils. Immediately Col. Verbeck, who has a lease of the school for a long term of years, took active measures to learn where the exercises of the school, now at the highest pitch of prosperity in its whole history, having 140 scholars, could best be continued. He found no situation so favorable as the present, with its ample campus and field, its fine landscape and its honorable traditions. The enlarged Board of Trustees, with Robert J. Hubbard, Esq., as Chairman of a Building Committee, have decided to rebuild without delay with what money is in hand from the insurance, and what money can be raised in the future will be used to meet the needs of the large and yearly increasing student body. The new building will in all probability be one of two stories and so planned that it will later form part of a quadrangle of school buildings. A modern structure will be finished and ready for occupancy before September 25, when the coming school year will begin.

The "Kemble School," Syracuse, in its removal across James street, has lost none of its superior advantages, and its attraction as a seat of thorough literary education, and a home for the training of a true womanhood.

The "Relief Fund" in my hands has received in offerings $357.49, considerably less than came to me when I was able to make many visitations on Sundays and meet larger congregations.

APPENDIX 1.

Report of Officers and Committees

With Accompanying Papers.

A. Report of the Standing Committee.

FOR THE CONVENTIONAL YEAR 1901-02.

The Standing Committee respectfully report that, during the Conventional Year 1901-02, they have held seven meetings, the first in Calvary Church, Utica, and the other six in St. Paul's Church, Syracuse.

At the first meeting, held June 12th, 1901, all the members being present, the Committee was organized for the ensuing year by the election of the Rev. John Brainard, D. D., President, and the Rev. H. R. Lockwood, S. T. D., Secretary.

At the second meeting, held September 23d, 1901, all the clerical members and Messrs. Jack and Dunning being in attendance, unanimous consent was given to the election of the Right Rev. Rev. Samuel Cook Edsall, D. D., as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Minnesota. Mr. William Lathrop Clark, on presentation of the required testimonials, was recommended to the Bishop for admission as a candidate for Holy Orders. Action upon papers asking for the recommendation of a Deacon, for ordination to the Priesthood, was put over to a subsequent meeting, in view of canonical requirements regarding the length of Candidateship for that Order of the Ministry.

At the third meeting, held December 9th, 1901, the Rev. Drs. Brainard, Babcock and Lockwood, and all the Lay members being present, consent was given to the Consecration of the Rev. Frederick Burgess, D. D., as Bishop of the Diocese of Long Island. The proper testimonials having been presented certificates were signed recommending the advancement to the Priesthood, of the Rev. Theodore Haydn, Deacon, and the admission as Candidates for Holy Orders, of Messrs. Edward Alfred Evans, Walter E. Cook, George C. Richmond, David Curran and N. Peterson Boyd.

At the fourth meeting, held February 10th, 1902, all the Clerical Members and Messrs. Jack and Dunning were in attendance. A letter was received from the Standing Committee of the Diocese of New York asking the concurrence of this Committee in an application to the Legislature for the repeal of an Act passed in 1901 in regard to the sale or encumbering of Church property, and for the restoration of the law, regulating that matter, as it stood in 1900. Such application was unanimously concurred in. Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Alexander H. Vinton, D. D., as Bishop of Western Massachusetts, of the Rev. Charles S. Olmsted, D. D., as Bishop Coadjutor of Colorado, and of the Rev. Alexander Mackay Smith, D. D., as Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. The Rev. Messrs. Edwin Lee Tanner, Howard Wm. Crydenwise, and Karl G. Heyne, Deacons, presented the proper testimonials, and were recommended for ordination to the Priesthood.

At the fifth meeting, held March 25th, 1902, all the members attending, it was recommended that Mr. Arthur J. Schrader be admitted a Candidate for Holy Orders. The Bishop, by letter and in person, brought before the Committee, and held a consultation with the members in regard to matters, affecting the welfare of the Diocese. Consent was given to the Vestry of St. Paul's Church, Syracuse, to sell a piece of property, belonging to that parish, situated in Syracuse, and not usable for Church purposes.

At the sixth meeting, held May 12th, 1902, all the Clerical Members, and Messrs. Sawyer, Jack and Dunning were present. The Consecration of the Rev. James Heartt Van Buren as Missionary Bishop of Porto Rico, and of the Rev. Henry Bond Restarick, as Missionary Bishop of Honolulu was consented to. Messrs. Almon A. Jaynes, Henry Neal Hyde, Orrok Colloque, Francis Curtis Smith, Frederick Thomas Henstridge, Wilson E. Tanner, and Henry Knott, presented the testimonials required by Canon, and were recommended to be ordained to the Diaconate, and Mr. Charles Kendall Gilbert was recommended to be admitted a Candidate for Holy Orders.

The estimated amount required for the General Fund for the ensuing year was submitted as follows: Printing JOURNAL of the Convention, and distributing the same, and other printing, $500; Rent of Episcopal residence, $600; Salary of Secretary and Assistant $250; Bishop's travelling expenses, $300; For additional services as required by the Bishop, $500; One third of expenses for General Convention, $220; Expenses of Registrar of Diocese, $25; making a total of $2,395. It was voted to recommend the assessment of that amount upon the parishes, and a schedule of the several parochial assessments, as the rate of 1.9 per cent. of the last reported current expenses was ordered to be made out, and reported to the Convention.

At the seventh meeting, held June 10th, 1902, with all the members in attendance, on receipt of the proper testimonials, Mr. Henry Capen Staunton was recommended for ordination to the Diaconate and Mr. John Hamilton Stirling for admission as a candidate for Holy Orders. On motion, the petition of St. Luke's Memorial Church of Utica to place an additional mortgage of $3,000 on its property was granted.

The Secretary's Report of transactions of the Committee during the year past was approved and ordered to be presented to the Convention.

All which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee.

H. R. LOCKWOOD,

Secretary.

Report of the Board of Managers—First District.B. Missions of the Diocese.(I.) Report of the Board of Managers.

The Board of Managers for Diocesan Missions of the Diocese of Central New York respectfully submits the following report:

At a meeting of the Board in Calvary Church, Utica, on Wednesday, June 12th, 1901, the thirty-third Annual Convention of the Diocese, then in session, having authorized the appropriation of $11,400 for the Missionary work of the Diocese for the current year, the following assessments and appropriations were made:

First District, Assessed....	$1,450;	Apportioned....	$1,900
Second District, "	2,550;	"	2,300
Third District, "	1,600;	"	1,500
Fourth District, "	2,100;	"	1,800
Fifth District, "	1,200;	"	1,700
Sixth District, "	1,100;	"	2,000
	$10,000.		$11,200

The sum of $200 was also appropriated for the Church Mission to the Deaf-Mutes of the Diocese.

The Rev. James J. Burd was elected secretary of the Board.

At a meeting of the Board of Managers in the Chapel of St. Paul's Church, Syracuse, June 10, 1902, the following reports were read and, on motion, ordered to be presented to the Convention.

FIRST DISTRICT.(JEFFERSON AND LEWIS COUNTIES.)

The Mission Parishes and Stations are: In Jefferson County: Adams, Alexandria Bay, Antwerp, Brownville, Cape Vincent, Champion, Clayton, Dexter, Evans Mills, Ellisburg, Frederick's Corners, LaFargeville, Millen's Bay, North Watertown, Redwood, Sackett's Harbor and Theresa.

Missions of the Diocese—First District.

In Lewis County: Constableville, Copenhagen, Greig and Port Leyden.

These places are so fortunate now as to be all filled with good men and a very large measure of good work is being done. The Dean has made special efforts to have each Parish and Mission of the whole District duly reported under the head of "Parochial Reports" in the Convention JOURNAL. This District is, and always must necessarily be, largely a missionary region. But we are constantly feeding the cities with a stream of healthy and vigorous people, and we turn many to righteousness and towards our Church before they thus drift down into the large towns to fill and strengthen the city parishes.

During the last Convention year we had three fully-attended and most useful Convocations,—in May at Pierrepont Manor, in September at the Church of the Redeemer, North Watertown, and in January at St. Paul's Church, Watertown.

The report of the Treasurer of the District in detail will be found in the report of the Treasurer of the Board.

The financial summary is as follows:

Amount assessed upon the District.....	$1,450.00
Amount assessed by the District.....	1,449.88
Offerings.....	1,531.58
Amount apportioned the District.....	1,900.00

SECOND DISTRICT.

The officers of the District are: The Rev E. H. Coley, Dean; the Rev. J. W. Clarke, Secretary; Mr. J. Francis Day, Treasurer; the Rev. W. W. Bellinger, D. D., and Mr. J. T. A. Doolittle, Members of the Board of Managers.

Missions of the Diocese—Second District.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are: In Oneida County—Augusta, Oriskany Falls, Boonville, Bridgewater, Camden, Clark's Mills, St. Joseph's, Rome, Whitesboro, Oriskany, Paris Hill, Clayville, Westmoreland, Durhamville, Holland Patent, New York Mills, Forestport, Deerfield and Chadwicks. In Madison County—Brookfield and Earlville.

Four meetings of the Convocation have been held during the year, two in Utica, one in Clayville and one in New Hartford.

Services are maintained in all the Mission Churches in the District, with the exception of Brookfield, where occasional services are held.

The Rev. Wm. Cooke, in charge of St. John's, Whitesboro, and St. Peter's, Oriskany, reports that regular services have been maintained in both places throughout the year. St. John's Sunday School continues to grow in numbers and interest, and all financial obligations of the parish have been met. Mr. Francis J. Hurley, a Lay Reader from Utica, has assisted in maintaining the services in St. Peter's, and the running expenses of the parish have all been met. The Missionary has held services and celebrated the Holy Communion in Brookfield, Oriskany Falls, Augusta and Holland Patent, where he has also prepared a class for Confirmation.

The Rev. A. H. Rogers reports that Sunday afternoon services have been maintained at Earlville. The interest in the services as well as the attendance has somewhat improved. The interior of the Church has been repaired and renovated.

The Rev. M. B. Bennett reports that since the opening of the Church in Boonville last June services have been held regularly and have been well attended. The Parish is in a prosperous condition. Services have been held regularly at Forestport and all assessments paid in full. The Churches at both places have been repaired during the year.

The Rev. John Arthur in charge of St. Andrew's, Durhamville, reports that services are held every Sunday by the Missionary and Mr. A. D. Hamblin, Lay Reader. The Holy Communion is administered regularly and special services held each week in Lent. The Sunday School is held every Sunday and is conducted by several faithful men and women.

The Rev. W. B. Coleman reports progress in the Chadwicks Mission. The Holy Eucharist has been celebrated twice a month.

Missions of the Diocese—Second District.

An Altar Guild has been formed, and the children of the village to the number of 30 meet regularly for instruction according to the Sulpician Method of Catechising. Repairs and improvements have been made. Good feeling in the community toward the Church is evidenced in many ways.

The Rev. Oliver Owen reports that St. Mark', Clark's Mills has had a good year, perhaps the best in many years. The congregations have more than doubled; the Easter Communion was the largest in any time, current expenses and assessments have been met in full.

The Rev. A. E. Dunham reports that on the whole the condition of Trinity Parish, Camden, is much better than last year. The work and worship has progressed steadily and harmoniously. The attendance at Lenten services and the Easter offering were much larger than usual.

The Rev. J. B. Wicks reports that regular services have been held in St. Paul's Church, Paris Hill. The attendance has been good, all financial obligations have been met, and the parish seems in a healthy working condition. The Missionary has held services and celebrated the Holy Communion in Clayville and Bridgewater.

The Rev. A. W. Allen reports that the work in New York Mills and Westmoreland is encouraging and that progress has been made. With some aid from the Altar Guild of Grace Church, Utica, a Vest-ed Choir has been formed in St. James', New York Mills. The Sunday School has largely increased in membership and the attendance has been regular. All assessments have been paid and the Mission is clear of debt. The attendance at services in Gethsemane Church, Westmoreland, has been very good and uniform. A branch of the Woman's Auxiliary has been formed. A gymnasium has been organized at both Missions and conducted by the Minister for the benefit of the boys and young men of the Church and others who desired the training. The results have fulfilled all expectations.

The Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtis reports that the affairs of St. Joseph's, Rome, are better spiritually, numerically and financially than at any previous time during his incumbency. The congregations have been very good, and on Easter Day nearly 200 persons received the Holy Communion. A number of gifts and memorials were received at Easter. A share of the present prosperity of the work is attributed to the new Rectory and Guild Hall, which is now the headquarters of all parish activities. The Missionary continues to act as Chaplain at the State Custodial Asylum and the Oneida County Home.

Missions of the Diocese—Second District.

Services have been held in Augusta, Oriskany Falls and Holland Patent chiefly by Lay Readers since the resignation of the Rev. E. L. Wells in December. The Dean has visited the fields and occasional services have been held by the Rev. Wm. Cooke.

Excellent progress continues to be made in Bridgewater and Clayville under the leadership of Mr. Charles K. Gilbert, Lay Reader from Hamilton College. A Ladies Guild has been organized in Clayville, a Sunday School library opened and a Building Fund started. The Rev. J. B. Wicks has continued to celebrate the Holy Communion in Bridgewater and Clayville and to conduct such other services as have been requested. In Brookfield services have been held by various clergy of the District and by Capt. E. R. D. Mayne, Lay Reader.

The Rev. J. W. Clarke reports that services have been held on alternate Sunday afternoons in St. Paul's, Deerfield. There have been nine Celebrations of the Holy Communion and occasional week day services during Lent. The Sunday School, under the charge of Mr. George M. Weaver, continues in a very prosperous condition.

The Report of the Treasurer of the District in detail will be found in the Report of the Treasurer of the Board.

EDWARD HUNTINGTON COLEY, Dean,

JAMES WINSLOW CLARKE, Secretary

(BROOME AND CHENANGO COUNTIES.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. Geo. G. Perrine, Dean; the Rev. Alex. H. Grant, Secretary; Mr. William J. Russell, Treasurer; the Rev. J. H. LaRoche, D. D., and Mr. John Anderson, members of the Board of Managers.

Missions of the Diocese—Third District.

The Third District embraces seventeen Parishes and Missions of which the following have received assistance from the Board during the past year; Harpursville and Afton, Chenango Forks and Whitney's Point, Bainbridge, Guilford and Mt. Upton, and Windsor.

Three meetings of Convocation have been held during the year, namely. in Grace Church, Whitney's Point; Trinity Memorial Church, Binghamton; and Christ Church, Guilford.

Afton and Harpursville—Too much credit cannot be given to the faithful efforts of the Rev. H. M. Brown to keep up services at these places, twice each Sunday at Harpursville and once every Sunday in Afton, with Sunday School in both places, and frequent services during Lent.

McDonough—Since the Rev. K. G. Heyne gave up the the charge of McDonough, Dec. 1st, 1900, there have been no regular services there. The Dean visited there in July and administered the Holy Communion, and in Sept., the Rev. James K. Parker spent two weeks in the place, and held services on two Sundays and administered the Holy Communion once. The Rev. C. D. Broughton gave them a service in January with Holy Communion. The people here feel able to contribute only about a hundred dollars a year towards the support of a Missionary.

Bainbridge—Much effective work has been accomplished in Bainbridge by the Rev. A. H. Grant. The work of rebuilding the Church organ, which was begun several years ago, has been completed at a cost of something between eight and nine hundred dollars. A chapter of the Girls' Friendly Society has been organized and is in a flourishing condition. There have been fewer deaths and removals than usual, during the past year, and the outlook for the Parish is felt to be encouraging. The lack of attendance, however, causes here, as it does in most places, a deep feeling of apprehension and sorrow in the mind and heart of the Rector. The offerings for the Missions of the Diocese have not been quite so good as last year, but an effort will be made to increase them.

Guilford and Mount Upton—The Church in Mt. Upton languishes but is not dead. There have been many removals and deaths and no correspondings gains, but the few church people there are very much devoted to the church and it is hoped the time will come when they can have better accommodations for worship and more frequent services.

Missions of the Diocese—Third District.

The Church in Guilford is in a much more prosperous condition. The services, on Sundays and weekdays, have been regular and constant with a good attendance, and the last report of the Treasurer showed a balance on the right side. The Endowment Fund of the parish is increasing at the rate of about $100. a year and amounts at present to between twelve and thirteen hundred dollars, which is safely invested by the Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Diocese. The last Easter offerings amounted to a little more than $150, the larger part being devoted to missions. On Easter Even 18 persons were admitted to the Church by baptism, and at the recent visit of Bishop Walker 17 persons were confirmed, most of whom received their first communion on Whitsunday morning. The parish has paid its quota to the missions of the Diocese in full.

Smithville Flats—Smithville Flats is a village of about 600 inhabitants and four or five miles north of Greene. The Rev. Mr. Hubbard has been holding services there for the past few months which have been well attended and two of the leading citizens of the place have recently been confirmed. A suggestion is made to organize here a mission of Zion Church, Greene. There is only one other religious body, the Presbyterian, holding regular services there at present, and there is a strong desire for the Prayer Book and the Church.

Whitney's Point The Rev. Mr. Coote has two services and Sunday School every Sunday, and one each Friday evening at this place, which services have been well attended. There have been six baptisms and three confirmations.

Chenango Forks—The services here have been continuous on Sunday afternoons, but the congregation has been considerably diminished by the removal of several of its members to Binghamton and other places. Much credit is due to those who remain for their faithful efforts in behalf of the Church and for their assistance in the Sunday School. There have been three baptisms and three confirmations.

Windsor—The parish in Windsor is at present without a minister, having been vacant since the eighth of Dec. when the Rev. M. Hoffman resigned and accepted a call to Clayton.

The report of the Treasurer of the District in detail will be found in the report of the Treasurer of the Board.

Missions of the Diocese—Fourth District.

Amount assessed by the District.....	1,615.00
Amount paid by Parishes and Missions.....	1,572.97

FOURTH DISTRICT.

(ONONDAGA, OSWEGO AND CORTLAND COUNTIES, and the Townships of MADISON COUNTY not included in the Second District.)

The officers of the Fourth District are: The Rev. William De Lancey Wilson, Dean; the Rev. Herbert G. Coddington, Secretary; Mr. George J. Gardner, Treasurer. The officers and the Rev. John T. Rose and the Rev. Henry S. Sizer compose the Executive Committee. Mr. George C. McWhorter and the Secretary are the elected members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission stations in the Fourth District are: East Syracuse, Manlius, Jamesville, Marcellus, Cleveland, Constantia, Lacona, Redfield, Altmar, Mexico, Warners, Memphis, Pulaski, Canastota, Chitt, enango, St. Philips' Church for colored people, Syracuse; St. Luke's Mission, Syracuse, and St. John's Mission, Oswego.

Stipends are given to all of these except St. John's Mission, Oswego.

Three Meetings of the Convocation have been held during the year in the church of St. John the Divine, Syracuse, May 7 and 8, 1901; in St. Paul's Chapel, Syracuse, July 2, 1901; and in St. James' Church, Pulaski, October 15 and 16, 1901.

Manlius Christ Church, Manlius, of which the Rev. George D. Ashley is rector, was founded in 1811 and is the oldest in the District, there being but five older in the whole diocese. The usual services have been conducted and the parish has maintained its reputation for faithfulness.

Missions of the Diocese—Fourth District.

Jamesville—The Rev. Dr. Theodore Babcock, Dean of St. Andrew's Divinity School, Syracuse, is in charge of St. Mark's Church, Jamesville. He reports the loss of several communicants and members of the congregation by death and removal. The parish is loyal and active and has promptly paid all its assessments. A number of Mission services have been conducted in the neighboring village of Lafayette.

East Syracuse—The Rev. Dr. Theodore Babcock, in charge reports as follows: "Families (last report) 34; added 2; lost by removal 8; present number 28.

"Communicants 68; added by confirmation 8; received 3; lost by death and removal 23; present number 56.

"Baptisms (infant) 7; confirmed 8.

"Offerings—Salary of pastor $243.40; Repairs on Church $249.32; Insurance $24 00; Diocesan Missions $20.00; Total $536.72. Stipend for Missionary Fund $25.00. A monthly celebration of the Holy Communion has been provided by the Bishop and the pastor in charge.

Altmar—St. John's Church, Altmar, is sustained by the devoted rector, the Rev. B. E. Whipple and a little band of faithful Church people. Eleven persons were confirmed at the Bishop's annual visitation, and the Parish is more prosperous than in several years past.

Pulaski—The Rev. E. A. Anson reports that, although St. James' Church has sustained some losses by the removal of members, the affairs of the Parish are in good condition. The rector proposes to conduct Mission services at the neighboring village of Fernwood.

Lacona and Redfield—The Rev. Daniel Daly continues to minister to the congregations of Emmanuel Mission, Lacona, and Grace Mission, Redfield. He reports that if he was provided with a horse and carriage he could better serve his separated churches and their widely scattered people.

Marcellus—St. John's Church, Marcellus, one of the most active of the smaller Parishes of the Diocese, has enjoyed a year of prosperity. The rector, the Rev. E. B. Mott, has conducted a number of services at Howlett Hill and at a school-house a few miles south of Missions of the Diocese—Fourth District.

Marcellus. The possession of a horse and carriage would enable the rector to do much additional work among the farmers who live remote from the village.

Mexico—Mr. George C. Richmond, a candidate for Holy Orders, and formerly a Congregational minister has during the latter part of the year ministered to the Congregation of Grace Church, Mexico with marked success. Good congregations have attended the services and interest in the Church, has been greatly stimulated.

Cleveland—Under the wise direction of the Rev. B. T. Stafford, St. James' Church, Cleveland, continues to prosper. All assessments have been paid.

Chittenango and Canastota—These Parishes are served, as for several years, by the Rev. George H. Ottaway, Principal of the Canastota High School. This arrangement is very satisfactory.

Onondaga Indian Reservation—The devoted Missionary the Rev. Wm. S. Hayward has conducted regular and frequent services in this unique field. He reports 19 baptisms, catechising and instruction every Sunday, and about 500 parochial calls. The rector's daughters also give instruction in sewing, drawing and music to the Indian children, and in Lace work to the Indian women.

The work at this point is particularly hard and unusually interesting. It should have the generous support of our Church people.

Memphis—Emmanuel Church, Memphis, has enjoyed a year of unbroken prosperity and growth. The missionary, the Rev. Frederick B. Keable, who is also rector of Christ Church, Jordan, has organized a Sunday School and secured some additional articles of Church furniture. All assessments have been paid. The women of the Mission have raised funds for painting the Church building.

Marathon—The Rev. W. W. Way, rector of Grace Church, Cortland, contemplates the opening of Mission Work at Marathon. This is a new field for the Church.

Warners—On the removal from the district of the former Missionary, the Rev. E. W. Saphore, the work at this point was placed in the charge of the Rev. J. E. Ramsdell, rector of Grace Church, Baldwinsville, and has been maintained and well managed.

St. Luke's Mission, Syracuse—With the help of Mr. Wilson E.

Missions of the Diocese—Fifth District

Tanner and Mr. Frederick T. Henstridge, Candidates for Holy Orders, and several ladies, who have served as teachers, the Rev. J. E. Johnson, of Calvary Church, Syracuse, has conducted an afternoon Sunday School and an evening service in this difficult field.

St. Philips' Church, Syracuse—In July, 1901, the rector the Rev. H. G. Coddington secured the services of an assistant, Mr. N. Peterson Boyd, a graduate of St. Paul's school, at Lawrenceville, Virginia. Since that time regular and evening services have been conducted and the attendance has increased. A class of fifteen was confirmed by the Bishop in Lent. There is a mortgage of $1200 on the church property. An effort is now being made to pay this.

The report of the Treasurer will be found in the report of the Treasurer of the Board of Managers.

FIFTH DISTRICT.

COUNTIES OF CAYUGA AND SENECA.)

The officers of the District are: The Rev. Wm. Bours Clarke, Dean; the Rev. Charles W. McNish, Secretary, and Mr. A. N. Hollister, Treasurer, the two latter being also members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are: In Cayuga County—Aurora, Cayuga, Union Springs, Port Byron, Weedsport, Kelloggsville and Northville.

Missions of the Diocese—Fifth District

In Seneca County—Dey's Landing, Hayt's Corners, Romulus, Rose Hill, Kidders Ferry, Willard and Willowdale.

Three meetings of Convocation have been held during the year, viz. At Cayuga Lake Park July 2, 1901; Trinity Church, Seneca Falls Nov. 19 and 20, 1901 and Grace Church, Union Springs May 6 and 7, 1902.

The Parish of St. Matthew's Church, Moravia, has been vacant during a larger part of the year, but is fortunate now in having the ministrations of the Rev. G. P. Somerville, D. D., who took charge on Palm Sunday.

Weedsport and Port Byron are in charge of the Rev. Frederick B. Keable, the Rector of Christ Church Jordan, whose tireless energy and Christ-like devotion has given new courage to the feeble flocks at these two points.

Aurora, Union Springs and Cayuga are in charge of the Rev Wm. H. Casey, as for more than a quarter of a century: At Aurora a vested choir has been organized; at Union Springs there have been some important acquisitions; while at Cayuga things remain much the same.

At Northville three services were arranged for and held during the summer through the thoughtful consideration of the Dean. There was a goodly attendance and due appreciation on the part of the people.

The two self-supporting Parishes in Cayuga County, viz. St. John's and St. Peter's, Auburn, are doing their wonted good works, not only in winning souls to Christ and building them up in the way of righteousness, but in their multitudinous ministrations and works of mercy. Among the many notable traits of St. Peter's Parish is that it never fails to meet its assessments.

The report from Grace Church, Willowdale, is always most encouraging and full of inspiration.

The assessment of $40. upon this and the two other Missions associated with it, has been paid in full, nine souls have been baptized into the Kingdom, two of them adults. Three have been confirmed. Sixty Sunday services have been held and there have been thirteen celebrations of the Holy Communion. Four couples have been united in matrimony.

Missions of the Diocese—Fifth District.

At St. Andrew's Church, Dey's Landing, thirty-two Sunday services have been held, and an infant has been baptized.

At Rose Hill, nine services have been held.

Thanks are due to Bishop Frederick R. Graves for two services, to Bishop Francis for one, to the Rev. A. C. Clarke for three, as well as for several week-day ministrations, to the Rev. L. A. Washburn for one service, and to the Rev. Henry Barker for week-day ministrations. Six visits have been made to the County House.

At St. Stephen's, Romulus, Mr. Walter Jones, a candidate for Holy Orders and a student in Hobart College, has been doing good and faithful work.

A class for Confirmation has been prepared and awaits the promised visitation of the Bishop.

Christ Church, Willard, and Calvary Church, Hayt's Corners are in charge of the Secretary. The great financial adversity that was visited upon the people of both these Missions through the Bank failure of a year ago, has been met with true Christian fortitude, and a firmer trust has been placed in the never-failing Providence than ever before. There has been great affliction, too, in both parishes, but the tendency has been to bind the hearts of all more closely to the "God of all comfort."

A class of seven has just been confirmed at Willard since the close of the Convention year, as also, eight at Hayt's Corners. The assessments have more than been paid, and larger offerings for Domestic and Foreign Missions have been made than ever in one year before. So it can be truly said the horizon of both these Missions looks bright and encouraging, for which many thanks are due the Giver of every good and perfect gift.

During the year the Dean has twice officiated in St. Stephen's Church, Romulus, administering the Holy Communion on both occasions. He has visited the mission at Northville, and officiated once in Calvary Church, Hayt's Corners. He has also made several visits to the County House.

The detailed financial report of the District will be found in the report of the Treasurer of the Board of Managers.

SIXTH DISTRICT.

The officers of this District are: The Rev. T. Ainslie Stevenson, Dean; the Rev. Karl G. Heyne, Secretary; Mr. H. V. Bostwick, Treasurer; the Rev. George H. McKnight, D. D., and the Treasurer are members of the Board of Managers.

The Mission Parishes and Stations are: In Chemung County, Emmanuel Mission, Elmira; Big Flats, Millport and Horseheads, Wellsburg and Van Etten. In Tioga County—Candor and Spencer, Waverly and Smithboro. In Tompkins County—McLean, Slaterville Springs, Speedsville, Dryden, Groton and Trumansburg.

Three meetings of the Convocation have been held during the year, viz. At St John's Chapel, Ithaca, June, 1901, in Emmanuel Mission, Elmira, October 22 and 23, 1901, and Grace Church, Waverly, April 28, 1902.

Emmanuel Mission, Elmira and Big Flats, have been without regular clerical services since January; Mr. W. C. Young has maintained the Sunday School and acted regularly as Lay Reader at the first named place, and the Rev. Dr. McKnight officiated there several times during the Lenten season.

Horseheads and Millport—The Rev. Karl G. Heyne reports no services at Horseheads: at Millport, the assessment for Diocesan Missions, $25. is paid in full and services have been regularly held with seven baptisms. The Mission reports with sorrow the death of Mr. C. W. Brown, their efficient Lay Reader.

The Rector of Grace Church, Elmira, the Rev. W. H. Van Allen reports Missionary services held at the State Reformatory, St. Paulas' and the Arnot-Ogden Hospitals, the Old Ladies Home, at Handy Creek, and regularly at St. Agnes Mission, Elmira.

Candor, Spencer and Van Etten, have had the pastoral care of the Rev. E. C. Hoskins, who reports assessments duly paid and uninterrupted services in each place during the past year.

Waverly, Smithboro and Wellsburg, are under the care of the Rev. T. Ainslie Stevenson; the latter since October, 1901. Waverly has met all its liabilities promptly. The Church has been handsomely carpeted, and the Ladies Parish Aid has re-cushioned the pews at a cost of $133.00. Smithboro has had the usual services with one baptism and two confirmed. The Church building is sadly in need of repairs but is without the means to do it with.

Wellsburg was put in charge of the present Missionary last

er, by the Bishop, the list of communicants shows a great loss by death, and twenty not to be found living in the place; in st half year he has given two services in each month, and all ancial dues have been promptly paid.

: McLean, Speedsville, Slaterville Springs, Dryden and Groton,
v. Theodore Haydn has labored most earnestly the past year;
g but one appointment in his extensive field, and that during ecember flood. He writes: "I wish to make my people feel very Christian must of necessity be an active Missionary work-branch of the W.'A. has been established in Dryden; and an offering taken for Foreign and Domestic Missions, amount-reputation for faithfulness, opportunities for growth very

here is not very promising.

especial interest to all our people as it is peculiarly our own

D, Treasurer of the Diocese.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York :

The Treasurer of the Diocese herewith submits his Thirty-Fourth Annual Report. For that portion of it known as the Diocesan Mission Fund he would refer to his report as Treasurer of the Board of Managers where a minutely detailed account of receipts and disbursements will be found.

GENERAL FUND.

Next in importance financially is this fund regarding which he cannot speak more encouragingly than in his former reports.

On the rising of the Convention of last year the Treasurer sent out a "Notice to Parishes in arrears" embracing a copy of the resolution adopted by the Convention touching the relation of old indebtedness to this fund and the authority given the Treasurer to compromise the same at such a sum as the Parish felt they could pay. Under this action, liberal as were its terms it was supposed that Parishes in arrears would avail themselves of its provisions and thus cancel a just indebtedness, in some instances the accumulation of many years and thus relieve themselves of what they considered an onerous burden, but what was the result. Of over one hundred notices sent out, but three responses were received! Whether from negligence, indifference or inability, responses were not forwarded, members of the Convention are as able to judge as myself. A copy of the notice sent out is appended to this report and forms a portion thereof. Courtesy and business comity would at least have required a more general response. Justice to those Parishes that were always prompt in meeting those assessments should have been considered and due regard had to the principle of bearing each others burdens.

The penalty of being deprived of a representation in Convention does not seem to meet the case. Some other plan must be devised, or financial support will fail altogether. I leave the matter in the hands of the Convention for them to solve the enigma.

The financial part of this report has been examined and pronounced correct by the committee appointed for the purpose.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE J. GARDNER,

Treasurer

Report of the Treasurer of the Diocese.

TO PARISHES IN ARREARS.

At the recent Diocesan Convention held June 11-12, the following resolution was adopted, viz. :

Whereas, the General Fund Assessment rolls of the Diocese for the year 1900 and 1901 carry a large item of similar assessments made in previous years, but unpaid by various parishes in the Diocese, and Whereas, many of these items of delinquent assessments are considerable, and beyond the ability of the respective parishes, be it Resolved, that the penalties imposed by Canon XI, Section 4 for non-payment of such assessments, be remitted by this Convention, so far as they relate to any assessments due the Diocese May 1st, 1900—and the delegates from such parishes be admitted to seats in this Convention—Resolved, that the Treasurer of the Diocese be instructed to compromise and settle in full all such claims of the Diocese against such parishes before making the assessment for the General Fund for the year 1901-1902.

Under this resolution all dues accruing prior to May 1, 1900 are remitted so far as excluding delegates from the Convention for non-payment of assessments due at that time, and the Treasurer is authorized to compromise such indebtedness with the several parishes in arrears. You have been notified from time to time of the amount due from your parish. The Treasurer desires to know what sum you are able or willing to pay in settlement of the amount standing against your parish and thus wipe out all claims for arrears. It is an honorable claim and should be honorably adjusted and we think if left to your own sense of justice would prove more satisfactory than for the Treasurer to affix a sum. Every parish knows its own ability better than another. Will you therefore fill in the enclosed pledge and forward to the undersigned at once. By so doing it will enable the Treasurer to form an estimate of what may be received from this source and also relieve parishes from any further action which might be had by the Convention touching this vexed matter.

Report of the Committee on the Parochial Fund.

Report of the Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund.

The members of this committee are living in different towns and it being quite difficult to arrange it so they could work together, I took two young men from our Savings Banks, who are experts and doing this kind of business all the while, and they have examined Mr. Green's accounts carefully, and find the securities as represented by Mr. Green, and account for all the investments according to his statement. Many of the mortgages are made up out of three or four different funds, making the matter quite complicated and intricate. I find some of the mortgages made by people I have little confidence in; I also find that some of them are paying 6 per cent., which makes me question the character of the security, as any one with good security can get money at 5 per cent. readily. I find some of Mr. Snavlin's mortgages, that the interest is behind, and some of the taxes are not paid; and I think there are one or two others. I recommend that a competent committee of your body be appointed to carefully examine the different properties as to value and present condition, upon which you hold mortgages.

Respectfully submitted,

A. C. CHASE,

Chairman.

Syracuse, June 3, 1902.

To the Convention :

In regard to remarks contained in the Report of the Chairman of the Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, and with all respect for him, and acknowledgement of his courtesy, I beg leave to say :

1. As to the statement that "Many of the mortgages are made up out of three or four different funds", to be specific, there are nine mortgages, two of which are made up each from three, and seven each from two separate funds. The fact is not new in the management of these funds. When fifteen years ago I became the treasurer, I found among the mortgages two such instances, very deliberately sanctioned by a Board of Trustees, which included such lawyers as Judges Comstock and Marvin.

One of these mortgages was for $20,000 made up from three different funds, the other of $1,500 from two. I thought it not improper to follow such an example, never questioned, when a loan deemed good was offered which could not otherwise be made. The trustees hold some thirty or more different funds, ranging in amount from $100.00 to $25,000, one half of them of $1,000.00 each or less. These would be often more or less uninvested if not so combined. No loss has been occasioned in such a case, nor is any likely. It is true that one keeping or examining the mortgage accounts may find for this reason some intricacy. Therefore, I have ordinarily avoided taking such mortgages.

2. Mr. Chase further says that the fact that some of the mortgages are paying six per cent. makes him "Question the character of the security, as any one with good security can get money at five per cent. readily."

Yet it is known that many mortgages entirely secure bear six per cent.

Sometimes a supposed greater delay, expense, or strictness leads the borrower to prefer paying six per cent. elsewhere rather than apply to a Savings Bank. Sometimes the mortgage is to run so short a time that he thinks the difference in the rate immaterial. Sometimes more money is wanted than the rules of the Bank would allow. I understand Savings Banks are now permitted to lend sixty per cent. of the value of improved real property, but until recently the limit was fifty.

On quite a number of our mortgages material payments have been made, sometimes one half, yet the parties continue to pay six per cent. There are securities on which that rate has been punctually paid for eight or ten years, and in one case for twenty.

3. It is true that a year's interest is unpaid on four of the Snaylin mortgages. It is believed however, that no loss will occur, certainly no considerable one. The principal sums secured by them aggregate $2,750.00. They cover nine lots, eight of which are in settled parts of Syracuse, and one in Onondaga.

Three of these mortgages having paid six per cent. for over eight years have netted over five per cent. to this date. The remaining $400.00 has netted four per cent. to date.

Until this year, during a period of fifteen years, the Trustees of the Parochial Fund have not had to take title to mortgaged property, except in the single instance mentioned in their report. This is not expected to involve a loss. The writer remembers a foreclosure in 1881 by the trustees for a like amount which caused no loss he believes, though others in 1882 and 1884 did. It is modestly submitted that the record of the past fifteen years has not been such as to call for any anxiety now. Even five per cent. mortgages we know are not always security against the necessity to foreclose.

Respectfully submitted,

A. H. GREEN.

B. Van Wagenen Fund.

to the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York :

The changes in the Fund since the last report are few and easily numerated.

Two loans (Stratton and Buckley) have been paid off and the liens satisfied of Record ; three (Andrews, Davis and McAdams) have been reduced by payments, while two (Rogers and Horton) have been increased by additional liens.

Two new securities, Van Tassell and Skinner, have been acquired mean while. The former is secured by mortgage on 9 1-2 acres of land in the town of Norwich on the west side of the Chenango River adjoining the Half-way House (so called) buildings thereon insured for $700, mortgage recorded Mch. 2, 1898, Book 114, Page 491 ; the latter, by lien on the identical farm upon which the Buckley lien has just been satisfied, which had been held in the Fund since 1892.

The increase in the Horton loan was to supplement the building of an additional barn on the property. Recorded Jan. 31, 1902, Book 126, Page 490.

That of the Rogers loan was to provide for the payment of floating indebtedness of the owner. In addition to the bond, the loan was further strengthened by the guaranty of the interest and $919.07 of the principal by Wm. D. Willoughby and Geo. B. Fletcher, residents of Oxford and men of means. Mortgage recorded Sept. 13, 1901, Book 127, Page 137.

Credits of interest payments for the current year will be found on my cash account, leaving but four loans where there is default of interest, in no case earlier than March 5, 1901, and amounting to a total of two hundred thirty-one dollars.

There have been no disbursements beyond part rent of a safe-deposit box.

Report on Christian Education.

A. Report of the Committee on Christian Education.

The Committee on Christian Education respectfully presents the following report :

At the first annual Convention of the diocese, held in the year 1869, on motion of the late Rev. Dr. Wm. D. Wilson, a Committee on Christian Education was appointed, and since that time twenty-three reports of successive Committees have been published, occupying, severally, from one to seventeen pages of the Annual Journal of the diocese. These reports evince both a careful consideration of the subject by their respective authors and the prevailing trend of thought in educational affairs. The field has been surveyed from almost every conceivable view-point, and the reports form a most valuable body of suggestion. And if it is true that nothing new remains to be said it is also true that nothing new need be said.

IMPORTANCE OF SUBJECT.

Your Committee is well aware that this Convention meets to attend to the economies of the diocese, but may it not be true that impelled by the materialistic influence of our day we have been led, gradually and insensibly, to place too great an emphasis on the importance of mere business, and to give altogether too small a proportion of time to the consideration of subjects which intimately concern the growth, and even the life itself of the Church?

The business of the Church is to carry the Gospel into every hamlet and every heart, and to educate its members in the principles of true life.

Missions and Education have ever been the watchwords of the Church in its best days, and in this day, certainly, we cannot with safety or with honor remove them from our banners. Without missions there would be no Church; neither can any branch of the Church be regarded as fulfilling its mission while yet indifferent to the work of Christian Education.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION NEEDED.

Evidences are not wanting that the movement of popular thought is toward a purely secular education.

We are still a young nation, and it may be true that at this period of our growth our energies are properly directed to the acquirement of a material equipment, but it surely devolves upon Christian leaders and teachers to constantly assert that nothing can take the place of spiritual realities, which outlast and outweigh all accumulations of buildings and dollars, and even of facts, apart from the deeper facts of human need and human destiny.

THE IMPORTANCE OF HOME TRAINING.

"The unit of civilization is the family." "The progress of civilization will yet make every home a shrine," said Emerson. We have not yet been permitted to see this prediction fulfilled. The partial decay of family life is the cause to-day of much misgiving among Christian statesmen, and the fruitful source of many evils. All education begins in the home, and in the home Christian education has its freest and finest field. The immense improvement of the means of travel and communication, the great increase of pleasure resorts, the extreme extension of club life, even the public school system itself, have all contributed to loosen the ties and invade the privacy of the home. The home is the first school of the child, divinely appointed, and the parents are the divinely appointed teachers whose work cannot be delegated without loss. No other altar can take the place of the family altar, and no other influence can compare with the influence of a Christian home training the young child in habits of reverence, truthfulness, and trustful and affectionate obedience. A nation of homes is safe. A parish of homes is always a strong parish. And children living in homes in which are instilled, by precept and example alike, the great verities of the Faith and the graces of Christian character are best equipped to meet the temptations and conquer the difficulties and enter into the largest possibilities of their lives.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Next to the Christian home stands, in our present system, the Sunday School. With all its crudeness, its defects, its limitations, its lack of discipline and system, and its imperfectly furnished teachers, the Sunday School is yet a most valuable agency for imparting to children the fundamental truths of Christianity. If the Sunday School can do no more than teach each of its members the Lord's Prayer, the Apostles' Creed and the Ten Commandments, giving thus to each the Church's rule of devotion, of Faith, and of Conduct, it will have shown its right to exist; and it is safe to say that the majority of our Sunday Schools do more than this. A more systematic instruction, a better discipline and a well trained body of teachers we undoubtedly need, but let us not make the mistake of underrating what is good because it is not better.

A SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMISSION.

This diocese was most fortunate in receiving last year from its Special Committee on Sunday School Work an unusually complete and suggestive report on that subject. Possibly it would be well to constitute this Special Committee a permanent one, with enlarged powers. A Sunday School Commission composed of twelve members, two from each of the six missionary districts of the diocese, might keep in close touch with all the Sunday Schools of the diocese, and serve to stimulate and unify this department of our Church work.

Report on Christian Education.

THE DECLINE OF THE PARISH SCHOOL.

It is significant that while twenty years ago there were five parochial schools in the Diocese to day there is but one, that at Waterloo, which has been enabled by an endowment to continue its work. The Public School system, supported by taxation at a great cost, has rendered the maintenance of parish schools impracticable if not unnecessary.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOL.

Under present conditions the Public School must confine itself to the work of secular education. Whether this ought to be so or not is a question of many sides, the discussion of which would not be profitable at this time. So far as we can foresee the system is destined to be permanent in the Commonwealth. It is a magnificent product of American enterprise and generosity. Certainly they are not wise who antagonize it because it is lacking in some of the elements of the ideal.

THE DIOCESAN SCHOOLS.

Our two Diocesan institutions, of academic grade, Keble school in Syracuse, and St. John's school at Manlius, continue to do good work, and are worthy of the full confidence and generous support of all the people.

Founded by our venerable Bishop at the beginning of his Episcopate, under his constant supervision, controlled by Boards of Churchmen and holding high rank both as schools and as centers of Christian and Churchly influences, they yet lack but one thing, an adequate financial foundation. We look forward to the time when generous men of means and good will shall endow these schools.

With a proper building of its own, Keble school, standing next to the Bishop's Church in the See city, might be made an important part of a great cathedral foundation.

On the 8th of last April the main buildings of St. John's school were destroyed by fire. Fortunately there was no loss of life, and the occasion brought conspicuously to light the bravery, devotion and discipline of the faculty and cadets. With marked energy and skill the principal provided at once for the continuance in temporary quarters, of all school exercises, thus avoiding an injurious interruption of recitations or discipline.

With the funds at their disposal, amounting to about $25,000, the Trustees, after careful deliberation, have decided to erect one substantial structure of brick or stone, which shall contain offices, dining room and study and recitation rooms. This work is already in the hands of a competent building committee. The Chaplain, the Rev. A. C. Clarke, has procured from friends a considerable sum to be used in the erection of a Chapel. Other buildings are greatly needed, especially two dormitories and a gymnasium. An unsurpassed opportunity is here presented to Churchmen of large means. With the possible exception of the building of a Church no man of wealth could have a nobler monument than the building or endowment of a Christian school. Your committee would also strongly urge the advantages to be derived from the establishment of scholarships in each of our Diocesan schools.

The Church and the Diocese possess in St. John's one of the best schools of its class in the whole country. Its present wide and growing reputation has been largely gained by the persistent energy and wise management of its principal, Col. Wm. Verbeck.

It is gratifying to report, in this connection, that the citizens of Syracuse have shown a natural interest in the school and have already contributed a considerable amount to the Building Fund.

CHURCH STUDENTS' ASSOCIATIONS IN COLLEGES.

The Diocese possesses no College or University, but there are within its geographical boundaries four institutions for the higher education of youth -Syracuse, Cornell and Colgate Universities and Hamilton College, all but one of which were founded by bodies of Christian men, and in all of which the principles of the Christian religion are recognized as the standard of conduct.

Your Committee desires to call attention to the recent establishment at Syracuse University, through the efforts of the Rev. E. W. Saphorè, and with the cordial approbation of the authorities, of a Church Students' Association, modeled somewhat after the St. Paul's Society of Harvard, and the Berkeley Association of Yale. It is believed that such a society, wherever it exists, may be the effective means, through religious and social meetings, special sermons and lectures and the study of Church history, for training its members and others in the teachings and devotion of the Church.

THE SHELTER FOR HOMELESS GIRLS.

No report on Christian Education in the Diocese would be complete without an appreciative notice of the gracious and difficult work which is accomplished each year at the Shelter for Homeless Girls in Syracuse.

An Industrial School is here conducted, which holds an honorable and unique place among the educational forces of the diocese.

THE IDEAL.

The Church stands for a complete education and symmetrical development of the whole man, body and mind and spirit, and it will continue, in spite of the manifest tendencies and forces of a materialistic age, to hold up this ideal, always insisting upon the vital importance in all educational processes and institutions, of the Christian Faith, the authority of revealed truth and the supremacy of spiritual realities.

N. Work Among Deaf Mutes.

SYRACUSE, JUNE, 1902.

At the Thirty-third Annual Convention of this Diocese, held in Calvary Church, Utica, June 11 and 12, 1901, the following resolution was adopted: "Resolved that a commission consisting of four clergymen and three laymen, be appointed by the Bishop for carrying on Church work among the Deaf Mutes in the Diocese of Central New York.

"Resolved that such a commission be authorized to call for contributions on behalf of this work and to appoint its own officers." Under this resolution the Bishop appointed those whose names appear below in the report.

The idea of such a permanent commission for this very important branch of our Diocesan Missions came from that of others similarly constituted and already existing in the Dioceses of Albany and Central Pennsylvania.

Work Among Deaf Mutes.

Its duties are to relieve the Bishop and the Board of Missions of all care and anxiety in the matter, to solicit subscriptions and to arouse and sustain interest throughout the Diocese on behalf of the Deaf Mutes.

Although this work has been going on now for some years in our Diocese, it has always been found difficult to provide for its maintenance, and in many cases the Missionary has been compelled to wait several months for his meagre and much needed stipend.

The canonical offerings for this purpose were irregularly taken and oftentimes entirely neglected, not it is thought through intentional neglect or unwillingness, but more often because the Parishes were not sufficiently reminded of it. The main work of the commission this past year has been therefore to secure the Missionary's salary.

In this we are glad to say we have met with a most gratifying success. We have been enabled to give the Rev. Mr. Van Allen the sum of $500.00 and to send it to him most of the time in monthly installments and we have ended the year with a neat balance in our treasury to carry us through until the next quarterly payment from the Board of Missions, and the next canonical offering begins to come in.

Of this $500.00 paid, we wish to acknowledge the liberal allowance from the Board of Missions of $200.00, and also the $100.00 given by our diocesan branch of the Junior Auxiliary.

The remainder has been received from the parishes. For one and all thus contributing and sustaining our efforts we wish to express our thanks, trusting that the same aid may be given for this year.

This money, together with what Mr. Van Allen receives from the dioceses of Albany and Vermont, provides him with a fairly comfortable living. His traveling expenses, however, are heavy, so that if we could increase his stipend sufficiently to cover that item, the extra amount would be a considerable and needed assistance.

This expense, as appears from the missionary's report, is largely met by the offerings of the Deaf-Mutes themselves, but these offerings are not quite enough for the purpose. Most of the people ministered to are of very moderate means. Nevertheless, an effort will be made this year to increase and systematize their gifts.

We venture to suggest that the canonical offerings for the Deaf-Mute work be asked for on the Sunday next before Advent, rather than on the 12th Sunday after Trinity. We say this because of the fact that this latter Sunday usually falls sometime in the month of August, when in many of the parishes, a large portion of the people who could and would give, are away from their homes.

Work Among Deaf Mutes.

Still we recognize that local conditions must govern in this as in other offerings, so if neither of these appointed Sundays is convenient, we would remind our friends that the money is acceptable whenever it is received.

The Missionary's field, together with his work in our sister dioceses, is a very extensive one, and the only wonder is how he so ably and so faithfully accomplishes as much as he does.

His own report appended to this, gives a very clear and definite account of what he is doing in Central New York. The commission has the greatest confidence in his ability and in his unqualified consecration to duty. We cannot but express the hope that the day will soon come when his entire time or that of some other missionary can be given exclusively to us in this diocese.

Report of the Missionary to Deaf Mutes.

(2.) Report of the Missionary to Deaf Mutes.

To the Commission on Church Work among the Deaf and Dumb in the Diocese of Central New York:

GENTLEMEN: In submitting my first report as your Missionary among the deaf and dumb of the Diocese, I am very glad to be able to say that, in spite of some little friction and confusion, unavoidable during the first year of a new system of organization and control, the work of the Mission has been carried on very successfully, and that the outlook for the future is most encouraging. One of the greatest hindrances has been the fact that I have resided at so great a distance from the centre of my field, and my recent removal to Utica, placing me in a much more advantageous situation, will, I trust, greatly facilitate the work of the coming year.

Services have been maintained during the past year in nearly all of the principal cities and towns of the Diocese. The deaf are engaged in mechanical pursuits almost exclusively, and they naturally gather in industrial centres where employment can most readily be obtained. It is therefore possible by holding services at certain well selected points, to reach fully seventy-five per cent. of the adult deaf of the Diocese with the minimum expenditure of time and labor. At present services are held monthly or oftener at Syracuse and Utica, once a month at Rome, Oneida, Watertown and Binghamton and at somewhat less frequent intervals at Auburn, Elmira and Owego. During the coming year I hope to begin regular ministrations at Oswego, Fulton, Norwich, and, perhaps, Ithaca, and then, I venture to believe, the Diocese will be very effectually covered.

I have endeavored as far as possible to impress upon the deaf the fact that they are all members of the Church, and that the mission to the deaf is merely an incident—the result of their inability to join completely in the ordinary services of the Church. Properly instructed, and with our beautiful Prayer Book offices before them, it is possible for the deaf to participate intelligently and profitably in our ordinary services, the sermon being the only part of the service lost to them. It requires, of course, a long course of patient instruction and a more than ordinary amount of religious fervor and concentration on their part to enable them to do this, but as long as it is impossible to collect the deaf into one compact body and completely supply all their spiritual needs this seems to be the end for which we should strive. The work of the Missionary is thus very largely that of an evangelist, exhorting, instructing, counseling and persuading, and in no way trenching upon the work of the rectors of the Parishes. During the year there have been only a few special Celebrations of the Holy Communion in the sign language, due, in part, to the fact that the Missionary has been in Priest's orders only a couple of months, but it is believed that wherever the deaf are sufficiently well instructed to receive intelligently at ordinary Celebrations, they should do so, and that sign Celebrations should not be so frequent as to withdraw the deaf from Communion with their more fortunate fellow Christians. There ought not to be, habitually at least, one Table for the deaf and another for the hearing. The friends and educators of the deaf are daily coming to a deeper appreciation of the fact that the uplifting of the deaf, intellectually, socially and spiritually, must come largely through a more intimate association with the hearing, and the divinely appointed means of effecting a spiritual communion should be most strongly emphasized.

It is no easy task to summarize comprehensively, yet briefly, the work of the year. Much of it has been of a nature which defies generalization and equally forbids detail. The following summary, made up from my quarterly reports, will I hope be sufficient to indicate the extent of my work:

Services have been held as follows: At Syracuse, 13; at Utica, 14; at Rome, 11; at Oneida, 11; at Watertown, 10; at Binghamton, 9; at Elmira, 7; at Owego, 7; at Auburn, 1; total, 83. Of these services, one each at Syracuse, Utica, Binghamton and Elmira were Celebrations of the Holy Communion.

There have been four Baptisms, one each at Syracuse and Owego and two at Utica, one of the latter being that of an adult.

There has been one confirmation, at Utica. A class of half a dozen members was to be presented at Rome, but owing to the postponement of the visitation until autumn, these confirmations must be included in my next report.

There have been two marriages of deaf people and I have also married one hearing couple.

During the year I have made 67 pastoral calls upon deaf people all over the Diocese at their homes, in the course of which I have seen and talked with 154 individuals. I have lectured once to the people at Utica, and have attended a picnic at which over a hundred deaf people were present. It may give some idea of the amount of work which I am called upon to do, and how completely my time is taken up, if I say that at a very moderate estimate I traveled twenty thousand miles during the year.

celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the ordination to the Priesthood of the Rev. Thomas Gallaudet, D. D., the father of deaf-mute missions, which was held in St. Ann's Church, New York City. After the exercises I attended a conference of the clergy and other mission workers which proved both interesting and helpful. On the Sunday after Christmas, 1901, I preached the sermon for Dr. Gallaudet at St. Ann's.

The offerings of the deaf at the services have amounted to $101.99 for ordinary purposes, and $1.10 for the Gallaudet Home for Blind, Aged and Infirm Deaf-Mutes, making a total of $103.09. My expenditures have been as follows: For travelling expenses, $110.46; for postage, printing, stationery, etc., $20.48; expenses of visiting clergy, $2.35; offering forwarded to Gallaudet Home, $1 10; total, $134.39.

I cannot close this report without making special acknowledgement of the kindness shown me by the members of the Woman's Auxiliary. My thanks are specially due to the ladies of Grace and Calvary Churches, Utica; Grace, Waterville; Trinity, Binghamton; to the Junior Auxiliary of St. George's, Utica, and Miss M. E. C. Dunlap, of Trinity Church, Utica.

Thanking the members of the Commission for the unvarying kindness and consideration shown me, I am Very respectfully yours,

H. VAN ALLEN.

The members of the Parish during the past year had to make up between $300 and $400, losses occasioned by several deaths, and about $50 for Diocesan Missions. They have done these acts and have merited praise by their generous responses. They have surprised both themselves and their Rector. All was done willingly and promptly and quietly.

The absence of the Rector at the General Convention in San Francisco, and after his return two severe accidents, dislocating his right shoulder and injuring his right wrist, have interfered with his Parish work and make this report imperfect in several particulars. No Episcopal visitation during the year.

Sec. 3. At every Convention the Bishop shall take the Chair, and shall continue to preside during its sitting. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper—provided, however, that the service, if not personal, shall be a notice of at least sixty days.

Sec. 11. The accused may have the privilege of appearing by counsel; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have like privilege; which counsel shall in all cases be members of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

APPENDIX VIII.

Proposed Amendments to the Constitution of the Church.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Central New York :

In compliance with the requirements of Article XI. of the Constitution, I would hereby make known that the following alterations of the Constitution of the Church are proposed : to wit, those comprised in the resolutions printed herewith, said resolutions having been constitutionally adopted by a General Convention held in the city of San Francisco, in October, A. D., 1901.

CHARLES L. HUTCHINS,

Concord, Massachusetts,
March 1, A. D., 1902.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That the following changes be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alterations be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows :

Amend Article I., Section 2, of the Constitution by striking out the word "and" at the end of the second line and inserting in place thereof the word "or," and also by striking out the words "arising therefrom" in the third line, so that the section shall read as follows :

SECTION 2. Every Bishop of this Church having jurisdiction, every Bishop Coadjutor, and every Bishop who by reason of advanced age or bodily infirmity has resigned his jurisdiction, shall have a seat and a vote in the House of Bishops. A majority of all Bishops entitled to vote, exclusive of Foreign Missionary Bishops and of Bishops who have resigned their jurisdictions, shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Substitute for Article I., Section 3, of the Constitution, as finally agreed to and ratified at this Convention, the following :

SECTION 3. The House of Bishops, by vote of a majority of all the Bishops entitled to a seat in the said House, shall elect one of the Bishops having jurisdiction within the United States to be nominated for confirmation by the House of Deputies to be the Presiding Bishop of the Church. The Presiding Bishop shall hold office for three years. He shall discharge such duties as may be prescribed by the Constitution and the Canons of the General Convention. But if the Presiding Bishop shall resign his office as such, or if he shall resign his episcopal jurisdiction, or if in the judgment of the House he shall become disabled by reason of infirmity, or if for any other reason a vacancy in the office shall occur, the senior Bishop by consecration having jurisdiction within the United States shall thereupon become the Presiding Bishop until the House of Bishops shall elect an acting Presiding Bishop, who shall hold office until the next meeting of the General Convention, at which the Presiding Bishop shall be elected.

That Article I. of the Constitution be amended by adding thereto the following as Section 6, and changing the number of the present Section 6 to Section 7.

SECTION 6. One Clerical and one Lay Deputy chosen by each Missionary District of the Church within the boundaries of the United States shall have seats in the House of Deputies, subject to all the qualifications and with all the rights of Deputies except the right to vote when the vote shall be taken by orders.

Add to the first sentence of Article II., Section 1, after the words "Convention of the Diocese" the words:

Provided however, that when a Diocese shall be formed out of a Missionary District, the Missionary Bishop in charge of said District shall become the Bishop of said Diocese, if he shall so elect.

Strike out Article 5 of the Constitution and insert the following as Article V. of the Constitution, viz.:

ARTICLE V.

SECTION 1. A new Diocese may be formed, with the consent of the General Convention and under such conditions as the General Convention shall prescribe by general Canon or Canons, (1) by the erection into a Diocese of the whole or of any part of one or more Missionary Districts; (2) by the division of an existing Diocese; (3) by the junction of two or more Dioceses or of parts of two or more Dioceses; or (4) by the junction of the whole or part of a Missionary District with a Diocese, or with any part of one or more Dioceses. The proceedings shall originate in a Convocation of the Clergy and Laity of the Missionary District called by the Bishop for that purpose; or, with the approval of the Bishop, in the Convention of the Diocese to be divided; or (when it is proposed to form a new Diocese by the junction of two or more Dioceses or of parts of two or more Dioceses) by mutual agreement of the Conventions of the Dioceses concerned, with the approval of the Bishop or the Ecclesiastical Authority of each Diocese. In case the Episcopate of a Diocese be vacant, no proceedings toward its division shall be taken until the vacancy is filled. During a vacancy in a Missionary District, the consent of the Presiding Bishop must be had before proceedings to erect it into a Diocese are taken. When it shall appear to the satisfaction of the General Convention, by a certified copy of the proceedings and other documents and papers laid before it, that all the conditions for the formation of a new Diocese have been complied with and that it has acceded to the Constitution and Canons of this Church, such new Diocese shall thereupon be admitted to union with the General Convention.

Proposed Amendments to the Constitution of the Church.

SECTION 2. In case one Diocese shall be divided into two or more Dioceses, the Bishop of the Diocese divided may elect the one to which he will be attached, and he shall thereupon become the Bishop thereof; and the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, may elect the one to which he will be attached, and (if it be not the one elected by the Bishop) he shall be the Bishop thereof.

SECTION 3. In case a Diocese shall be formed out of parts of two or more Dioceses, each of the Bishops and Bishops Coadjutor of the several Dioceses out of which the new Diocese has been formed shall be entitled, in order of seniority of consecration, to the choice between his own Diocese and the new Diocese so formed. In case the new Diocese shall not be so chosen, it shall have the right to choose its own Bishop.

SECTION 4. Whenever a new Diocese is formed and erected out of an existing Diocese, it shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese, out of which it was formed, except as local circumstances may prevent, until the same be altered in accordance with such Constitution and Canons by the Convention of the new Diocese. Whenever a Diocese is formed out of two or more existing Dioceses, it shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons of that one of the said existing Dioceses to which the greater number of clergymen shall have belonged prior to the erection of such new Diocese, except as local circumstances may prevent, until the same be altered in accordance with such Constitution and Canons by the Convention of the new Diocese.

SECTION 5. A Diocese formed out of a Missionary District shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons to which such Missionary District was subject, until the same be altered in accordance with such Constitution and Canons by the Convention of the new Diocese.

SECTION 6. No new Diocese shall be formed which shall contain fewer than six Parishes, or fewer than six Presbyters who have been for at least one year canonically resident within the bounds of such new Diocese, regularly settled in a Parish or Congregation and qualified to vote for a Bishop. Nor shall such new Diocese be formed if thereby any existing Diocese shall be so reduced as to contain fewer than twelve Parishes and twelve Presbyters who have been residing therein and settled and qualified as above provided.

SECTION 7. The consent of the General Convention to the erection of a new Diocese shall not be given until it has satisfactory assurance of a suitable provision for the support of the episcopate.

Add to Article X of the Constitution the following:

And provided, further, that nothing in this Article shall be construed as restricting the authority of the Bishops of this Church to take such order as may be permitted by the Rubrics of the Book of Common Prayer or by the Canons of the General Convention for the use of special forms of worship.
